vices in the Episcopal church regularly hereafter, officiating at pote at 7.30 p. m.

Sheriff Buck in company with Mr. R. G. Frutchy of Lopez, conveyed the prisoner who was convicted at the last term of court for criminal assault, to the Eastern Penitentiary.

A letter sent to the News Item from Muncy Valley hotly denouncing the erection of another school house at Hemlock Grove was cast aside, as it did not contain the name of the writer. Letters of that class always find their way to the waste basket.

The Rev. G. A. Ruxton, D. D., formerly of Portland, N. Y., has been appointed Rector of the Episcopal churches at Laporte and Eagles Mere and will reside in the rectory at Laporte.

Owing to the large and complete stock carried, Holcomb & Lauer, furniture dealers of Dushore, it has been found necessary to extend their Mammoth Closing Out Sale to Saturday evening, October 6, 1906. Remarkable values are being offered and many in this section are taking advantage of the opportunity.

Harry H. Green, formerly known throughout this county as a successful school teacher, has accepted a more lucrative position as traveling salesman for the H. G.
Phillips School Supply House of Williamsport. Mr. Green is one of the many Sullivan county boys that are making records for themselves in broader fields.

At the twenty-third annual convention of the Berks County Women's Christian Temperance Union, several delegates strongly urged the abandonment of wearing black at funerals, and the substitution of white veils, as good people really live on, and there should be no sorrow shown at their bettered condition.

Miss Bessie Wrede has returned from Meyerstown, where she spent a month with her sister, Mrs. Jas.
Strol. While at that place she had the misfortune to fall and sprain her ankle, which is still causing her much trouble.

Married—At high noon, by the Rev. E. Eldridge, in the First Baptist Church at Hancock, N. Y., on Sept. 9, Miss Nina Alice Green, daughter of Mrs. Lucy A. Green, of Picture Rocks, to Mr. Edward S. Dingman of Scranton, Pa. Miss Green has a host of friends in this section who extend to her best wishes for a long and prosperous life.

Married—Oscar Snyder, formerly of Lopez, Pa., and Miss Emma Bahr were married Sept. 18, at Lestershire, N. Y. After a brief wedding trip to Niagara Falls, West Virginia and Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder will commence housekeeping at Hills Grove, where Mr.
Snyder has a position with the tanning company.

Mrs. Frank Ingham very delightfully surprised the ladies of the Village Improvement Society when they met at her home Tuesday evening, by serving dainty refreshments in honor of Mrs. E. M.
Dunham and Miss Alice Brewster, two active workers, who met with the Society for the last time this winter, as both will leave Laporte next week.

Preparations for moving are rapidly going on at the home of Hon.
E. M. Dunham, and the family expect to leave Laporte for Sayre the first of next week. Judge Dunham has already established a good law practice at Sayre where he has been located the past summer. The people of Laporte will generally regret the departure of Mrs. Dunham and her daughter who have been exceedingly popular in social circles, and in all that pertained to the progressiveness of our village.
Mrs. Dunham was Secretary of the Village Improvement Society, and was a most efficient and enthusiastic officer.

Pupils have no right to absent themselves from the school when the Bible is read, according to an opinion by Judge Kunkel, handed down in the Dauphin county court Monday, refusing a mandamus against the school directors of Williamstown in which citizens of the borough objected to the directors refusing to allow pupils to enter the schools after the Bible was read in the morning. The Bible, it is said, is read by direction of the school board, and in the petition it is stated that some of the scholars refused to attend during that period. Judge Kunkel holds that the court has no power to compel the school board to permit some scholars to attend school at a different time from that prescribed by the board.

A Charitable Enterprise.
Good Will farm is known by every Patron in the state of Maine. It is supported by benevolence and is a home for about 115 boys and 35 girls at the present time. The Patrons of Maine erected what is known as "Grange cottage" on this farm, which accommodates about fifteen girls.
Maine Patrons are raising a scholarship valued at $3,000, the proceeds of which are to be applied to pay expenses of the girls who occupy "Grange cottage." The money thus contributed not only feeds, clothes and educates one girl, but many, for as soon as one leaves another takes her place. This certainly is a most worthy charity and one that can well engage the attention and enlist the sympathy of Maine Patrons.

A Question and an Answer.
When a demit card becomes void what must be done for the holder of the demit to get into another grange? Is a person who holds a demit prevented from joining a grange?

When a demit becomes void, as it does after one year, the party seeking admission to another grange would have to join as a new member. A lapsed demit is worthless. The difference between a demit and a withdrawal card is that a demit severs one's relation from the grange where he belonged, while a withdrawal card severs his relation from the Order; but a lapsed demit and a withdrawal card are on the same plane, and in either case a person seeking to join another grange would have to join as a new member.

Hon. W. T. Creasey, for several years a member of the legislative committee of the Pennsylvania state grange, was recently nominated for auditor general on a fusion ticket.

Roulette grange, Pennsylvania, has started a five cent club for the purpose of raising funds for a new hall.

Already a dozen new granges have been organized in New York state since the secretary's last report. We anticipate at least twenty-five new organizations before Oct. 1, when the grange year ends.
