DEMOCRATS FILLED WITH HOPE

Defeat of the Republican Ticket in This State Next Fall Would Give Them Big Lead in Presidential Race.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, August 21.

Pennsylvania Democrats are eagerly waiting to join in the demonstration of the national Democracy over the homecoming of their leader, William Jennings Bryan.

There is already on foot a well-organized movement in this state to bring about the nomination of the "matchless Democrat of Nebraska" for the presidency, and it is the hope and expectation of leading Democrats that the result of the election in Pennsylvania next November will materially contribute toward that end.

The Democratic state convention, which named Lewis Emery, Jr., for the governorship and put upon the ticket with him that trio of well-known Bryanites, Messrs. Black, Cressy and Green, flatly proclaimed in its platform that Bryan is a certain successor of Roosevelt in the White House. Michael J. Ryan, the eloquent presiding officer of that convention, evoked cheer after cheer by his eulogies of Bryan and his confident prediction that he will be the next president of the United States, and that the outcome of the election in Pennsylvania will foreshadow that result.

Democrats Looking Ahead.

Arrangements have been made to have a large representation of leading Democrats from Pennsylvania at the great Madison Square Garden reception.

The Bryan men in every county in this state have taken on a new lease of political life and are showing new vigor in their political work for Emery and the entire Democratic ticket. They are devoting particular attention, too, to the Democratic and Lincolnite favorites for congress in the several districts in which candidates have already been placed in the field.

They are quietly presenting arguments to the old line Bryanite Democrats for them "to stand by Emery and the whole fusion ticket" in order that the defeat of the Republican party in Pennsylvania this fall may be pointed to as a signal endorsement from the very citadel of Republicanism of what they are pleased to characterize as a great popular uprising for the election of Bryan to the presidency.

Bryanites Almost Fanatical.

In this connection the enthusiasm of the followers of Bryan in his own state of Nebraska is pointed to as emphasizing the feeling that exists in the hearts of his admirers throughout the country. Press dispatches recounting the scenes of the joint convention of Democrats and Populists of Nebraska held at Lincoln a few days ago all tell of the almost fanatical exhibitions given by some of the leading delegates.

Law-abiding, peace-loving and conservative citizens of Pennsylvania, who are being invited to join the Bryanites of this commonwealth in their efforts to record a vote of repudiation of the Roosevelt administration and the Roosevelt policies at the coming election through the defeat of the Republican candidates in Pennsylvania by fusion or other games of political manipulators, should read and reflect upon the sensational speech made by the presiding officer of the Nebraska convention. Then they should consider how far a triumph for the Emery-Donnelly-Ryan-Black-Cressy-Green fusion combination at the November election would go toward promoting the cause of Bryanism throughout the country.

Visions of Blood.

This is what Chairman Skiles, of the Nebraska convention, said: "The time is speedily coming when by the advice and command of the American people the guilty highwaymen, the oppressors of the poor and mockers of the courts will be brought to their knees in humble submission by an outraged people. It may take revolution, it may take bloodshed, but in my judg-

NO LIFE, NO AMBITION, NO ENERGY.

These are common expressions now-a-days and the finger post that point with unfailing accuracy to a nervous system robbed of its vitality by over-exertion, overstrain or excess of some kind. That anyone should allow this condition to go on to complete mental physical or sexual ruin as it surely must if neglected, is a positive crime when the cure is at hand in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—a medicine designed expressly for this condition—a medicine that cures to stay cured by resupplying the very essential of life—Nerve Force.

Mrs. W. C. Masteller of 220 E. 5th St., Bloomsburg, Pa., says:—

"I was feeling very nervous and very much run down last winter when I saw Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills recommended for such a condition. I got a box and tried them. They have done me a world of good, toned up and strengthened my system generally, made my nerves strong, and steady and give me a feeling of life and vigor. The medicine is a good invigorator and re-builder and I can recommend it highly to anyone needing a fine nerve and general tonic." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

...it need take only the courage, determination and backbone of an American president, who will enforce the criminal laws of the United States against the multi-millionaire and cabinet officer as drastically as against the most humble citizen in this nation. Such a man is coming. He is our friend and neighbor—that intrepid, ceaseless, tireless fighter, the great commoner and defender of human rights, William Jennings Bryan, the young gladiator of the west, who, 10 years ago, struck the first deadly blow ever aimed at the heart of plutocracy in this country."

Mr. Skiles then pictured the American people waiting to vote for Bryan for president, and foreshadowed in the returns of the state elections to be held this fall in all parts of the country an emphatic demand for the "Great cause of Bryanism."

In this connection it is interesting to recall that the platform of the Pennsylvania Democracy, which nominated Emery for governor, said:

"We congratulate the country upon the fact that the only promisee of the present Republican national administration has attained his office. It has been achieved by feeble and pretended application of the principles enunciated by the Hon. William Jennings Bryan, the great Democratic Commoner, who is now regarded as the certain successor of Theodore Roosevelt to the presidency."

A vote for Emery is a vote of endorsement of that platform, as well as a contribution of moral support to the Bryan presidential movement.

STRONG FOR THE RIGHT.

President Roosevelt Has Proved Both Brave and Sane.

In our untutored, uncouth western way let us say that the course of President Roosevelt since he learned unofficially of his election suits the people of the middle west clear to the ground.

His immediate announcement that he would not be a candidate for reelection left him free to attend to the welfare of the country, with no harassing suspicion of any further political ambition, and that pleased us all. Still more acceptable was the determination, evidenced in his message, to resolutely grapple with the transportation problems—rebates, extortionate or discriminating rates, industrial "roads" and private cars.

In this he showed himself both brave and sane for the discontent with existing abuses is so great as to breed disbelief in the power of our government to cope with the evil or distrust in its willingness to do so.

In his attempt to demonstrate that the government of the United States is strong enough to enforce justice in this vital matter he has and will have the enthusiastic support of the central west and of its representatives in congress.

Astounding as were the majorities by which he was elected, they fall far short in our judgment, of what a poll taken today would show.

And so in uncultured fashion we bid him godspeed. We like his style.—Chicago Record-Herald.

RECIPROCITY FACTS.

INTERESTING ASPECTS OF OUR BUSINESS WITH CUBA

Gain In Our Exports More Than Offset by Increase in Adverse Trade Balances, Loss in Revenue and Injury to Domestic Interests.

In estimating the value and advantage of reciprocity as illustrated in our trade with Cuba the admirers of that system apparently are able to see but one aspect of the case. They confine their appreciation of the blessings of reciprocity to the single fact that our sales to Cuba have increased from $21,761,638 in 1903, a no treaty year, to $38,380,600 in 1905, a full treaty year. This increase of $16,618,962 in goods exported to Cuba is accepted as conclusively demonstrating the perfect working of this reciprocity arrangement. The demonstration is good as far as it goes. But there is another side to the proposition—in fact, several other sides—for example, the trade balance side.

In 1903 (fiscal year), before we had entered into the reciprocity experiment, our purchases from Cuba amounted to $62,942,790, and our sales to Cuba were $21,761,638; adverse trade balance,

To the People:

Rich's Famous All Wool Sock has fallen into competition with a very inferior article. The imitation is so perfect that only an expert is able to detect the counterfeit with its cotton and shoddy mixtures, until the sock is put into service. Unscrupulous competitors are representing the sock as Rich's All Wool, thus deceiving the customer and injuring our reputation.

To protect ourselves and the trade, in the future Rich's Socks will bear a Red Seal Trade Mark printed in White, a facsimile of which is shown above.
