ROOSEVELT IS ALERT

President Keenly Interested in Political Situation in Pennsylvania.

WANTS BIG REPUBLICAN VICTORY

His Visit to the York County Fair Will Not Be Simply to See the Prize Cattle.

[Special Correspondence.]
Harrisburg, Aug. 28.
"President Roosevelt is not going to the York county fair simply to see the prize bulls, you can depend upon that," remarked a well-informed Washington correspondent a few days ago in discussing the president's anticipated visit to Pennsylvania next month. This newspaper man is in touch with members of the cabinet and other leading officials of the national administration, and he knows the keen interest the president and all of those associated with him are manifesting in the coming election.
While it is possible that at the dedication of the new capitol building here the president may not touch upon politics, there is reason to believe that in his remarks subsequently at the York county fair he will make clear his desire for the election of a Republican congress.
It is known that the president has made a number of inquiries regarding political conditions in Pennsylvania, and he has on more than one occasion expressed an earnest wish for the success of the Republican party in this state this fall.
President Roosevelt has taken advantage of several opportunities recently to arouse interest in the Republican cause.

Mr. Roosevelt's Dollar.

Among his subscription to the Republican congressional committee's campaign fund, Editor Earle C. Tuten, of the Bellefonte Republican, has this to say about "Mr. Roosevelt's dollar":
"One of the first to heed the call of the chairman of the Republican campaign committee for one dollar contributions to the campaign fund is President Roosevelt. The president believes in the virtue of example and gives his dollar early with an implied injunction to all Republicans who share with him a true spirit of loyalty to party principle to go and do likewise. Undoubtedly the president's example will bear fruit. Its special value consists in the fact that every public act of the chief executive of the nation commands the attention of the whole people, and that accordingly his recognition of the dollar a head idea will bring the merit thereof home to hundreds of thousands of citizens who otherwise might let it pass unnoticed.
He Leads the Way.
"Naturally this simple device commands itself to the president because of the conditions which have made it necessary. In former times the great corporations were the chief donors of campaign funds, and very little money was obtained from the privates in the ranks of the political parties. Largely through Mr. Roosevelt's instrumentality, a death blow has been dealt to the practice of collecting funds from such sources.
"Henceforward, therefore, the campaign committee of all parties must look to individuals for the wherewithal to meet the heavy cost of campaigning. There should be no difficulty on this head if it is only possible to enlist individual attention and to inspire generally an adequate sense of partisan obligation. It is this that Mr. Roosevelt has in mind, and he has taken the one method of emphasizing his views where good results are sure to be achieved."
A State Dollar Fund.
Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, of the Republican state committee, has followed the lead of Chairman Sherman, of the congressional committee, and is soliciting one dollar subscriptions to

COURT PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS HON. CHAS. E. TERRY, President Judge, Honorable John D. Reeser and R. C. R. Kistler, Assoc. Judges of the Courts of Over and Under and General Jail Delivery, Quarter Sessions of the Peace, orphans' court and Common Pleas for the County of Sullivan, have issued their precept, bearing date the 11 day of May, 1906, to me directed, for holding the several courts in the Borough of Laporte, on Monday the 17 day of Sept. 1906, at 2 o'clock p. m.
Therefore, notice is hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace and Constables within the county, that they be then and there in their proper person at 2 o'clock p. m. of said day, with their rolls, records, inquisitions examinations and other remembrances to those things to which their office appertain to be done. And to those who are bound by their recognition to prosecute against prisoners who are or shall be in the jail of said county of Sullivan, are hereby notified to be then and there to prosecute against them as well as just.

FANK W. BUCK, Sheriff, Sheriff's Office, Laporte Pa., Nov. 13, 1905.
the state campaign fund. The radical anti-corporation declarations made in the Republican platform in Pennsylvania, coupled with the knowledge that Edwin S. Stuart as governor will see that all the party pledges are carried out, will without doubt deter many capitalists from contributing to the Pennsylvania Republican state committee this year.
But this is to be "a people's battle," and the dollars of the people will bring returns in a triumphant Republican victory.
Perennially the Republican party has cleaned its household and has placed itself in the van of reform legislation, thus giving no valid excuse for any Republican to desert the Republican ranks. If Emery stands for a principle, Stuart likewise stands for it, and Emery, furthermore, has the advantage of representing the Republicanism of Theodore Roosevelt.
Common sense is going to win the coming battle in Pennsylvania, not hysteria, and when the people begin to see, as they will, that Stuart is a Republican who owes allegiance only to that which is best in Republicanism and not to individuals, that he is a Republican who stands shoulder to shoulder with Roosevelt for the Square Deal, they will discover only danger in the movement for Emery.

One Hundred and Twenty of the 124 Graded Schools Have Practical Instruction in the Improvement of School Grounds and in School Gardens.

[Special Correspondence.]
The necessity of educating children in the cultivation of the soil has been apparent to the secretary of agriculture for a long time. He is untiring in his efforts to further it. Trained teachers are necessary to accomplish it, so with the hearty consent of the secretary Dr. B. T. Galloway, chief of the bureau of plant industry, has placed at the command of both the white and colored normal schools of the District of Columbia such facilities as are necessary to give an elementary training in horticulture and agriculture. By thus implying the young teachers its future in the education of the young is assured. During the last three years the work has grown from a greenhouse 9 by 13 feet and a strip of land for garden purposes 19 by 300 feet to a greenhouse 25 by 100 feet and a garden of an acre and a quarter. The department of agriculture furnishes the opportunity for the work and the schools the teachers. Two hundred and ten students are in the classes this year. Each one of these students is thus prepared to teach the subject in the city schools. During the fall the students propagate plants from cuttings from the winter schoolroom and the spring garden, plant bulbs outdoors and for winter forcing, collect garden and tree.
As long as it heeds and follows the counsels of President Roosevelt this nation will have peace with every neighbor deserving peace, for those counsels are exactly in the spirit of "Washington—Chicago Inter Ocean."

Grange National Banks.

The grange national bank movement seems to be spreading in Pennsylvania. In Cambria county a bank was recently established on property costing $20,000, which will be fitted up in a most attractive style. Pennsylvania is giving the grange national bank system a thorough trial and we anticipate that other states will follow in its lead if these institutions prove successful.

Short Talks on Advertising By Charles Austin Bates.

No. 19.

People generally read advertisements more than they did a few years ago. The reason is to be found in the advertisements themselves. Advertisers are more careful than they used to be. They make the advertisements more readable. Some of them even become, in a way, a department of the paper, and people look for them every day with as much zest and pleasure as they turn to any other feature.
This is true of many department stores all over the country.
In many cities there is just one man who appreciates the value of such interest.
He breaks away from the old set style. He tells something interesting in his space every day.
There are lots of interesting things in business. Look over the miscellaneous page of any paper—look at its local news columns, and its telegraph news, for that matter, and you'll see that the majority of the items are more or less closely related to some business fact.
Dress these facts up in a becoming garb of words, and they will find readers, even though they be in a "mere advertisement." Let the merchant come down off his pedestal and talk in his ads.
He needn't be flippant—far from it, but let him not write as if he were addressing somebody afar off, and telling him about something at even a greater distance.
The newspaper goes right into its reader's house—goes in and sits down with him.
It is on the table when he eats, and in his hands while he is smoking after the meal. It reaches him when he is in an approachable condition.
That's the time to tell him about your business—clearly, plainly, convincingly—as one man talks to another.
