KNOX SOUNDS
 SLOGAN TO RALLY
 TO ROOSEVELT

Call to Pennsylvanians Expresses Earnest Wish of the President.

A SOLEMN DUTY TO
 STATE AND COUNTRY

Shall the Head of the Nation Look In Vain to Republicans of the Old Keystone Commonwealth?

The recent utterances of Senator Philander C. Knox upon the political situation in Pennsylvania have everywhere been accepted as voicing the sentiments of President Roosevelt, in whose cabinet Senator Knox served as Attorney General, and with whom the Junior Senator from this state is on the most intimate terms of personal friendship.

Senator Knox has been a frequent visitor at the White House recently and is familiar with the president's keen interest in the campaign here, and his desire for the election of the full Republican ticket in the Keystone State.

Senator Knox, in his speeches, points out that the Democratic party in this state injected national issues into the canvass by its platform declarations for Bryan.

"However the case may be in other states," says Senator Knox, "the line of cleavage in Pennsylvania is the President, his policies, and his success and intelligent and honest purpose in working them out. Pennsylvania is invited now to reverse its momentous verdict of approval of the President's administration two years ago when challenged in a national campaign for the same reasons now advanced."

He further remarks: "There are no differences between the three platforms as to reform measures. An honest reformer could stand upon the reform planks of either party. The Democratic platform expressly states 'all important reforms the Republican platform now advocates have been consistently declared for and supported by the Democracy of the State for many years."

"Making the same concession as to the fitness of Mr. Emery and his associates that they make in respect to Mr. Stuart and his co-candidates, it is obvious that the issue is not the men.
 It is equally obvious that as between the Republican party and the Democratic party the issue is raised by the Republican plank indorsing President Roosevelt's 'splendid administration,' and by the Democratic plank denouncing the President's administration as a 'feeble and pretended' imitation of Bryan. That this is the issue as between the two great parties is too plain for further consideration."

In referring to the "partnership" between the Lincolnites and the Democracy, Senator Knox says:

Why Belittle President?
 "If the Democracy were in good faith in desiring to co-operate with the Lincolnite Republicans to reform politics in Pennsylvania why should they, as a part of their program, belittle our President and name his successor? Their convention was not dealing with a national ticket or national issues except as they went out of their way to do so. I do not accuse Lincoln Republicans, except so far as they are seeking to defeat Republican Congressmen, of desiring to misrepresent and thwart the policies and activities of the national administration, but I am firmly convinced that their partners in their arrangement have deliberately led them into a most unfortunate situation.
 "Remember, we are having this contest with Democrats, and their banners and their mottoes inscribed thereon will be in evidence upon the field of victory if this is to be a Republican defeat."

At another point he declares:
Must Not Repudiate Roosevelt.
 "Let any one who doubts the absolute accuracy of what I say ask himself this question: What would the Democratic party claim in the next national campaign if Pennsylvania would change a half million votes in this campaign where the Democracy challenge the efficiency for the public good and high motive of the President?"

"No hamlet in the land is so remote as to escape their triumphant heralds, who would proclaim the stupendous fact that the Keystone state had repudiated Roosevelt, and the cry that as Pennsylvania goes so goes the Union, would be the slogan of our political foes."

Marked An Epoch.
 After lauding the splendid work of the recent extra session of the Republican legislature of Pennsylvania, Senator Knox adds:

"It is because of all this that when Theodore Roosevelt contemplated the work of this last session he was constrained to say that it 'marked an epoch,' to which he added that he did 'not recall any other state legislature which in a similar length of time has to its credit such a body of admirable legislation."

"Even if I had not always been a Republican I would feel inclined to trust, at this time, the party that put in force this system of law so thoroughly protecting my political rights; but having always been a Republican, I cannot conjure up a single doubt as to my duty."

Then again he says:
 "It has been demonstrated that the great rank and file of Pennsylvania Republicans desire all that is best in government. They stand for clean principles and practices and have provided the means by which they are to be certainly secured."

"We have cleaned house. Why should we now move out?"

Honor to Be a Republican.
 "If a man is ashamed of being a Republican in Pennsylvania today," said Senator Knox, at the conclusion of his Pittsburg speech, "there never was a time in its history when he could have made that claim with honor."

"I cannot understand the attitude of people who are standing aloof or opposing the election of Mr. Stuart, while freely conceding that his pledges and promises are all that is desirable and that he honestly intends, if elected, to administer the government of the state solely in the interest of the people."

"I cannot understand why a man should put up the cry of 'bossism' against an honest candidate who solemnly says he never recognized a boss, and in the most specific manner declares he never will."

"I cannot understand those who publicly proclaim that the political rights of the people have been fully secured by legislation, and then prophesy disaster to the state through the exercise of those rights by the people."

"And more mysterious than all to me is the attitude of those Republican who claim to have been instrumental in bringing about these reforms by appealing to the Republicans of the state, and through them to the legislature of the state, who now, after their voices have been heard and their advice followed, mutiny against the ship whose course they claim to have directed and consort with those whose most charitable wish is that she may go to everlasting destruction upon the rocks."

McCLURE ON THE ISSUES

BRYANISM WOULD BE AIDED

Tells of the High Character of Republican Nominee For Governor, Edwin S. Stuart.

Colonel A. K. McClure, while declaring that "a man who is about to face the frosts of eighty winters should be free from the labors and vexations of political strife," has been stumping for his old-time friend, the perennial Thomas Valentine Cooper, "the sage of Delaware county," who seeks re-election to the legislature.

Colonel McClure, in the course of an address at Media, after dwelling upon the virtues of "the red-headed and hopeful Cooper," spoke of the several candidates for Governor.

Among other things he said:
 "Senator Emery has been nominated for Governor by a Democratic State convention after a violent factional contest, and an overwhelming majority of those who vote for him will do so because they vote the Democratic ticket."

"They have read the Democratic platform on which Senator Emery necessarily stands today, in which the people of Pennsylvania are congratulated in advance on the assured election of William J. Bryan as our next President."

"This declaration has made scores of thousands of sincere reform Republicans and Democrats to pause and inquire what elements will triumph in Pennsylvania by the election of Emery, and what effect such a verdict would have upon the future of state and nation?"

"With Emery as Governor and a legislature controlled by the elements which are supporting him, would reform be remedial or destructive? We find today a re-quickening of the Bryan illusion that once made even the credit of this great nation tremble in the
