At the present price of material it was figured to cost growing fortunes for the few and of fixedness in their low estate for the many. We know, furthermore, that the United States is immeasurably ahead of England in opportunities for arising from lowly conditions to the heights of individual distinction and prosperity, from the workshop to the managers office, from the day wage to large own-ership, from menialism to mastership. What folly, then, to heap on protection reproaches which it does not deserve and to charge it with those inequalities $5000 to replace the same kind of After all the big looting and grafting that has been going on among the big life insurance companies there have been no wrecks among them, and there will not be. They are such immense concerns financially that they seemed to be able to stand any amount of stealing on the part of dishonest officials.
