Within 10 days the Republican campaign in Pennsylvania will be well under way and work will be begun in earnest to assure the election of the entire Republican ticket by large majorities. Much has already been done in that direction in the preliminary canvass, and the September extra assessment out of the way, the cam-paigning to interest the voters in the Republican cause will be spirited and unceasing until the polls close on the

Although this is what is styled an "off year," when it is not expected that there will be many mass meet-ings, Chairman Andrews has already got a number of applications from young Republicans and many veteran orators effering their services to the state committee to address any mass meetings that may be held under the auspices of the state organization. The chairman will also be in a position to furnish orators to county meetings

AN ACT permitting children re siding in school districts in which no high school is maintained, to attend a high school in some other district located near their homes, and providing for the cost of tuition and school books. Section 1. Be it enacted etc. that children, residing in school districts in which no public high school is maintained, may attend a high school in some other district, located near their homes; provided the consent of the directors 'of the district in which said high school is located be first obtained; the cost of tuition and school books, which shall not exceed that of tuition and school book of children in the same grades of courses in the district maintaining such high school, shall be paid to the Convention of the State League the district receiving, out of the moneys raised by taxation for public school purposes in the district in which said children reside: PROVIDED, That, before admision to a high school, such pupils shall be examined and found qua". fied for high school work by the principal of such high school.

We invite the attention of 'our readers to the above quoted act of the last session of the State Legislature. In the future children who re side in districts in which no high school is maintained may without cost to their parents, attend other high schools. This will very materially increase the attendance of high schools now established and will. doubtless lead to the establishment of such schools in other districts.

LEST WE FORGET.

No One Fail to Remember the Democratic Tariff Times.

The past year has not been a boom year. Conservative business methods and some contraction have been the logical and inevitable sequence of the inflation and exaggerated speculation that accompany every period of wide spread prosperity in any country. The closest students of conditions believe that all branches of enterprise are merely "taking their second wind" for a renewal of the industrial and commercial activity that began when the country was freed from fear of the tariff and currency wreckers eight years ago. The belief of these observyears ago. The belief of these observ-ers is based upon advices about the crops, which on the whole are very good; the assured increase of railroad earnings because of big crops, the improved feeling in the steel and iron trade, the profits of our exporters be-cause of the war needs of Japan and Russia and the reports of good collec tions both in the east and west. Meanwhile there are thousands of men on strike in different parts of the country. Men in a few of the industries have lost positions or suffered : reduction of salary. To these men the old Lemocran -----

Guess the earth was froze through. Now the frost is going out She's all mush, beyond a doubt, Horseless vehicles? Why, yes; Mules could handle one, I guess.

Wish our congressman was here; Guess he'd see his duty clear As resards that good roads bill In the legislative mill And would hustie, first and last, Until he had got it passed.

Trade is paralyzed, of course; It could hardly be much worse. A week's pushing failed to start Aught except an old road cart Tha: I'd vowed to give away, But it brought a "V" today.

Could we have good roads in March My, but wouldn't it put starch Inte the vehicle trade Till we'd think our fortunes made! And if congress helps a bit Maybe we will have them yet. —Implement Age the Pittsburg Gazette is of interest: "In the history of Pennsylvania politics there has never been as dirty a of misrepresentation as campaign that now in progress. There has been trouble in the city of Philadelphia. It began with a gas franchise ordinance and has gone to the extent of involv ing some city contractors. In due course and by due process of law the accused will be declared guilty or innocent according to their deserts. In the meantime, however, there is a hue and cry sent out over the state that these men are guilty, and their sins em:C, are laid at the door of the Republican nOW. party. "The attack on the Republican party, however, is of another color. There is no mistaking that. It ema-nates from the committee of the whole of the Democratic party and is boost ed along by the organization of misfits whose motto is rule or ruin. Its very absurdity has led to allowing it to go unchallenged for so long that it is beginning to be accepted outside the state. The charge has been taken up by a lot of blantant yellow journals that try to carry political water on both shoulders, but which never lose a really good opportunity to thrust at the Republican party. That is all there is to it. There is no shadow of truth in the claim and the Republican will ram it voters in Novembe the false throats that give it utter-
