To the Pacific Coast -- to California, Oregon, Washington -round-trip, long transit and return limits, liberal stop-over

The rate is practically on the basis of one fare for the round trip. Of course, if you wish to visit both California and Oregon or Washington, the cost is slightly more.

These reduced rates are in effect on certain dates in months of May to October, inclusive. They apply from all Eastern points via Chicago, St. Louis or Memphis gateways. The Rock Island System will take you up in either Chicago or St. Louis, or at hundreds of other Middle West points and carry you to the Coast in through Standard or Tourist Sleepers with unexcelled Dining Car service. The Rock Island also affords a choice of routes: on the "Scenic" route you can stop off in Colorado-see Salt Lake City-visit Yellowstone National Park; on the "Southern" route you can go via El Paso, thru New Mexico, then "up coast" to San Francisco and on to Portland or Seattle if desired.

In short, these Pacific Coast excursions offer an unusually good chance to see our western country in a comprehensive manner.

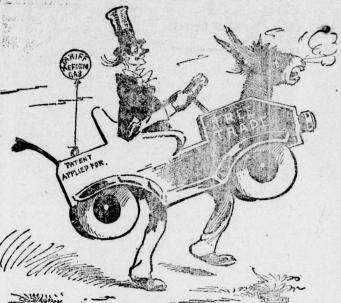

If you desire to go only as far as Colorado, there are excursion rates in effect to that section and return, all summer long, specially reduced June 30 to July 4, August 12 and 13, and August 30 to September 4. Extension trips to Ogden or Salt Lake and return at low cost also.

From September 15 to October 31, 190! one-way tourist or "colonist" tickets will be on sale to California and the Pacific Northwest-about half regular fare.

If interested, send name and address on this coupe which booklet wanted and to what point you plan to go. Name probable date of start also, so we can advise definitely with respect to rates, etc.

Send Colorado booklet and rates.

A Glimpse Into the Future of Municipal Ownership.

A Thumb Nail Sketch of a "Practical Politician"-The Profits of an All Around "Servant of the People, Who Seen His Opportunities and Took

"Honest graft" will reach its highest ievel when, as predicted by the en-thusiasts, the principles of municipal ownership are accepted by New York and the city controls the trolley lines, the electric light and gas works and all the ferries as well as the water-works and the police, the fire and the street departments.
Then such patriots as George Washington Plunkitt, for many years or-ganization leader of the Fifteenth dis-trict in New York, will reap rewards of greater magnitude than they have ever been able to gather under the present order of things.

Perhaps you have never heard about Mr. Plunkitt's "honest graft" schemes. He told about them himself in a book published last year, which was introduced by a paragraph indorsing him as a "veteran leader of the organization," signed by its greatest chief, Plunkitt was sore because there were some objections to graft being made out of the city by men like him, and in the first chapter of his book he uttered a vigorous protest. "Blackmailin' gamblers, saloon keepers, disorderly per ple, etc.," he admitted to be wrong. That was "dishonest graft,"

"But," he added, "there's an honest

graft, and I'm an example of how it I seen my opportunities and I

Mr. Plunkitt's explanation of how he did these things will illuminate the possibilities of future municipal owner-possibilities of future municipal owner-ship days, if they ever come.

After elucidating the ways he was "tipped off" at various times by mem-bers of his party—the party in power-when new bridges, new parks, new streets were to be opened, so that he might invest in real estate likely to rise in price from the improvements contemplated, he adds: "I haven't con-fined myself to land. Anything that pays is in my line." Then he gives a specific instance: specific instance:

Learning that the city was about to Learning that the city was about to repave a certain street and so would have several hundred thousand old paving blocks to sell, he was "on hand to buy," and he "knew just what they were worth." But a newspaper "tried to do him" and got some outside men from Brooklyn and New Jersey to bid against him. Mr. Plunkitt's own words tell the story best:
"Was I done? Not much. I went

"Was I done? Not much. I went to each of the men and said, 'How many of those 250,000 stones do you want?' One said 20,000, and another wanted 15,000, and another wanted 10,-I said, 'All right; let me bid for the lot, and I'll give each of you all Oc. 25c. If C.C.C fait, druggists refund you want for nothin."

"They agreed, of course. Then the anctioneer yelled, 'How much am I bid for these time pavin' stones?"

"Two dollars and fifty cents,' says I.

"Two dollars and fifty cents,' screamed the auctioneer. 'Oh, that's a joke. Give me a real bid.

"He found the bid was real enough. My rivals stood silent. I got the lot for $2.50 and gave them their share. That's how the attempt to do Plankitt ended, and that's how all such attempts end."

It is hardly necessary, in the light of this authentic statement of "honest graff's" workings, to enlarge upon the extended opportunities that would come to the men of the Plankitt stamp were the dream of municipal owner. were the dream of municipal owner-ship to come true. Plunkitt says "most ship to come true. Plunkitt says "most politicians who are accused of robbin' the city get rich the same way" he did, "They didn't steal a dollar from the city. They first seen their opportunities and took them."

While in the legislature Plunkitt introduced the bills that provided for the outlying parks of New York, the Harlem river speedway, the Washington bridge, the One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street vladuet, additions to the Museum of Natural History and many other Important public improvements. Museum of Natural History and many other important public improvements. He is now a millionaire. Under the proposed order of things, with city control of everything, he might become a billionaire.

As Others See Him and as Seen by Himself.

J. T. Aliman, secretary of the Pennsylvania state grange, remarks that recently at a grange pienic a gentleman, not a farmer, extolled the farmer to the skies. As he saw it, the farmer is the most independent man in the land. He can scarcely know a want that he cannot himself supply. His wife enjoys a paradise, and his children are the healthiest, happiest and most contented to be found anywhere. There is nothing of which he can justly

Soon after a farmer who owns two good farms and a house in town was "The farmer is not respected by anybody. He gets no public recognition.

When he goes among other people he is succeed at as only a farmer. He is discriminated against by legislators and business men. He pays the bulk of the taxes, and others fix his prices for him. A $200 check will be required to pay my taxes this year. I am thred of it My properties are in the market."

My properties are in the market."
There is same truth in what the first man said, too much truth in the statement of the second. The mission of the grange is to realize for the farm as far as possible the dramas of the first and to correct the evils complained of by the second. the second.
