Mr. John Flemming of Forks-ville, was found dead in his bed last Thursday morning, death having summoned silently, and claimed him without a struggle as he lay asleep. He retired Wednesday evening in his usual health, and heart failure was the cause of his sudden death. Mr. Flemming was a resident of Forks-ville for many years where he was one of the most honored citizens. He was influential in the local affairs of his home town and was always ready to lend a helping hand wherever needed. He is survived by three sons and six daughters, his wife having died about six months ago. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. A. J. Bradley and daughter Edna are spending their vacation at the Lawrence cottage near Eagles Mere. This cottage is about one mile from the Lake and stands on the site formerly occupied by Edward Ives' saw mill and lumber camp. The camp has been enlarged and remodeled until it is now a modern cottage containing eight bed rooms, bath room, living room, dining room, kitchen and pantry. The surrounding grounds have been greatly improved, and what was formerly the mill pond is now a pretty, miniature lake, suitable for boating and bathing. The families of William Lawrence of Kane, Charles Lawrence of Dushore, and Orville Lawrence of Waverly, are spending the summer at this ideal place.

Richard Madeley, of Philadelphia a young man who is spending the summer with his mother and sister at Eagles Mere had a narrow escape from serious injury at the Eagles Mere railroad station Saturday night. He came over on the train from Eagles Mere Park. The train stopped above the station in order that the baggage might be loaded and then moved on to pick up the passengers. He did so young Madeley attempted to jump out on the freight platform, but missed it falling between the platform and the train. Presence of mind saved him. His feet lay across the rail, but before the wheels could reach them he drew them deftly back and escaped with out a scratch.

Dr. Alexander Torry, the world renowned evangelist will be in Montrose the last week in August with a view to establish a Bible conference and making that town his summer home.

Mrs. R. H. Ayres and her niece Miss Margaret Ayres of Middletown, N. Y., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. F. W. Meylert.

Oklahoma will come into the Union with the most drastic prohibition law ever embodied in a constitution for the government of men. It prohibits not only the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, but does not allow them brought into the state. Oklahoma's interests are almost entirely agricultural, its citizens are mostly farmers, and it is greatly to their credit that they have decided to begin their career under an organic law that refuses to recognize the "divine right" of the hitherto potential despot known as King Alcohol.

The new Eagles Mere Methodist Episcopal Church will be dedicated Sunday August 11th, 1907. Rev. Robert Forbes D. D., of Philadelphia, and Rev. C. C. McLean, D. D., of Dixon, Ill., will be among the prominent speakers. Sermons at 10:00 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.
