County Seat
Local and Personal Events Tersely Told.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Hassan, Sunday, Feb. 25, a daughter.

Edith Eddy of Glen Mawr, spent Sunday with parents at this place.
Miss Jessie Wrede of Lopez spent the latter part of last week at her home in the second ward.

Ernest C. Brackman and Miss Katie Gardner, both of Lopez, were united in marriage at the M.
E. Church by the Rev. Thos. F.
Ripple, on Wednesday, February 28th.

Mr. A. E. Tripp of Wilkesbarre, is spending a few days in town.

Miss Alice Betts of Towanda, is being entertained by Miss Eliza Shaut.

M. Frank Magargle of Sonestown, has purchased the store building adjoining the store of C. A. Starr, at that place and has stocked the same with gentlemen's furnishing goods.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer and daughter Emma have returned from Wilkes-Barre where they spent several months.

There are at the present time sixteen patients at the Berwick hospital. The institution is certainly doing a great good for the town and the people are standing by the move very nobly.

A New York medical authority rises to remark that "if you get that fired feeling eat a pound of candy." He declares that it is a positive cure for fatigue. At any rate, it is a prescription that will appeal to a vast number of people.

There will be services in St. Johns Church next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m., Sunday School at 10 a. m.

Mrs. Frank McCann of Hills-grove, died in terrible agony last Saturday morning, the result of taking carbolic acid instead of cramp medicine. Mrs. McCann was attacked with cramps early Saturday morning and went down stairs to take a dose of medicine.
A bottle of carbolic acid was on the same shelf with the medicine, and the woman in her haste to get relief failed to notice that she had the wrong bottle until after she had drank of its contents. She died fifteen minutes after taking the fatal dose. Mrs. McCann was 34 years of age.

Robert R. Little, president judge of the twenty-sixth judicial district composed of Columbia and Montour counties, died at his home at Bloomsburg, Monday afternoon. Judge Little was stricken while on the bench during the February session of court, his illness having taken a serious turn on Saturday last, when pneumonia developed. He grew gradually worse and was unconscious for 24 hours previous to his death. He was born at Berwick, in May, 1852. He studied law with his father and was admitted to the Columbia county bar in 1874.

Walter Albertson of Jamison City, who was seriously injured several weeks ago by the falling of logs from a lumber train, died at his home shortly before noon Friday. At the time of the accident, he was not expected to recover, but he has been steadily convalescing, and for a week previous to his death was able to sit up. He took a sudden relapse and passed away on Friday. He is survived by a wife and three young children.

Dubois philanthropists have found a new field for their work of charity and have raised a fund to pay for the treatment of unfortunates afflicted with the alcoholic habit. The names of those who submit to the treatment will be kept absolutely secret. Several ministers, physicians and educators are on the committee arranging for the redemption of the victims of drink.

The tobacco dealers of Maryland are making strenuous opposition to an anti-cigarette bill now before the legislature of that state. If they had carefully watched the experience with laws against cigarets in some of the states they would be wildly concerned. We have an act here to prevent the selling or giving of cigarets to minors, but it is not observed that it has any effect. The boys get their cigarets and smoke them just the same.

The Mikado a comic opera in two acts given by home talent under the direction of Miss Alice Brewster for the benefit of St. John's Guild was given in the Court House on Friday evening and at the request of a number was repeated on Monday evening. The affair was a success from start to finish. It was remarked by some who had seen this opera in larger that our company of amateurs would compare favorably with many professional troops.
Their success is wonderful when one considers that to many, perhaps the majority, this was their first public appearance.

Miss Bessie Wrede made an ideal Mikado, Lytle F. Perry, an enthusiastic Nanki Poo, Robert Mason, a rare Ko Ko, while Ernest Lauer, as Pooh Bah won much applause. Jos.
Wrede as Pish Tush acted his his part well as a Japanese nobleman.

The parts of the three sister-wards of Ko Ko, Peep Bo, Yum Yum and Pitti Sing were played respectively by Miss Alma Lauer, Miss Eliza Shaut and Miss Jessie Wrede. Three better suited for their parts would be hard to find, Yum Yum had a more prominent part than the other two and was all that even the enthusiastic Nanki Poo could desire.

Miss Alice Brewster as Katisha, showed rare ability even for a professional. By her singing and acting she held the undivided attention of the audience and won its enthusiastic applause.

The principle parts were well supported by the chorus consisting of Ellery Crossley, Collins Stackhouse, Carl Wrede, Ellery Carpenter, Zora Carpenter, Ome Mason, Emma Gallagher, Vinnie Eddy, Eva Stackhouse, Ayleen Perry, Mrs. F. W.
Meylert.

Mrs. E. M. Dunham presided at the piano and from a musical point of view did much to make the performances a success. Great credit is due to Miss Alice Brewster for her untiring efforts in drilling the company of young people. She is to be congratulated on her great success.

Dear Mr. Wing: Will you kindly permit me to use a little space in the News Item.

Recently while attending a lecture at John Hopkins University, by one of the greatest naturalists of the country, I was very much impressed with what he said on the subject "Necessity and value of trees." My thoughts were diverted to the little town Laporte and I again stood on the front steps of St. Johns Episcopal church, and saw before and about me magnificent rows of Maple trees.
But unfortunately my picture was spoiled, for at the base of each one of these magnificent maple trees I saw a bucket, pail, tin can or some other receptacle used for the purpose of receiving that which if the vital factor to a tree's very existence.
And now that the season is near at hand when the trees will be tapped for their sap, would it not be well for the council of the Borough of Laporte to take some action toward prohibiting the wholesale tapping of some of the finest shade trees.
Let there be no procrastination, for after the tree are bled it is too late to remedy the evil resultant this season.

But some may say tapping does no harm. I beg to differ. There is a vast amount of ignorance on this very subject among people who should know better. A little bleeding may do a man good, but periodical cutting of his arteries will weaken and eventually kill him. Sap is to a tree what blood is to a person—the life giving principle. It is reasonable to suppose that a tree which has been drained of that life giving power will be weakened. In some of its limbs there will be a deficient circulation, hence the dead limbs at the top of tapped trees.

Possibly it is presumptuous for a non inhabitant to tell the council of Laporte its duty, yet it is done out of love for and in the interest of that which is the principal attraction of Laporte, namely—its shade trees.

Sincerely,
Rev. Eugene A. Heim,
Baltimore, Md.

As a preparation for a strike the railroads are busy at present shushing the output of coal from the various collieries in both anthracite and bituminous regions to the market and storage places in order to have a large supply on hand should a strike be declared. Collieries are being pushed to their utmost capacity.

It must be somewhat pleasing to Governor Pennypacker to note that papers that have heretofore spent much mental effort and type in de-riding him, are now joining in the general praise that is given him for having accomplished so much in the way of reform legislation. Only one measure out of the entire list of reforms he proposed failed of passage and that was the application of civil service rules to State employes.

A square deal for everybody would never have permitted the abuse to which the Governor has been subjected since he occupied the executive chair. That he was a misfit and ill adapted to his position was evident soon after he took it, but that he honestly endeavored to fill the station rightly was also evident. It was the political exigencies of the ruling powers in politics that put him there, but though his yoke gall-ed, he wore it with as good a degree of patience as could have been expected of him. Governor Pennypacker has never yet had his due.— New Age.
