Rev. E. A. Heim was a business visitor at Williamsport Wednesday.

E. J. Mullen transacted business at Dushore Monday and Tuesday.

Regular services at M. E. church at 7 o'clock next Sunday evening. Theme: "The Doctrine of Hell."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eddy spent a day last week with Miss Edith Eddy at Mawr Glen.

After another pleasant season spent in Laporte, Mr. Ellery P. Ingham and family left Wednesday for their winter home in New York.

Thomas E. Kennedy has been at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Gallagher at Jamison City, on account of the critical illness of his nephew.

Mr. J. G. Culver who has been employed at Ridgway for the past few weeks, returned home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McIntire spent Sunday with his parents at Overton.

Mrs. J. H. McIlvain and children are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Funston on Main Street.

W. H. Heim who has been employed at Powell during the summer has returned home.

Mrs. Muchler, wife of Harry Muchler of Nordmont died Tuesday night after an illness of several months.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Miss Myrtle Bryan, of Hills Grove to Rev. S. H. Engler, of Medix Run, both formerly of this place, at LaPorte M. E. church, October 11, 1905, at high noon.

Williamsport will celebrate her centennial in July, 1906. Although a hundred years old, the city puts so much ginger into everything she does that the celebration will be worth going many miles to see.

After being idle nearly all summer the tannery has commenced operations, but for how long we cannot state. A. W. Buckley, son of Supt. Buckley, is boss tanner. It is not running with a full force of hands at the present time.

The Williamsport postoffice recently cashed a money order that had the original amount of twenty-five cents raised to $50, by a slick swindler who it is supposed used an acid to erase the 25 cents and substitute $50 on the face of the order.

Poultry growers say that turkeys have not been so scarce for years as they are at the present time, that very few young fowls have been hatched. They say that very few of the tables of even the wealthy, will be graced by this delicious fowl on Thanksgiving or Christmas.

An exchange says it is graceful courtesy to the guests who may be visiting you to see that their names are furnished to the local newspaper for mention in the personal column. If the guest in looking over the local paper see scores of other visitors mentioned and his or her name omitted they are apt to feel slighted.

Four school directors in Wilkes-Barre township, Luzerne county, are under arrest, accused of accepting bribes to secure positions for teachers and for having regularly received bribes from teachers for years to keep them in their positions.

No better investment can be made by a town or city than that for paved and clean streets. Give the people along any thoroughfare nicely paved and clean streets and they will in a few years return the cost with interest in taxes. No one will establish a home along a dusty or muddy road if he can find a nicely paved street for the purpose. Improve the streets and the builders will do the rest.

Don't fail to be there, the second night of the Forksville Fair. Miss Hazel Savidge, of Williamsport, graduate of Dickinson Seminary, School of Expression, will give a recital in the M. E. church at Forksville, Wednesday evening, Oct 4, Dime collection taken at the door.

Miss Savidge is a young lady of marked ability and those who miss hearing her will miss a rare treat.

A new roof has been the latest improvement at the Methodist church. A little son of John Gallagher of Jamison City was operated upon for appendicitis last Friday.

It is reported that several persons who were attendants at court last week, forgot to pay their hotel bills before leaving the county seat.

With the first October issue of the Hughesville Independent Samuel V. Border of Williamsport will succeed Elmer R. Schuyler, as editor and manager of that paper.

The Columbia county Agricultural Society will hold its 51st, annual exhibition from October 10 to 13, and from indications will eclipse all former ones.

The chestnut season is near its opening and the news of boys falling from limbs and breaking bones will be plentiful and distressing, if parents are not able to caution them regarding the danger.

Section 2. THE DUMPING PRACTICE.
Marketing Surplus Products Abroad
Recognized as Sound.

One of the most popular theories at present is that where a manufacturer in the United States sells in foreign countries at a lower price than that which he sells at home it is therefore established that domestic prices are too high and that if the article be a protected one the protection is too high. This does not follow in its entirety.

The practice of "dumping" a surplus product in a distant market is one familiar to our domestic commerce and is recognized as sound as far as the individual who does it is concerned.

No manufacturer, whether of butter or cloth or structural steel, can continue to do business unless he makes a profit. He cannot manufacture most economically and therefore be able to give the lowest price unless he can operate to his most economic capacity.

Were the practice of dumping forbidden the manufacturer would be able to produce goods only to the measure of the minimum demand.

If the demand were extraordinary the market would be short.—Trenton (N. J.) Gazette.

CONSTIPATION CURED.

A Barrytown, N. Y., Man's Experience with Cal-cura Solvent.

Dr. David Kennedy's Wonderful New Medicine Cured Him Promptly. Your Money Back if it Does Not Cure.

Constipation leads to worse. Often it is the cause of appendicitis. Always it leads to dangerous chronic disease. It should not be neglected, nor should it be temporarily relieved with drastic purgatives. Here is a case in point:

Mr. C. S. Osterhoudt, of Barrytown, N. Y., was distressed with indigestion, chronic constipation and kidney trouble for four years. He tried many medicines without relief. He heard of Cal-cura Solvent, Dr. Kennedy's new medicine, used it and began to improve rapidly. All of his old complaints have disappeared and he owes everything to Cal-cura Solvent.

If your druggist does not have Cal-cura Solvent, write to the Cal-cura Company, Rondout, N. Y.; but ask your druggist first. $1.00 a bottle. Only one size.

Guarantee: Your druggist will return your money if Cal-cura fails to cure, and the Cal-cura Company will pay the druggist. Remember, Cal-cura Solvent cures 98% of all cases of Kidney, Bladder and Liver disorders.
