The entertainment given last Thursday night at Eagles Mere realized $300 for the Episcopal church. It was one of the finest entertainments ever given at that place. Last Sunday Bishop Cole of Delaware preached in the Episcopal church, and the collection at that time amounted to over $100.

The new trespass law which was passed by the last legislature provides a fine of ten dollars for those convicted of entering upon the premises of another to hunt or steal fruit, vegetables etc., together with the costs of prosecution. The law provides that where the defendants are not able to pay the fine and costs they shall be confined in jail one day for each dollar so charged up against them. The law is a pretty strenuous one, but it will not effect honest people who do not steal, and dishonest people who do steal have no right to be considered.

Much complaint is heard in this boro about boys and even girls entering others premises either at night or during the absence of the owners of the property, to steal fruit and flowers and sometimes vegetables, and instances have come to our notice recently where persons were obliged to remain home from church on the Sabbath in order to protect their property from these acts of vandalism.

Many persons went from here to witness the boat carnival at Eagles Mere last Friday evening. The prizes were awarded as follows:

Hotel Eagles Mere people their float was a stage with a production from Floradora. The consolation prize went to the Forest Inn which had an old-woman-in-a-shoe float and the many characters of Mother Goose lore. A boat representing a graceful white Swan and which belonged to Mr. Horace MacFarland, carried off the first prize for single boats. Miss Roberts took second prize for her boat representing the wife of Peter Pumpkin Eater.

A party of fifteen ladies and gentleman from the Mountain House night and interrupted the Rector in his sermonizing. The occasion being the birthday of Mr. Heim.

Reducing Width of Highway.
The sentiment in favor of the reduction of the width of highways from sixty to forty feet appears to be becoming quite general. Petitions from landowners in the different states, we learn, are being made to the highway commissioners to this effect. The claim made is that too much land is allowed to grow up to weeds by having the road so wide, as the extra ten feet could be well utilized if taken into the farm. It is claimed also that by narrowing the legal width of highways a better road can be built and more easily kept in good condition.

Bad Road Building.
A road engineer puts it this way:
"There ought to be a law to stop fools building highways. This idea that the outer edge of a highway—sod, dirt and stone, all—should be thrown into the center of the road ought to entitle the people who do it to ninety days in jail."
