NEW PURE BUTTER CRUSADE

Great Work of the New Department of Health Reflects Credit Upon the Administration.

[Special Correspondence.] Philadelphia, Aug. 8.

The movement started at a meeting at West Chester, under the auspices of Pomona Grange, No. 3, of Chester county, to bring about more satisfactory legislation by congress for the protection of the pure butter and dairy interests of this and other states, is one of far reaching significance.

This action was taken after the revelations made by Pure Food Commissioner Dr. B. H. Warren in his prosecutions growing out of the charge that oleomargarine colored as butter was being sold as butter to the United States navy.

After consultation between the national and state authorities it was decided that action should be taken under the Pennsylvania pure food laws because they were found to be far more stringent, comprehensive and sweeping than the federal statutes.

The farmers and dairymen of Pennsylvania will lead in the movement to have congress amend and strengthen the present statutes regarding the sale of oleomargarine. They will demand that the clause in the sixth section of the present statute which reads that every person who "knowingly" sells or offers for sale or delivers or offers to deliver any oleomargarine, etc., shall be amended so that the word "knowingly" shall be stricken out. Then it will not be necessary to prove before a conviction can be had that the guilty party "knowingly" violated the intent and spirit of the law.

Farmers' Interests Protected.

It is a matter of comment that the Republican party of Pennsylvania has always been jealous and deeply considerate of the interests of the farmers and dairymen of this state. Laws calculated to benefit the agricultural interests have been placed upon the statute books and they have stood the test in the courts. Not only is this legislation carefully and properly drafted, but the laws are enforced.

The work of Secretary of Agriculture N. B. Critchfield and of Pure Food Commissioner Dr. B. H. Warren in protecting the farming interest of this commonwealth is one of the most gratifying features of Governor Pennypacker's administration.

No other department has reflected more credit upon the state administration and upon the Republican party.

One of the pleasant experiences of the early campaign work by Chairman Wesley R. Andrews, of the Republican state committee, is the correspondence in reference to the feeling among the farmers and dairymen of the state. Every agricultural district is reported to be strongly in line with the Republican party. The dairymen are especially appreciative of the splendid work being done to protect the butter interests of the state and they confidently count upon the hearty co-operation of Senators Penrose and Knox and every one of the Republican members of the lower house of congress from this state in the movement to have the federal statutes regarding the sale of oleomargarine made as stringent and satisfactory as is the law passed by the Republican legislators of Pennsylvania and which is enforced with unflinching rigor in every section and county of the commonwealth.

Dr. Dixon's Great Work.

The news columns of the papers of the entire country have within the last week told of the diligent and thorough work being done by another department of the state administration. The protection of the health and the very lives of the citizens of the state is the aim of the recently created state health commission, under the direction of that eminent scientist, physician and sanitary specialist, Dr. Samuel G. Dixon. No appointment that Governor Pennypacker has ever made met with more general and more sincere commendation than his selection of Dr. Dixon as state health commissioner. His prompt organization of his office and immediate prosecution of the mission which he and his assistants have been delegated to fill is characteristic of the man.

Under the administration of Dr. Dixon no arbitrary acts will be committed, but the law will be enforced for the good of all the citizens of the several communities and with due consideration for the various interests affected. While people are dying like sheep in Louisiana from yellow fever, the health authorities of Pennsylvania are working night and day to safeguard the people from epidemics of all kinds, and the precautions already taken have resulted in a marked decrease in the death rate in many sections of the state.

Dr. Dixon's force is co-operating with local authorities wherever possible. The sources of pollution of rivers are being investigated, and remedies are being applied without delay and plans are being mapped out for permanent reforms in every direction.
