Watch for program in later issue.
Regular Services at the M. E. Church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Theme: "The Secret of Moses Endurance."

The Oyster Supper held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, on Friday evening realized $12.00 above all expenses.

At Canton an explosion occurred at the foundry of Taber & Mitchell about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when M. B. Taber had an eye badly hurt and was severely burned. Jas. Mitchell and Fred Landon were also cut by flying pieces and received burns.

A cylinder head which was being heated over a forge, was the cause of the trouble, although what caused it to explode with such terrific force is a mystery. The forge was destroyed, and portions of the roof badly torn up. The building caught fire but the blaze was extinguished.

The management of the Hughesville Independent, who some weeks ago purchased the plant of the Hughesville Mail from the owners in Williamsport, has sold the Mail and Dr. Albra W. Baker, of Williamsport, is now the sole owner of it. A. H. Shimp will probably be retained to manage the plant for Dr. Baker.

On next Sunday Feb. 25, Rev. S. Bidlack will preach at Sones' town, at 11 a. m. At Hemlock, at 3 p. m. and at Muncy Valley at 7:30 p. m.

Mortimer Whitehead, Master of New Jersey State Grange, and a field worker in the interest of the grange, will deliver a lecture at Estella on Monday evening, Feb. 26. All those who possibly can should go out to hear him.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Randall went to Troy, Bradford county, last Friday to attend the funeral of the doctor's uncle, Mr. Simeon Case, who visited at the doctor's home at this place about a year ago. Mr. Case was a prominent farmer, and had been a member of the Deciple Church for 25 years. He was 78 years of age.

On Sunday evening Feb. 4 the Evangelical church at Pemsdale was reopened after being closed for some time for the purpose of making needed repairs. Bishop W. M. Stanford of Harrisburg, conducted the service and preached a powerful and inspiring sermon to a large and appreciative congregation. Six hundred dollars were raised, and that sum frees the church entirely from debt.

The days are growing longer now at both ends. The sun sets 50 minutes later than it did and rises two minutes earlier. Hereafter until about June 29, the days will lengthen one in the morning and another minute in the evening. By the end of this month the days will have gained 14 minutes in the morning and 43 minutes in the evening.

Court convened at the Court House on Monday. Our newly elected Judge Kshinka took his seat upon the bench with Judge Terry and Judge Reeser.

The Court appointed Joseph C. Pennington Court Crier, and Josiah Henbury and Sargent Fanning Tipstaves.

The applications for tavern and restaurant licenses were then taken up. All of the applications except one even for old licensed houses, and there being no exceptions, and the bonds sufficient, the Court granted them all.

The application of John Daly for a new tavern license in Cherry town ship was then taken up, and a number of witnesses heard. There being no remonstrances or exceptions, and the witnesses all testifying that the house was necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers and travelers, the licence was granted.

George Hall, an employe of C. W. Sones, was terribly injured last Friday at the Sones lumber operation on a Kettle Creek, about five miles from Eagles Mere. The lumber on a car which had just been loaded slipped, and Hall was caught by it. He was terribly crushed about the hips and abdomen.

Mr. Hall was employed by Mr. Sones as a fireman for some time, Friday the force of men with whom he was working were loading a car on Mr. Sones' narrow gauge railroad. The work had been completed, and the car was being started out when a standard broke and the load slipped, and one end of the timber caught Hall, and he was pinned down by the weight of the lumber.

Dr. S. S. Koser of Williamsport was summoned and left for the scene of the accident. He stated that Halls pelvic bones are badly crushed and sharp pieces have penetrated his flesh. Sunday evening he was reported a little improved, and there was no change in his condition on Monday. Every effort is being made to save his life and he is getting the best of care. The nurse attending him cannot be with him both day and night so a physician takes care of him at night. The doctor is taken up from Hills Grove on a train at night and returns home the next morning.

The Philadelphia Record rightly maintains that the most impressive spectacle of the present day is not the enormous pecuniary success attained by a few men.

The religious principle that no man or woman is unworthy of help who will accept it, or who may possibly accept it, is taking a deeper hold upon the social consciousness.

Many years ago Jerry McAuley, a specimen of the "submerged tenth", submerged morally not less than materially—wandered into a mission. The spiritual element in him was not quite extinct, and responded to the appeal there made to him. He became a religious man, a man of exemplary character; and he devoted the remainder of his life to the rescue of men and women as degraded as he had been.

After he died the work was continued in what was named for him the McAuley Water street mission in New York. It was conducted for many years by the Rev. S. H. Hadley, who died last week, and who, like Jerry, was a reclaimed "bum." He was instrumental in rescuing many men and women from the lowest depths of degradation and vice. His sympathy and love gave him power over them. It was not what he said to them, but what he was that gave him influence. He was a friend of the debased. His last words were: "Who will care for my poor bums?" Some one will. As he succeeded Jerry McAuley, some one else will succeed him. But the world can ill afford to lose such men; they are not very abundant.

Not satisfied because the nominees of both parties for school director at Wyalusing were men without children of school age, the women of that town tried to induce two of their own numbers to run as candidates. No volunteers responded and the women then put up J. P. Lewis and V. Day Keeler.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE
Make Kidneys and Bladder Right

Mrs. Clara Wilson, aged 64 years died at her home in Towanda Thursday morning of heart failure. She had been ill for a long time and her death was not expected. Mrs. Wilson was a sister of the late P. P. Bliss, a celebrated singer of sacred songs. Mrs. Wilson was also widely known in this country and in Great Britain as a singer evangelist of great power, and with her husband co-operated with Francis Murphy in the great temperance movement which spread over this country 20 years ago.
