County Seat
Local and Personal Events
Tersely Told.

Mr. Percy Bivins of Philadelphia, is spending a few days in town. Miss Margaret Heim of Lancaster, Pa. will spend the summer at the Rectory.

Mr. Lewis Wager of Hillsgrove transacted business at the county seat Wednesday.

Services will be held in the Episcopal church every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30. The evening service will be a song service without a sermon.

Miss Cloyd Burnley, who is a professor at Vassar College, and Miss Dorothy Shank of Williamsport, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. W. H. Randall.

Mrs. R. A. Conklin has returned from the home of her niece, Mrs. William Lowe, near Sonestown, where she spent two months while convalescing from her long and severe illness.

Mrs. Geiger, mother of Mr. John Giger who lives on the Conklin farm beyond Lake Mokoma, is critically ill, and her death is expected at any time.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stepp, a daughter, on July 12. We do not know whether the baby's Stepp-father or its grandfather Mason is wearing the broadest smile.

Miss Rowena Herrman, daughter of Dr. M. E. Herrman of Dushore, is ill of typhoid fever.

Mrs. E. H. Cook of Athens, is visiting at the home of William Heim, in the second ward.

Miss Jessie Wrede has been engaged by the Colley township School Directors to teach one of the Lopez schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Allen and children visited friends at New Albany, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Meylert spent Wednesday at Eagles Mere.

Mrs. Amelia Hamilton of Marsh Hill, is visiting her mother, and her sister Mrs. Potter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Karns and children of Benton, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Karns' father, Mr. T. J. Keeler.

Miss Myrtle Edgar of Sonestown, spent a week in Laporte, taking orders for a very popular book.

Mrs. T. J. Ingham accompanied by her nurse, Miss Grace Hakes, is spending a few weeks with her son, E. V. Ingham, at Eagles Mere.

Mr. Clarence Ayers and Miss Florence Kilmer of Wheelerville, were married at Elmira, on July 4th.

Floyd Finkle and sister Pearl, of Roselle Park, N. J., are visiting their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Higley.

Mrs. Charles Heinze of Shunk, who went to the Williamsport Hospital to receive treatment for a cancer on her head, it has now developed is also suffering with cancer of the stomach.

The Methodist church at the west corner of Harvey's Lake was destroyed by fire Tuesday evening of last week, the origin of the fire being unknown. The residence adjoining the church, had a very narrow escape.

Among the late arrivals at the Mountain House are Mrs. Lewis Smith and Mrs. Moody of Philadelphia; Mrs. E. Ruppelye and daughter Esther of Jersey City; Mrs. M. Scheele of New York City; Mr. W. Ellis, Muncy; Mr. Galbraith, Williamsport; Miss Mooney, Miss Hurst, Syracuse, N. Y.

On Sunday evening July 3, Rev. I. H. Fisher preached his farewell sermon at the Baptist church where he had served as pastor for the past three years, and a few days later with his wife bade farewell to Laporte, and left for Schuylkill Haven, where they will spend the summer. Next fall Rev. Fisher will enter college at Philadelphia, and expects to take a three years' course. Mrs. Fisher will live at West Chester during the time her husband is at college. The best wishes of this community, for a successful future, is extended to the departed pastor.

A large congregation was present last Sunday evening in the Episcopal church. The Rt. Rev. Henry Darlington, D. D., of the Diocese of Harrisburg, officiated and made a forceful sermon. The singing by the choir of voices was the best ever heard in this church. A most appropriate solo "Come Unto Me," by the soloist, was most capably sung by Mr. Duble Scheele of New York.

Print the grandest sermon ever fell from inspired lips and 20 percent of even the profane will read it. Print an account of some female bunco or something equally sensational and 99 of the very elect will snoop down upon it like a hawk upon a bowl of crabsoup, and every word, then roll their heavenward and wonder what wicked world is coming to.

As a result of the recent drowning in Williamsport, an effort has started to organize a life saving society in that city. A number of good swimmers have signified intentions of joining. The government will furnish, free of expense, life saving buoys, flags and signs designate their station, and buttons and badges to denote their positions, and also boats and medicine chests where needful, containing remedies to resuscitate the drowned at half price cost.

Life Insurance

FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A POLICY WITH THE NEW YORK LIFE CAUSE—Incontestable from the date of issue. Because—absolutely without restrictions. Because—non-forfeitable from date of issue. Because—cash loans are provided after and year on demand at 5 per cent interest without fee or other charge. Because—if death does not occur an accumulative policy is a highly profitable investment for the policy-holder's life. Policies now maturing to living holders prove this. In fact NEW YORK LIFE policies do not fail.

Health and Accident Insurance written. A postal card will be mailed to you, or a personal interview can be had at the office Salays, regular office day. GEO. BROWN, Agent. LOPEZ, PA. Or in Dr. Christian Bl'd.
