The damage suit of Mrs. Davis, and Mrs. Karshner against the W. & N. B. railroad company was not taken into court as an amicable settlement was reached last Saturday. Just what the terms were is not known, but it was satisfactory to all parties concerned.

If the farmers of a community would co-operate to the extent of producing the same kind of stock or other farm product for the market so that shipments could be made in car load lots, it would be one step toward better profits.

On Tuesday afternoon at Towanda Charles Johnson was declared guilty of murder in the first degree. He has been on trial for the murder of his sister-in-law, Maggie B. Johnson on September 18, 1904.

Centre county has just issued bonds to the amount of $60,000 to pay debts incurred by the old board of commissioners. This is the first time in the history of the county that a bond issue has been found necessary.

Dr. M. E. Hermann, of Dushore, met with an accident while returning home from his farm at Thornedale last Wednesday. The road from Ringdale to Thornedale is quite rough and the wagon caught a root, stopping it suddenly and throwing the doctor out. He struck a stone, bruising one of his limbs quite severely. He has since been confined to his room.

Postoffice Inspector Lucas of Williamsport, was at the county seat Tuesday and had an interview with the foreigner in the county jail who confessed to the robbery of the Bernice postoffice and store several months ago. Mr. Lucas went to Dushore Tuesday evening to ask the District Attorney to consent to hand the prisoner over to the United States authorities so that he might first be put on trial for the robbery of the postoffice. A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Kilmore of West Kittitas, Wednesday evening, April 25, when their daughter Katie was united in the bonds of matrimony with Mr. Walter Lowe of Thorp. The wedding was private, none but the families being present. The bride is a charming young lady and is a favorite among her many friends. The groom is a well known young man, sober and industrious and his sterling qualities have won for him success wherever he is known. The happy couple will begin housekeeping on the farm of D. T. Edwards, where Mr. Lowe will be employed this season. The Localizer unites with their many friends in extending congratulations and wishes them a long and prosperous voyage, devoid of storms and trouble, as they sail down the stream of life.

[The above article was taken from a Washington weekly. The groom is a son of Mr. William Lowe of Laporte township, and went to the State of Washington about four years ago.]

There are twenty-five wood alcohol factories in McKean county, representing an investment of approximately $4,500,000, including woodlands, railroads, houses for employes, etc. The investors are fighting the free alcohol bill on the ground that cheap grain or potato alcohol will knock out the sale of their product to a great extent. The wood from which pyroigneous acid, or wood alcohol is manufactured has to be cut and seasoned from eighteen months to two years before using, and it is said that the McKean county manufacturers have nearly a million dollars tied up in wood alone. The by-products of wood alcohol are acetate of lime and charcoal, each of which now find profitable markets. McKean is not the only county that has these factories, but they are scattered all through the country.

Thomas McCarthy, a bartender at the Hotel Lincoln, at New Castle, has been toiling hard 12 hours a day for the past six years, blissfully ignorant that he was a millionaire. His brother, Michael McCarthy was working even harder than Thomas, for Michael is foreman of a gang of section hands on the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad and lives in a little house in Wampum, just below New Castle. And all these years each has been the possessor of $1,000,000 in his own right and didn't know it, though attorneys have been hunting everywhere for them.

Six years ago their uncle died in Denver, leaving them $1,000,000 each which he had made in the Australia gold fields. A firm of Denver lawyers have just succeeded in locating the two men and has forwarded them money to take them to Denver.

In Chicago court recently a man who had stolen $8000 and a boy who had stolen 5 cents were sentenced to a year's imprisonment each. To the boy there must have been a lesson in the episode. This is a common occurrence in every community. The man who deals in small affairs gets the worst of it. A chicken thief is sent to the Penitentiary, while the slick robber of thousands goes free. If this is law or equity than human effort to do justice seems mockery.

Bishop H. B. Hartzler of the United Evangelical church will leave in a few weeks for California where he will supervise the relief work of his denomination among the people and churches of San Francisco. There were three churches damaged by the disaster in the city and a large amount of money for reconstruction of the edifices and alleviation of distress among people of the denomination has been subscribed.
