Turkeys are going to be scarce this fall and the bird that is so essential for the Thanksgiving dinner is going to be very high in price, at least that is the opinion of those interested in turkey trade.

Daniel Kehrer the Eagles Mere merchant, will erect a large addition to his store building this fall. The usual amount of building and improvements are taking place at Eagles Mere this fall.

James Deininger who is having a handsome residence erected at Somestown, has had electric lights placed in the building in order that the workmen may work longer hours as the owner wishes to have the house completed as soon as possible.

A commission is at work at present locating the line dividing the two states.

The old soldiers of the Union are being pretty well thinned out by the scythe of death. The few who remain should be honored and cherished. R. C. Kshinka, our nominee for Associate Judge, is the only soldier named on the ticket to be voted for. Let every man who feels grateful to the soldiers, who saved our Country, see to it, that the old soldier is not defeated in this last battle of his honored life.

Rev. T. F. Ripple is engaged in holding spiritual revival meetings, in the M. E. Church, at this place, which promises good results and have thus far surpassed any former efforts in this village for years, in affecting humanity and bringing repentant souls before the throne of the Maker in search of a new life, a life that gives peace and happiness for that of sadness wrought by the blight of evil. It would seem as though LaPorte's Messiah had come in the person of Rev. Ripple. He has a faith that cannot be concealed and he imparts it with such force and energy that when he steps to the pulpit, it is a signal for things to be turned upside down, in the fervor of his presentation of the saving power of Christ. Tactful in delivering and soundness of reasoning, fills the M. E. Church nightly to hear and believe in the utterance of Rev. Ripple who is a hard worker and a brave leader who dares stand true to God in doing full justice to his calling. There is an air of religious contagion at the old county seat, that is felt by everyone. Go to hear Mr. Ripple and get thoroughly inoculated. Help spread the germs of a disease that will do the inhabitants of town a world of good.

The fair minded men of Cherry township do not want injustice done to the other sections of the county in the make up of the Board of County Commissioners. Having had the controlling members of the Board for the last three years, they feel that one Commissioner is all they can justly ask for during the next three years. The voters in the rest of the county feel the same way, and it is well settled that only one of the nominees in Cherry township will be elected. It is for the voters of that township to decide which nominee they will elect.

Let the friends of McCarty and Bennett pull hard on the day of election. A long pull, and a strong pull, and a pull altogether will bring them both through. Let there be no half way work on Commissioners. The county finances cannot be safely intrusted to the inefficient men nominated by the Ring.

Democracy is no longer the symbol of what they now call the Democratic party. The so-called Democratic party as it now exists in Pennsylvania, may properly be called a Demo-Prohibition party. A regularly nominated Prohibition candidate has been embraced in the Democratic ticket and will be printed as their official candidate. Won't it be funny to see Landlord Gallagher voting for part of the Prohibition State ticket? How is it with you Boss of the Herald? Are you so far reformed that you can vote for Berry?

Eltruda J. Botsford, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Botsford, of Nordmont, died on Saturday after a short illness resulting from vaccination. She was aged 10 years and 10 days. Truda, as she was called by her friends and schoolmates, was a bright and lovable child, and although taken while yet in innocence and purity, her death is deeply deplored by all who knew her. The funeral was held on Monday.

Because of the scarcity of workmen, western railroads have been forced to raise wages. Freight truckers, switchmen, section men and clerks are benefited by the increase, which amounts to an average of $5 per month.

The government irrigation contractors, as well as the great amount of railroad building going on in the western states, have taken all the workmen, farmers are paying increased wages for corn huskers and clerks are needed at all the western railroad head-quarters.
