A Hint to Grange Speakers.
Robert J. Burdette, now pastor of a Baptist church in Los Angeles, Cal., and always a humorist, is opposed to the length of the form of service for the presentation of children and says that, as a rule, he thinks that the service should not be longer than the baby. Likewise grange speeches should not be longer than the speaker can make them interesting.

The Question Box.
What is the specific advantage to a grange in becoming an incorporated organization?
The advantage of grange incorporation is that it gives the grange a business standing, allowing it to buy, sell, contract—in fact, do business as an individual. The acts of its purchasing agent are binding on the grange treasury and not on the members. If a purchasing agent of a grange makes a bargain, it may be repudiated by an incorporated grange and he held responsible, but if given authority by an incorporated grange the grange is responsible as far as its treasury goes and no further—that is, there is no individual liability.

The granges of Orange county have organized the Dairyman's league. The object is to dispose of the products of the dairy of its members to the best advantage, to make collections for the same and to promote or defeat legislation affecting the dairy interests. A membership fee of 25 cents per cow is charged, but no subscriptions are binding until the signatures representing 50,000 cows have been secured. The secretaries of subordinate granges are to report to the chairman of the milk committee of the Orange County Pomona grange as to the number of signatures received. The board of managers are to endeavor to contract for the sale of the milk of the local branches at the same time. The grange farmers of Orange county seem to believe that farmers have the same right to unite for mutual protection as has any trade or profession.

The Question Box.
Can a demitted member be received into a new grange as a charter member?
A demitted member can be received as a charter member by paying full fees. A demitted member may visit any grange while in possession of the annual card, but cannot receive the annual card.

Can delegates to the New York state grange be elected at the October meeting of a Pomona grange?
Delegates to state grange must be elected in December except by special dispensation of the state master.

OWL COURTSHIPS
Show a Devotion Rarely Met Among More Favored Creatures.

Very funny it is, from the human point of view, to witness the love-making of a couple of owls on a moonlight night, as they sit together on the coping of an old wall, or on the horizontal limb of some giant of the forest. Perched on the same bough, or the same wall or ruin, the lady owl, though usually much bigger and stronger than her mate looks the picture of demure coyness, if a little excited inwardly, like a girl at her first ball.

But the male owl, says the Pall Mall Magazine, is very much in earnest; for a moment or two he remains quite still, then he puffs out all his feathers, bows, and utters a softened scream, followed by a modified hiss that is full of tender meaning, and then he nudges her with his wing; she opens her big eyes very wide, and gives him a side-long glance that may be a hint, for, horrible to relate, from the depths of his interior he instantly brings up a half-digested mouse; and, although she is full of similar rodents and stag beetles as she can comfortably hold, she opens her mouth and accepts the fragrant gift with a murmur of satisfaction that speaks volumes of love and thanks. Then, when the dainty morsel has been disposed of, they caress each other tenderly for a moment or two, and then sit closely pressed to each other's side while the process of assimilation is perfected, after which they simultaneously flit away into the moonlight on noiseless wing in search of further prey.

Not only do the owls guard each other with a devotion that is rarely met with among more favored creatures, they positively idolize their ill-favored offspring, for whose sake they willingly risk not only liberty, but life. A young owl is not an attractive looking object from our point of view, but in its father's and mother's eyes it is perfection, and the way they wait on it, coddle and caress it, feed it and keep it clean, must be seen to be believed.

Among the Pigmies.
Though it was a dangerous undertaking for the African explorers to travel through the land of the pigmies, there must have been a huge interest in observing the ways of these little beings, who were generally struck speechless at the sight of the white man. Mr. Lloyd, writing in Chambers's Journal, says he was twenty days walking through the great forest inhabited by the pigmies, a forest so dark that in many places it was impossible to read, even at noonday. The pigmies were fairly intelligent, and peacefully disposed, although their arrows were tipped with deadly poison. They had a frightened appearance, and covered their faces, like shy children, when spoken to. The forest was alive with elephants, leopards, wild pigs, buffaloes, and antelopes. After leaving the forest Mr. Lloyd came to one place where he took the opportunity of screwing together the bicycle which he had brought with him. A spin on the machine brought out thousands of men, women and children from their villages, and they danced and yelled with delight at seeing, as they expressed it, a European riding a snake.

Whittier Color Blind.
"Mr. Whittier greatly surprised me by confessing that he was quite color blind," says the Bookman. "He exemplified his condition by saying that if I came to Amesbury I should be scandalized by one of his carpets. It appeared that he was never permitted to be the guardian goddess of his hearth to go 'shopping' for himself, but that once, being in Boston, and needing a carpet, he had ventured to go to a store and buy what he had thought to be a very nice, quiet article, precisely suited to adorn a Quaker home. When it arrived at Amesbury there was a universal shout of horror, for what had struck Mr. Whittier as a particularly soft combination of browns and grays proved, to normal eyes, to be a loud pattern of bright red roses on a field of the crudest cabbage green. When he had told me this, it was then easy to observe that the fulness and brilliancy of his wonderful eyes had something which was not entirely normal about them."

His Bible Verse a Hint.
Hugh Montgomery, whose father owns a large ranch in the fertile San Joaquin Valley, California, went to San Francisco and paid a brief visit at the house of a clerical uncle.
This divine, who is one of the best and most hospitable of men, follows the custom of having prayers before breakfast. In connection with this service each member of the family circle is expected to recite a verse of Scripture. Hugh, who has habitually a very healthy appetite, became decidedly sharp and before the amen was said, when his turn came to recite a verse he significantly repeated the familiar words:
"How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, while I perish of hunger?"
The reverend uncle listened with twinkling eyes and there was a speedy adjournment to a well-spread table.

Birds and Bills.
"There is something wrong with this bill," said the young married man to the milliner who has imported Parisian prices as well as styles.
"It is correct in every item," after looking it over.
"Eight dollars for that bird, no bigger than my hat?"
"Yes, sir, and cheap at that."
"All right, madam, I'll settle, but it's robbery. We had our first anniversary yesterday and I bought a ten pound turkey for $1.25."—Detroit Free Press

Well Qualified.
"Mr. Blankson," said the lawyer, turning to the man who had been drawn as a juror, this is a case in which—by the way, Mr. Blankson, have you ever been a witness before an investigating committee?"
"Yes, sir."
"Well take him, Your Honor. He doesn't know anything about this case—or anything else."—Chicago Tribune.

A Complete Cure.
"O! what did the faith curer cure you?" asked the sceptic.
"Of my faith," said the former devotee.—Boston Herald.

Mrs. Isaac Dunham, a well-known lady of that place, writes: "I cannot praise Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills too much. They did for me what doctors and other medicines could not do. I was troubled with severe disorders of the kidneys and enlargement of the liver. My family doctor treated me the whole of last winter, but did not help me very much, so I gave him up and began using Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. The result was simply wonderful. Let an EXPERT BUGGY MAKER Give you some INSIDE FACTS

Mr. F. L. Shaw, manager of our vehicle interests, bought two buggies from the same house the other day. One cost $18.00 more than the other. Then he took the buggies all apart to see just why one was higher priced than the other. Here is what he found out:

Both buggies had exactly the same seat and back, same size body, same wheels, shafts and everything else, except that the higher priced one had 14-oz. cloth trimmings instead of Keratol, found in the cheaper; a leather boot, instead of rubber; a better axle, and the finish on the woodwork was slightly better, but not very much.

Read the difference—and learn how easily price can be raised without changing the grade, in a buggy.

SIDE BY SIDE:
Difference in Cost $3.80. Difference in Price to You $18.00.

On their Cheap Buggy	On the Best They Make
Seat and back (see illustrations).	Same.
Body 23 inches wide, 54 inches long.	Same.
Malleable 5th wheel without anti-rattle.	Same.
Malleable head block (considered poor).	Same.
Malleable Bailey Loop (cheapest made).	Same.
Common reaches.	Same.
Steel sockets.	Same.
Hickory and elm wheels (low grade).	Same.
Common axle.	Long distance.
Wheels painted by dipping.	Same.
6-oz. head lining in top.	Same.
Shafts, (cheap grade).	Same.
Keratol trimmings.	14 oz. cloth.
Rubber boot.	Leather Boot.
Leather quarter top.	Same.
Finish, cheap.	Slightly better.

What do they give for the $18.00 difference in price? The actual difference in cost, to the buggy maker, did not exceed $3.80, yet one buggy costs you $18.00 more than the other.

Now, either the factory making and selling these buggies to the house Mr. Shaw bought from, was fooling the house, or the house was fooling you. In either case, you were paying $18.00 for $3.80 worth.

We tell you these things because we believe in a square deal!

There isn't one purchaser of a buggy in a hundred—no, nor in a thousand—who can tell of his own knowledge the cause for the difference in prices between one buggy and another.

We make our own buggies.
We are the only general merchandising concern in the world that does.
The prices to you on our different buggies are based on the manufacturing costs.
We make the same small percentage of profit on a $70.00 rig that we do on a $40.00 outfit, and you get full value for every dollar you pay.
The difference in our buggies is not merely in the price. It's in the quality.
If you are a judge of buggy values we ask you to compare our vehicles with any make you know of, price for price.
If you are not an expert judge of buggy values, you are safe to order from us, for we give honest value for every dollar you spend. And we guarantee your satisfaction.
The thousands who have purchased vehicles of us write us of their perfect satisfaction and of $10.00 to $50.00 saved on each one.

Our New Vehicle Catalogue tells the truth without exaggeration. It describes in detail just the rig you want. Safe rig, safe price, safe house to deal with. Let us send you this vehicle catalogue, free. Remember, Mr. F. L. Shaw, an expert vehicle man, looks after your interest.
