To The Republican Electors of Pennsylvania:

I am directed by the Republican State Committee to announce that the Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives will, in accordance with the provision contained in Section 12 of the Uniform Primary Law (requiring that the State Convention be held not later than one week after the date of the primaries), meet in convention at the Lyceum Theatre in the City of Harrisburg on Tuesday, June 6, 1907, at 10:30 A. M. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the following office, viz:

One person for the office of State Treasurer; and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

In accordance with the rules governing the party, the representation in the State Convention will be based upon the vote polled at the last Presidential election. Under the rules, each legislative district is entitled to one delegate for each two thousand votes cast for Republican Presidential electors in 1904, and an additional delegate for every fraction of two thousand votes polled in excess of one thousand.

By order of State Comm.
