A dry goods house advertises "short-waist one-third off." That is probably the latest designation of the kind in fashion last summer.

Messrs. Ernest Lauer and Joe Wrede have returned from Gilmore, Idaho, where they have been since May. The boys are in rugged health, and have greatly enjoyed their experience in the mining camps of the west. Both seemed very glad to get back to their old homes in Laporte.

The new Borough school house was opened for occupancy Monday morning and all pupils were early to arrive and select their seats. Laporte's school building is second to none in the county. It is only handsome in appearance but is well planned and well constructed, and a decided credit to the builder, William H. Rogers.

Thomas Schell, of Mildred, has been appointed postmaster of that place. Mr. Schell is a man who will make an excellent officer for both the public and postal department. His selection in general is very satisfactory to the patrons of the Mildred office.

Mr. George Houseknecht of Mill Creek, W. Va., is visiting old friends at Sonestown and vicinity.

Mrs. M. Donovan and family of Muncy Valley, desire to thank their friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted them during the sickness and death of Mr. Donovan, also for the much sympathy shown to them.

Mrs. Herman Meyers died at her home near Fairview, November 28, aged 27 years, 5 months and 20 days. The funeral was held the following Saturday, Rev. S. B. Biddlack officiating.

Among the great trials that a woman has to undergo, says a writer, is to have a new bonnet in the house on a rainy day.

Mr. B. G. Welch General manager of the Eagles Merc Light Co., has appointed Raymond D. Kehler of Eagles Mere as Superintendent, so as to take a much needed rest. Mr. Welch, who has always been a tireless worker, has been in poor health for some time past and his friends hope that a rest will prove beneficial to him.

The farmers of this county will be interested to learn that a Farmers' Institute will be held at Colley, Pa., Dec. 28th and 29th, 1906. A number of instructors from other parts of the State will be present to join with the farmers of this locality in the discussion of topics relative to agriculture. These meetings are free and open to all, and we have no doubt the farmers of this county will avail themselves of the advantages to be gained by attending these meetings.

A black bear, probably the largest seen in this section of the state for a number of years, was found dead in the dense woods near Proctor last week by a party of men. From careful estimation it is believed that the animal would have tipped the scales at over 400 pounds. It was pronounced the greatest black bear ever seen by people in the vicinity of Proctor. The bear had been wounded by some hunter but escaped at the time. When found its carcass was too badly decomposed to be of any use.

Congressman-elect John G. McHenry is back of a proposition to place a co-operative store in Benton, his home town, with a capitalization of $40,000. A meeting of parties likely to be interested has been held to outline the plan. It was proposed to occupy the large store-building on the Rohr McHenry estate, and to make it a mammoth concern that will handle all lines of goods.

The expense account of John G. McHenry of Benton, Congressman elect of this district has been filed showing his campaign expenses. The total amount is $7,641.14. This amount is divided as follows: Contributions to the campaign fund of the county committees in the four counties of the district $3250.

Vaughn Close of Canton, Pa., underwent another operation in a Philadelphia hospital Monday of last week. His hand was crushed over a year ago by a falling pulley and he has since undergone a number of operations, all the bones in the back of his hand being crushed. They were substituted by chicken bones and this last operation was to unite the cords running to the fingers. He was under anesthetic three hours and the operation is thought to have been successful.

A petition is being circulated among the overseers of the poor of Wyoming county, which will later be presented to the court of quarter sessions, asking the court to submit the question of a county poor house to the electors at the coming February election, as provided by the act of 1879.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The largest bids ever submitted for work to be done for the government will be recorded at noon next Wednesday when the offers of contractors for the building of the Panama canal will be opened. The bids are being prepared under the invitation sent out by the canal commission on Oct. 9. Since then more than 2,000 copies of the general plan for the construction of the canal with plates and other data have been furnished to contracting firms in this country and abroad.

The wise ladies and gentlemen of the land are just now discussing the subject of trial marriages. The plan contemplates a sort of pre-nuptial probation during which the prospective bride and groom get together on more serious and intimate planes than they do during our formal engagement period. The why or the wherefore of the change we know not. But we do know that if this trial marriage scheme would ever receive the sanction of the church or the state most of the shiftless young fellows of the country would be boarding with the parents of the silly girls of the land and we would have to put crepe on that beautiful song of content "Everybody works but father."

Secretary George R. Drake of the New Hampshire state grange, being asked by the editor of this department for an opinion on this subject, said: "It is my decided opinion that it is better to pay the actual traveling expenses of the delegates in attendance at the state grange, but it does not seem best to pay their expenses for board."

"The New Hampshire state grange officers, the forty deputies and the masters and their wives or husbands of each subordinate and Pomona grange in the state draw pay from the state grange for the actual amount of car and stage fare, and each is paid $1.25 per day for the time in actual attendance at the meeting."

"The committee on mileage and per diem can easily make up the expense account of the session from the printed list of railroad rates always at hand, which is 1 cent a mile for the round trip. By paying each delegate and legal attendant at the session a specified sum we avoid any complications and very much simplify any delicate questions that might arise concerning any extravagant board bills."

The Grange and Temperance.

The question occasionally arises in grange communities as to what the position of the grange is concerning temperance. At the last meeting of the national grange the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the grange hereby renews its fealty to temperance in all things; that it emphasizes its belief that the degrading American saloon ought to be carefully and rigorously guarded until it can be abolished and in the meantime be made and held to a strict responsibility for the harm it does, and that it believes that every community should be empowered by law to vote every saloon from its midst or borders.
