Tersely Told.

Mr. Jacob Fries has gone to Lebanon, Pa., where he has a good position.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kennedy, of Dushore, on Tuesday, a daughter.

Eli J. Chilson of Overton and Miss Mabel E. Wanck of Campbellsville, were married at Waverly N.Y. February 11, by Rev. H. B. Cook.

Mrs. Thos. Morris of Nordmont died on Tuesday of last week of heart trouble at the age of 68 years and 9 days. Mrs. Morris is survived by a husband five sons and two daughters. Funeral services were held on Friday.

Messrs. Fred Lauer of Muncy, Victor Lauer of Scranton, and Mrs. E. L. Barrows and Mrs. E. A. Heim of Baltimore, last week were summoned to the home of their sister Mrs. J. L. Smyth, where their mother Mrs. M. C. Lauer is seriously ill.

Elery Crossley, on Tuesday went to Sayre where he entered the machine shops as an apprentice, but will receive good wages from the very beginning of his apprenticeship.

Chauncy J. Fuller of Estella, on Monday was admitted to the Williamsport Hospital for medical treatment.

A sleigh load of adult people from Nordmont, and another load from Eagles Mere drove to Laporte Friday evening to attend services at the Methodist church where Dr. T. S. Wilcox of Williamsport, held Quarterly Conference and conducted the revival service of that evening, after which he received four persons into full membership in the church and several others on probation.

William Bedford of Picture Rocks, dropped dead while combing his hair before the mirror early Tuesday morning. He had been in his usual health up to his death which it is thought was due to heart failure. He was about 40 years of age. Mr. Bedford was a brother of Mrs. James Boatman of near Sonestown.

One of the most destructive fires in the history of Sunbury entailing a loss of nearly $50,000 occurred Monday when several of the most prominent business buildings were destroyed.

The month with usually the greatest amount of winter weather has gone by, and February is nearly gone, while March 17th winds up our big storms as a rule. The hours of light are increasing, and already the thoughts of coming spring stir the heart with hope and thanksgiving.

A news item says the life of a one dollar bill is 15 months. The average man cannot retain their grasp on one anywhere near that long, so cannot learn from experience.

An inch and a half of broken needle was removed on Saturday from the stomach of a woman at Nescopeck. She believes it had traveled from her arm where it entered several years ago. Recently she suffered pains in her stomach and when the physicians performed an operation they found the corroded needle.

President Roosevelt signed the new McCumber pension bill Thursday and it is now a law. Convicts do not need an attorney in order to avail themselves of its provisions. They must make a sworn statement of their age and when they were born and forward to the commissioner of pensions. They can swear to it before any justice of the peace or notary public.

Election passed off very quietly in this town, there being only a Union ticket no contesting was necessary. The names of the candidates appeared in a recent issue of the News Item.

Clarence Hess of Philadelphia, was in town on Wednesday and gave the News Item a pleasant call.

An oversight in proof reading last week, caused the News Item to state that the owners of coal land in Sullivan county were receiving from $1,500 to $2,000 income annually. This was meant to inform our readers that a single acre of coal land nets in royalties that sum. Is not the $350 assessed valuation a very low figure? yet the owners have appealed and want the court to relieve them.

In the interest of the health of the public school children Dr. Dixon, state health commissioner, advises that a medical inspector should be employed in every school in the state. Dr. Dixon would have these inspectors watch over the health and examine the eyesight and hearing of pupils, both for the prevention of the spread of contagious diseases and to remedy defective vision and hearing. In the opinion of the state health commissioner the school authorities stand to the children in a parental relation and are responsible for the safeguarding of the pupils' health.
