County Seat Local and Personal Events Tersely Told.

George Wheatley of Estella, died Monday morning, aged 22 years.

Mr. Tony Nardine of Philadelphia, is visiting his parents in the second ward.

The public schools at Eagles Mere have been closed on account of diphtheria at that place. Miss Helen Chase, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Chase, being the sufferer.

Michael McNellan Jr. transacted business in Williamsport on Wednesday.

Miss Lizzie McNellan visited friends and relatives at Dushore last week.

Mrs. Rowena Stackhouse and Mrs. William Sykes desire to extend their heartfelt thanks to all who have so kindly assisted them since their misfortune of losing their entire possessions by fire several weeks ago.

Messrs W. L. Palmatier and W. B. Houseknecht, of Eaglesmere have bought the Muncy Valley house and moved from the Stackhouse hotel and taken possession of the same. Smith Bondman having taken possession of the one formerly occupied by them.

Mrs. E. A. Heim left Monday morning for her home at Baltimore. She was accompanied by her sister E. L. Barrows. On Tuesday Mrs. J. W. Murrelle returned to her home at Athens. These ladies had been at the home of their sister Mrs. J. L. Smyth, since the death of their mother, Mrs. Lauter.

The Jamison City Store Company has gone into bankruptcy and the following appraisers have been appointed: R. F. Colley of Bloomsburg and P. G. Shultz of Benton.

Atty. and Mrs. F. W. Meylert were in Elmira the early part of the week, attending the funeral of Mrs. Meylert's aunt.

Carl Wrede returned on Tuesday from a visit to his sister Mrs. J. M. Strohl at Myerstown, his Mother Mrs. E. E. Wrede will remain for some time with her daughter.

The country editor who evidently speaks from experience, describes "the biggest trust" as follows: "The biggest trust on earth is the country newspaper. It trusts everybody, gets cussed for trusting, mistrusts for cussing, and if it busts for trusting gets cussed for busting."

Paul Wright a 16 year old Berwick lad, is suffering acute insanity, and at times requires six men to hold him, his condition being the result of excessive cigarette smoking. If he can be kept from further smoking there is hope for his recovery. This should be a frightful warning to boys who smoke.

The Danville asylum for the insane has at last secured the appropriation for which it asked the state. The full amount asked for, $398,300, being given to that institution.

A Milwaukee minister compares Pittsburg to Sodom and Gomarrah, which, an exchange thinks, is a slander on those ancient cities.

There will be a Box Social at the home of Mrs. J. V. Finkle, on Friday evening, March 15, under the auspices of the Epworth League for the benefit of the M. E. church. Each lady is requested to bring a decorated box containing two suppers. Ice cream and cake will also be served. A fish pond will be featured the evening. Come all and spend a pleasant evening.

The lower house has passed what is termed the Sipes bill placing 16000 pounds as the maximum load to be carried over any township bridge in the state. The owners of traction engines are up in arms against the measure. They say that should the Senate also pass the bill and should it become a law many of them will be compelled to sell their engines and buy smaller ones.

MEN WANTED to work in the woods at Laquin, Pa. Good wages to first class men and nice ground to work on. Call or address, LAQUIN LUMBER CO., Laquin, Pa.

Mrs. Zilphia A. Fleming; wife of John Fleming, of Forksville, died on Tuesday morning, March 12, of pneumonia, at the age of 78 years.

Mrs. Fleming was a woman of more than ordinary intelligence. In her family life exemplified the virtues of the true Christian faith. She is survived by her husband, three sons Isaac R., of Picture Rocks; William, of Grafton, North Dakota; C. Q., of Scranton; and six daughters, Mrs. Charles Nye, of Forksville; Mrs. O. C. Gardner, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Barton Molyneux, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. G. W. Snyder, of Forksville; Mrs. W. F. Randall, of Dushore; and Miss Bertha, at home. The funeral will be held Thursday.

Miss Eva Gavitt of near Sonestown, has returned from the Donalson Sanitarium at Williamsport, after recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

The water in the mountain streams and many wells has been very low the past few weeks but the melting snow of the last few days will avert the scarcity of water being severely felt.

The R. F. D. carriers are feeling pretty good these days over the fact that they are sure to receive a substantial increase in salary beginning July 1, 1907. Carriers of full routes of 24 miles, who now get $720 per year, will receive $900 and the carriers on the shorter routes a proportionate increase. This raise, though less than it should be, will be nearer the amount really earned by these faithful employes of Uncle Sam's postoffice department.

The Sugar Point school of Laporte Township enjoyed a sleigh ride Wednesday evening of last week, chaperoned by their teacher Miss Flora Cook. At 7:30 p. m. a team of horses with sleds and a jovial driver started for the homes of the pupils. As soon as they had been collected the party started for Mr. Small's giving the family a pleasant surprise. After playing games and refreshments having been served, the children started on their return home at ten o'clock. Some pupils were absent because of sickness. Those present were: Iva Hess, Fay Hess, Anna Sharrow, Nellie Hunter, Hattie Traugh, Ruth Traugh, Waldron Sharrow, Harry Hunter, Robert Hunter, Charley Mastellar, John Mastellar, Tracy Mastellar and Stanley May.
