County Seat Local and Personal Events tersely Told.

W. C. McCartney of Sonestown was at the county seat Wednesday.
Misses Dolly and Freda Crossley left here Monday morning for New York where they expect to spend the winter. While they will be missed in Laporte, yet their many friends wish them a most pleasant winter.

Mr. Fairbain and family of Boston, Mass., has moved into the Tripp cottage on Main street.
Mr. Fairbain is an official of the Elk Tanning company and comes here with the hope that our climate will prove beneficial to his wife's health.

There will be a box social at the Hemlock Grove school house Saturday evening October 6. A stand will be operated and ice cream and cake will be served. Girls are invited to bring boys.

The Village Improvement Society will meet next Tuesday evening October 9, at the home of Mrs.
John V. Finkle.

Mrs. E. M. Dunham and daughter Miss Shaut left Tuesday for their new home at Sayre. Miss Ellen Dunham and her aunt Miss Harriet Crocker will remain here several weeks before joining the family in their Sayre home.

Mrs. Melissa Newell died at Canton, Pa., Saturday September 29th. She was the mother of editor Fred Newell of Dushore.

The Commercial hotel at this place changed proprietors on Tuesday of this week when John Hassan Jr. took possession of the hotel, he having bought the personal property of the former proprietor, Joseph Carpenter, and leased the building. Mr. Hassan's popularity will, no doubt, bring to him a large share of public patronage.

Congressman E. W. Samuel of Mt. Carmel was a Laporte visitor Friday night.

Mr. Joseph Carpenter has moved into T. J. Keeler's residence near the Catholic church.

THE GRANGE

Conducted by
J. W. DARROW, Chatham, N. Y., Press Correspondent New York State Grange

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATORS

A Matter in Which the Grange is Actively Interested.

There is a growing interest in the matter of electing United States senators by popular vote. A somewhat novel feature of the recent Oregon state election was the expression by the voters of the state of their choice for senator. The law of the state does not permit election of senators by the people, and this was simply a test vote. What is most interesting is the fact that the candidate that would have been elected by the people is not the one which would have been designated by the legislature. Senator Gearin is the present incumbent and was a candidate in the recent test election, but the majority of the popular vote was in favor of his adversary. The majority in the present legislature is of the same political faith as Senator Gearin; consequently his election would have been assured, but in view of the fact that the expression of popular opinion was against him he has advised the legislature to select his adversary instead.

That the election of senators by the people will soon be the law in many states, if not all, is quite evident. Such action must be secured by an amendment to the constitution. Already representatives of nineteen states have requested congress to call a convention for the purpose of submitting a constitutional amendment.

It is well known by all members of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry that the popular election of senators has been one of their aims for several years. Each year the national master has asked the state organization to work to this end, and the creation of a public sentiment in favor of popular election of senators is due very largely to the quiet work of the grange throughout various states.
