Run, is visiting his brother, Hon.

Look out for the sewing machine man who comes to the house and claims that he has been sent there to repair the machine. He is a fakir and I will try to get big money out of his victims.

George Kester has moved his saw mill from Rock Run, in Forks Twp.
to Stonestown, where he has a job of sawing a two year's stock. Mr.
Kester also moved his family from Campbellsville to Stonestown.

The people of Northumberland county are agitating the question of making alterations and building an addition to their court house which was built forty years ago, and when that county had only about one half of its present population.

The city hunters will make an effort to have the trespass law repealed or amended at the next session of the state legislature. It protects the land owners now and they want it so fixed that the game will be saved for them but the farmer have no protection for his crops or land.
The old law was very satisfactory to that class of sportsmen.

There are times when divorce seems justifiable. We think the Philadelphia man who recently swore that his wife made him sleep in the barn while the coachman slept in the house, had a case; and we are not sure that the Iowa woman who says her husband hasn't bathed in 22 years and boasts of it is also warranted in entering legal protest. It is hard to believe such marriages heaven-made.

A large Rochester lamp exploded in the millinery establishment of Mrs. Daisy Hartcraft at Canton, Wednesday evening of last week.
The entire top of the lamp was blown off and the oil and burning wick falling on the table and floor.
Two ladies succeeded in keeping the flames under control until help arrived.

BERNICE.
It is with the deepest regret that we announce the death of Alexander Spence, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. James Spence, who has been a sufferer with rheumatism for the last six months. Four weeks ago he was sent to the Williamsport Hospital for treatment, and seemed to be improving nicely. His parents and friends were expecting him home, cured of his affliction, in a short time, and his death came as a severe shock to all.

Treasurer elect Farrel was shaking hands with the boys at this place Saturday.

ton friends last week.

The title of champion bear hunter of Lyeoming county belongs to C.
W. Williamson, at least until the man turns up who can slay more than a trio of the members of Brains tribe in just about as many minutes as there are bears in the round-up.
Mr. Williamson with his son, on Saturday were hunting near Salladasburg when he came upon four bears, a large one and three cubs, but he was equal to the emergency, he brought down the bear and two of the cubs. The third cub escaped.

Fred Lawson and W. M. Shoemaker, two well known game wardens of Bradford county, have been arrested upon the alleged charge of assault and battery on a Sayre man.
The defendants furnished bail before a justice of the peace at Towanda, to appear at the next term of the Bradford county court.

Of course it was a boy who wrote this essay: "The mouth is the front door of the face. It is the aperture to the cold storage of our anatomy, it is the hot bed of toothache and the bung hole of oratory. The mouth is the crimson aisle of the river. It is the fountain of patriotism, and the tool chest for pie. Without the mouth the politician would be a wanderer upon the face of the earth, and go down to a dishonored grave.
It is the grocers friend, the dentist's hope. It is the temptation lunch counter when attached to a pretty girl, and a tobacco fiend when attached to a man."

A horrible accident occurred in the brewery of John C. Stockee, near Port Allegheny, wednesday of last week in which a son of the brewer had his head blown off and three other employes of the brewery were knocked unconscious and almost drowned in the escaping beer.
Young stockee was tapping a big vat, using compressed air to force the liquid into the kegs. He turned on the air without opening the spigot, the result being the explosion.
