Regular services at the M. E. church, Sunday evening, at seven o'clock. Theme: "My position in our coming Revivals."

Mrs. B. H. Hamilton of Marsh Hill is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mapes at this place.

Miss Josephine Swartz of Dushore, spent Sunday with Miss Margaret Heim at the rectory.

Mrs. E. Rappleye and daughter, Esther returned to their home in New York City, Monday, after spending a very pleasant summer at this place.

Mrs. Joseph Carpenter and daughter Helen were shopping in Dushore, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvyn Allen of New Albany were the guests of the former's brother, T. W. Allen and family, Sunday.

Mrs. F. H. Ingham is spending the week with friends and relatives in Philadelphia.

Thursday of last week Miss Esther Biddle and Frank S. Little, both of Eagles Mere, were united in marriage by the Rev. H. S. Williams, at the Epworth M. E. parsonage, at York.

Samuel Vargason died at the home of Warren May in Hills Grove Saturday evening at the age of about 35 years and was buried at the Estella cemetery Monday.

W. H. Rogers has secured the contract for the alterations and improvements on Hotel Eagles Mere at Eagles Mere.

Florence M., the three months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cron of Ricketts, died on Wednesday of last week and was buried at Dushore Friday.

Over half of Lancaster county's tobacco crop has been contracted for, three weeks ahead of time, at higher prices than heretofore.

Mrs. William Prichard, of Colley was operated upon at the Sayre hospital Friday.

Dr. Voorhees of Stonestown, has been kept quite busy lately vaccinating school children at Eagles Mere. Evidently the parents of children in that Boro are taking a sensible view of the situation in conforming to the law and thereby saving the teachers much annoyance.

The opening of the gunning season was most unfortunate to James Rosengrant of Kassen Brook, Bradford county. On Monday of last week he started out gunning, and before the day was gone his gun had exploded and blown one of his eyes out of its socket. He was taken to the Wilkesbarre Hospital for treatment where it was said he was doomed to the loss of his eye.

The Superior Court on Monday decided that the law passed by the Legislature providing for the destruction of wild cats, foxes and minks in Pennsylvania, and offering bounties for the same is ineffective. The court holds that the title of the bill is defective and that there is nothing in the act to show who would pay the bounties. The case came before that court from this county and was a test one. The Sullivan county court is reversed by the decision.

The Baptist pulpit at Troy was filled by Rev. F. W. Reynolds, of Wellsboro, on Sunday morning and at the close of the service $55 was raised for the erection of a Baptist church at Laquin. In the afternoon he, accompanied by the Rev. T. A. Hughes, drove to Springfield, Bradford county, where they conducted services and $41 was raised for the same cause.

Potatoes are so plentiful in some sections of York county this year that the Maryland and Pennsylvania railroad, which runs from York to Delta, at the southeastern end of the county, is finding it difficult to keep the shippers supplied with cars.

Typhoid fever continues to spread a Nanticoke, twenty new cases being reported Monday and Tuesday. The total number of cases being three hundred and forty one.

Eagles Mere is to have a new Methodist Episcopal church, and the project already has the financial support to assure its erection. For some time past the need of such a church has been recognized, and during the past few weeks the Rev. T. F. Ripple of LaPorte and the Rev. T. S. Wilcox, of Williamsport, have been at work in earnest. Thus far they have over $1,000 pledged for the new church and many persons whom they know are willing and able to give funds are yet to be seen.

Work on the proposed new edifice will probably be started early in the spring, and by the time the summer guests will have arrived at the Mere the structure will be in readiness for services. The Rev. Mr. Ripple is an earnest and industrious worker in his chosen line of work, and in his hands the project will early be pushed to completion.

Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture, predicts lower retail prices during the coming winter season for meat, poultry, dairy products and other necessities of life. He believes the relief for the householder will come from the enormous yields of small grain and corn in the great grain territories of the west. Secretary Wilson says: Heavy crops have resulted in the normal conditions in the great producing states. The wheat producer has been losing money for the last three years. Grain cost too much. There was no profit in feeding, strange as this may seem to people who pay such prices as we do for our meat. But the heavy grass crop of this year with the heavy corn crop and the heavy oats crop, will all combine to bring about normal feeding conditions.

Bruce Fleming of Picture Rocks was badly burned on Saturday about the face by the explosion of gas. He was fixing the fire in a heater when the explosion occurred and the flames struck him in the face and nearly knocked him down. The burn will probably leave a scar on his face.

Last Saturday afternoon about 1 o'clock as Robert Crammer and Abram Gore were at work on a trestle at the Conell Anthracite company's breaker at Bernice, the timbers gave way and both men fell with the structure a distance of 30 feet. They were completely buried under the wreckage and dirt and it took some time to dig them out; their escape from death is wonderful. Mr. Gore was severely injured in the back and other parts of his body. He was taken to the Williamsport hospital.

Mr. Crammer escaped with a bad gash on his head which required several stitches to close, and bruises but was able to walk home. He is a son of E. J. Crammer of Monroeton. Mr. Gore was a former resident of Towanda.

Last week we asked George Streby candidate for County Treasurer, three questions which he has not answered. "Silence gives consent," and the public have a right to infer that Mr. Streby did testify, when examined as a witness in the judicial contest that he received a considerable sum of money prior to the election in that year from the democratic candidates for Representative and President Judge; that he also received fifty dollars from B. Worth Jennings the Republican candidate for Representative, and that he did not go to the polls and vote.

Ambrose E. Farrell was the Democratic candidate for Representative at that time. He was an honorable and trustworthy man. Mr. Streby claimed to be a democrat; he was publishing a democratic newspaper; let him now answer why he did not go to the polls and vote for Farrell. Had the fifty dollars paid to him by B. Worth Jennings anything to do with it?
