To the Pacific Coast -to California, Oregon, Washington round-trip, long transit and return limits, liberal stop-over

The rate is practically on the basis of one fare for the round trip. Of course, if you wish to visit both California and Oregon or Washington, the cost is slightly more.

These reduced rates are in effect on certain dates in months of May to October, inclusive. They apply from all Eastern points via Chicago, St. Louis or Memphis gateways. The Rock Island System will take you up in either Chicago or St. Louis, or at hundreds of other Middle West points and carry you to the Coast in through tandard or Tourist Sleepers with unexcelled Dining Car service. The Rock Island also affords a choice of routes: on the route you can stop off in Colorado-see Salt Lake City-visit Yellowstone National Park; on the "Southern" route you can go via El Paso, thru New Mexico, then "up coast" to San Francisco and on to Portland or Seattle if desired.

In short, these Pacific Coast excursions offer an unusually good chance to see our western country in a comprehensive manner.

If you desire to go only as far as Colorado, there are excursion rates in effect to that section and return, all summer long, specially reduced June 30 to July 4, August 12 and 13, and August 30 to September 4. Extension trips to Ogden or Salt Lake and return at low cost also.

Send Colorado bookdet and rates.

From September 15 to October 31, 1901. one-way tourist or "colonist" tickets will be on sale to California and the Pacific Northwest-about half regular fare.

If interested, send name and address on this coupon, designating which beoklet wanted and to what point you plan to go. Name probable date of start also, so we can advise definitely with respect to rates, etc.

At the Kansas good roads convention C. F. Miller, secretary of the Southeast Kansas Good Roads association, de livered an interesting address on highway improvement. He said in part:

WHEN TO BEGIN REVISION.

A correspondent of the American Beconomist, writing from Jacksonvilla Fla., gives the following answer to the question, "When shall we revise the tariat?"

I think it will be time to revise the tariff when they begin to start free soup houses in the large cities.

It is an excellent suggestion. There were no free soup houses in 1892, after two years of the McKinley tariff. But somehow the people took a notion that they would like to have some. So they elected Grover Cleveland and a Democratic congress. Well, they got the soup houses all right, and ple " of them, even before they good or dise

Then the ple decided once more that the the decided once more that the the decided revising, and it did to me they elected William McLinney and a Republican protection congress. Soup houses disappeared forthwith. There has been none for eight years. Possibly they may reappear under the Dingley tariff, but probably not. But in any case it would be well to wait until they do come again before we revise the tariff. The Florida idea is a good one.

QUEER REASONING.

Free Traders Favor Any Treaty That

ers are filled with scorn and anger at the impudence of the Gloucester peo-ple in protesting against the reciproc Ity treaty with Newfoundland on the nd that it would ruin their fishing ndustries. To the ordinary mind it would seem perfectly natural that any industry should protest against a treaty which would ruin it. But by some peculiar twist of reasoning the tariff tinker and the free trader regard the making of a treaty with a tariff an-nihilating clause as a duty paramount and superior to the preservation of the national industries. If an industry is to be wiped out by its operation, so much the more reason for its ratification. The eastern mug-

AGAINST THE MONUMENT.

Mr. O. H. Kelley Opposes the National Grange Proposition.

Founder O. H. Kelley has this to say relative to the proposed monument to be erected in Washington to the founders of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry:

I claim that all those who worked with me in the early days were building a living monument—one that can speak for itself, one that cannot be excelled. In our fifth degree Pomona uses the language of Daniel Webster in his speech at the laying of the cornerstone of Bunker Hill monument, as follows: "If we work upon marbie, it will crumble; if we work upon brass, then will corrode it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust. But if we work upon immortal minds, if we imbue them with just and true principles, the reverence of God and the love of our fellow man, we engrave upon something that will brighten to all eternity." That is the kind of monument we now have. The high moral standing of the membership of our Order has no superior in any fraternity. Without making any comparisons, it stands side by side with the church in all good works, and speaking for Miss Hail and myself, we ask no better monument. Raise your $25,099 and spend every dollar in employing deputies to go into every state where the Order is dormant and revive the good work until svery state is again represented in the national grange and thus enlarge the monument to which every grange hall that is declicated adds an embellishment. That is the kind of monument all can appreciate, and it is an honor to the living as well as to the dead. In true fraternal spirit treat all alike and show no partaility.

We find that there is a growing sentiment against the proposition. As one

We find that there is a growing sentiment against the proposition. As one writer puts it, "The founders of our Order are entitled to the thanks of all now living and those who will come after us, and what they did will be re-membered as long as the Order exists, and if it should die it would be little satisfaction to its friends to see a gigantic slab calling attention to their work." As Brother Kelley is one of the "founders" to whom this monument is to be erected his opinion in the matter should have weight.

GRANGE FIRE INSURANCE.

One of the most profitable forms of co-operation in the grange is in the Insurance organizations. Below are given the significant features of various reports recently made:

The Dutchess and Columbia Patrons' Fire Relief association, with headquarters at Millerton, reported on Jan. 1 2,390 policies in force, the amount of risks carried being $5,040,000. The average losses for seven years have been $1.08 per $1,000 of insurance in this company. The Patrons' Fire Re Hef association of Jefferson county reported losses the past year exceeding those in many years, lightning alone having caused $16,000 in losses, the total amount of losses being $26,000. Notwithstanding the large payments required, there was a saving of over $28,000 to the policy holders over stock company insurance. This association now has about 7,000 policies, with $12 000,000 of insurance in force. The tall receipts to the first fear were $1104.57. The first fear were $1104.57. range propert Wayne co
