Mrs. A. J. Bradley and daughter Edna were Dushore visitors Thursday of last week.

Miss Harriet Grimm has returned from Portage, Pa., where she was engaged in teaching school the past winter.

Miss Vinnie Eddy is attending the centennial at WilkesBarre.

Atty. F. W. Meylert and wife visited friends at Forksville this week.

Four persons were received into full membership of the Methodist Episcopal church at the morning services last Sunday.

Williamsport has contributed over ten thousand dollars to the relief fund for San Francisco sufferers.

Prothonotary Thos. E. Kennedy is visiting friends in Lewis county, N. Y., this week. He equipped himself with fishing tackle and a sportman's outfit and will doubtless have some fish stories at least when he returns.

This pithy sermon is going the rounds of the press: Our ingress into life is naked and bare, our progress through life is trouble and care, our egress out of it we know not where, but doing well here we shall do well there. I could not tell more by preaching a year."

Avery T. Munnix Sr. of Lincoln Falls, died at the home of his son, J. W. Munnix, Saturday, April 28, at the age of 78 years and nine months. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon.

Miss Orrilla Neuffer of Strawbridge died at the Williamsport Hospital Tuesday afternoon of pneumonia. Miss Neuffer was well known in this county, having taught in the public schools for the past six years. She attended summer school at Laporte, and will be remembered by many of our town people. Her sudden taking away is mourned by a large circle of friends.

Mr. John L. Smyth has moved his stock of groceries from south Muncy street to the storeroom formerly occupied by Jacob Herr on Main street. This being a more up-to-date store room, Mr. Smyth will now be able to conduct a modern grocery store.

A large force of the members of the Village Improvement Society turned out last Saturday in a crusade against the rubbish and filth that for years has been allowed to accumulate in the town park. The women came armed with rakes and the determination to make the park the prettiest spot in the town, and before night the workers had raked and burned pile after pile of decayed leaves and dead branches that had fallen from the trees. Several men straggled down to the park and joined the brigade, but their efforts were so feeble compared with the energy displayed by their fair co-laborers that they watched their chance and "took their sneak" at the very first opportunity that presented itself.

The town council on receiving a petition signed by nearly all taxpayers, voted 4 to 2 in favor of prohibiting cattle, horses, sheep and swine from running at large on the streets of Laporte, after June 1, 1906. There seems to be but three very seriously effected individuals over this turn of affairs, but we will venture to wager in me that after two years they would not return to the same conditions as now prevail at any price. Cow pasture is a cheap commodity. Village real estate costs money and its value is governed by the general conditions of the town, its government and its people.

Mrs. Sabie Rhone of Sonestown visits friends here Monday.

Through the efforts of Street Commissioner John Hassen at the last council meeting the wages for employes on the street have been raised from $1.40 to $1.50 per day. The Commissioner's wages was also raised 25 cents per day making $1.75 for his services.

The Rev. Charles F. Sweet of Tokio, Japan, spent last Thursday in Laporte as the guest of his aunt Mrs. Mary Funston. Rev. Sweet has been in Japan eight years, where he is professor of theology in Trinity divinity school, an institution of the American church mission in Japan. He has come to America with the purpose of placing his son in Harvard University, and will return to Japan next fall to resume his work. Rev. Sweet is a graduate of Cornell, and studied law with ex-Judge E. M. Dunham, and afterward practiced law for one year, and then decided to prepare himself for the ministry in which calling he has been successful and highly honored.
