TO GIVE NO QUARTER

Lincolinites and Democrats Will Be Treated Alike.

ATTACK POLITICAL GUERRILLAS

Candidate For State Treasurer Plummer Given a Splendid Reception By the Clubmen.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Sept. 26.

The Republican campaign is now under way in earnest. The aggressive young Republicans of the State League of Clubs fired the first gun at their big convention in Easton, and since then there has been a booming of heavy artillery all along the line.

From every county comes reports that the Republican skirmishers are out, that the lines are extended in every direction and that the enemy is to be pressed to speedy conclusions at every point.

"There will be no quarter asked or given," said Field Marshal Wesley R. Andrews at the Republican state committee headquarters. "The Republican colors are to be borne into the thick of the fight, and all enemies of Republicanism, whether they appear in the uniform of Democrats, Lincolinites or guerillas or insurgents of any kind or character, may expect to be treated alike and put to ignominious rout in the cause of good government and the maintenance of the principles and policies of the party which has made this the most prosperous and happy country in the world."

"Every Republican of Pennsylvania who realizes the significance of the present contest and the far-reaching effect of the result of the November election upon the future of the party will be found fighting for the entire Republican ticket."

Chairman Andrews has been overruled with callers from every county of the state during the last week, and is delighted with the situation and the outlook for a sweeping Republican majority.

Plummer Given An Ovation.

J. Lee Plummer, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, was given a great ovation by the Republican clubmen at Easton. He made a splendid speech, in which, among other things, he said:

"It is our proud boast today that the treasury of the commonwealth has never lost a dollar through the default of a state treasurer.

"When the Republican party came into power in Pennsylvania, real estate, trades and occupations, horses and cattle, household furniture and watches were all taxed for state purposes. Just as soon as the war was over the people were relieved of these taxes, so that now the only individual who pays a state tax is the one who has money at interest, and three-fourths of this tax, amounting in 1904 to $2,900,574, is returned to the counties in relief of local taxation. No man's home in Pennsylvania is taxed to support the state government.

"The policy of relieving local taxation is carried out in respect to the hotel licenses; four-fifths of the money received from this source is returned to the cities, boroughs and townships in which the hotels paying the licenses are located. More than $3,000,000 is returned to the municipalities each year from this source.

Liberal Support of Schools.

"The appropriation to the public schools is also made to relieve the people in their local taxes. In 1904 the princely sum of $6,356,167 was paid to the counties for this purpose.

"During the 45 years odd administrations of the government of Pennsylvania by the Republican party taxation of real estate, etc., for state purposes has been abolished, a debt of $40,000,000 has been paid, a surplus of several millions of dollars accumulated in the treasury and over $214,451,000 returned to the counties in relief of local taxation.

"Gentlemen, this is a record to be proud of, and I challenge any state in the United States or any country in the world to equal it.

"In nothing is the policy of the Republican party in this state to be more commended than in its appropriations for charitable and educational purposes."

Pennsylvania's Shame.

J. Hampton Moore, the progressive young Republican president of the National League of Clubs, in his speech at the Easton convention stirred the delegates to a high pitch of enthusiasm, when he said:

"It is a shame and a disgrace to day that Pennsylvanians that are second to none in patriotism, morals and good citizenship, are subjected to invidious comment whenever they come in contact with the citizens of other states. This is due to the persistent and malignant circulation of slanderous utterances relating to the administration of public affairs, which slanders are the result solely of motives of disappointed ambition and revenge.

"The Republican candidate for state treasurer, a man of unquestioned respectability, whose home life is endorsed by his neighbors, has been the butt of misrepresentation and ridicule from the day of his nomination. Every other candidate has been subjected to the same kind of unfair criticism. And by whom?"

"Mere factionists coalescing with Democrats who have offered nothing for a change of Republican faith except a nominee for state treasurer whose public life has been as varied as the hues of a chameleon.

WILL DO HER DUTY

So Says the Veteran "Tom" Cooper of the Old Keystone State.

NO COMFORT FOR INSURGENTS

Pennsylvania Republicans Should Heed the Words of the "Sage of Media."

"The veteran and ever 'hopeful Tom' Cooper, of Media—editor, statesman, politician and former state chairman of the Republican state committee—comes into the line light with a timely warning to the Republican of the Keystone State of the danger that lurks in the insurgent political movement back of the Berry candidacy for state treasurer.

In his old established newspaper, the Delaware County American, he says: "The American has no thought of attacking the character of Mayor Berry, the Democratic-Fusion-Prohibition nominee for state treasurer. That his character is open and many goes without saying in Delaware county. What we desire most of all other things is to discuss the future, and Berry's prediction that he will be elected. If we unite all elements opposed to the Republicans in an off-year, he is partly justified in his hopes. If he succeeds, as he has in Delaware county, is making a fusion between the Lincoln Republicans and Democrats, and this fusion extends throughout the state, then it is time for Republicans to pause and inquire as to the future.

Berry Is Bryan's Leader.

"Pennsylvania is justly regarded all over the union as the banner Republican state. If it should go Democratic this year the credit will go entirely to the Democracy—the Bryan Democracy, for Berry is Bryan's leader in Pennsylvania. He is our state's chief advocate of Bryan's silver views, and of his semi-Socialistic thoughts.

"This is the plain truth. The bitterness of faction cannot hide it, and with Berry on top in Pennsylvania, it will mean Bryan once again in full control of the Democratic party, and its presidential nominee.

"This is politics, free from personality. This goes to the future, and therefore it is that the American asks all good citizens, all Lincoln Republicans, all Gold Democrats, to pause and contemplate the political waves as they come in.

Not a Question of Men.

"This struggle is not a question of men. Plummer, the Republican candidate for state treasurer, is as upright as Mayor Berry. We know it. Six years of recent service in the house with a prominent member thereof enables us to estimate, and we say, despite all factional abuse, that J. Lee Plummer is an honest man.

"Let us contemplate the future, and govern our votes accordingly.

"Roosevelt will not again be a candidate. If our state rushes into troubled waters other states will follow, and confusion will come as it came when Delamater was defeated for governor and Cleveland elected for president. The Delamater incident looked small, the Cleveland panic was large. This is simply politics, as to the future.

"The American believes in every sensible advance, but in reaching better things it would not tear out the eyes of those whose help is very essential.

"We have been through two political revolutions; we know their meaning; we have learned to anticipate their results.

"Look at what the Republican party has done. It has met reform in six great states—in Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Oregon, New Jersey, New York and Massachusetts. In these states it has passed great measures, honest measures for personal registration, uniform primaries and safe election laws.

"As sure as we live, Pennsylvania will do her duty, and through the Republican party."

Poverty Not a Door to Progress.

"Such men as Mr. Plummer, embracing all the sterling qualities characteristic of the true American, afford the very best examples to the
