Prothonotary Thos. E. Kennedy came up town unusually early Monday morning his face aglow with "that smile that won't come off." He was inquiring for the census taker, stating that the population of our town had been increased. The mother and daughter are doing nicely.

The Commercial Hotel at this place narrowly escaped from being destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon which originated in one of the bedrooms of the house.

The sounding of the Court House bell brought out a large bucket fire brigade and notwithstanding the poor organization of the company, very efficient work was accomplished.

The entire bedding in one room was consumed and the fire had spread to the ceiling and one partition near the bed that had mysteriously caught fire by the time the alarm was given. Fortunately the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. The furniture was considerably damaged by being carried out into the street by excited and careless persons who were of the opinion that the fire was beyond control.

The insurance adjuster has not yet reported the extent of the damage.

"Thou Shalt Not Steal."
The following is clipped from a paper giving a report of a meeting of the Democratic State Committee, held at Harrisburg July 17, 1907:
"At the suggestion of W. S. Brennen, of Allagoney, the chairman will fix a day in August when in every town in the state a meeting will be held at which there will be addresses by speakers on the text 'Thou shalt not steal' with reference to the new Capitol disclosures."

This is a new departure for the modern saints of democracy. It would indicate that they have just become acquainted the Eighth Commandment. When the democrats starts out as evangelists, to condemn every one but themselves, and assert their own purity and political self righteousness, they should not forget that other Commandment: "Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbor," and also that there is another biblical injunction, proclaimed by Him who spoke as one having authority when on earth which is, "Judge not that ye be not judged."

Have our democratic friends, who as a party have not changed their ways, forgotten when Howell Cobb, Secretary of the Treasury, and John Buchanan Floyd, Secretary of War under the administration of James Buchanan, how they plotted treason against the government and depleted the treasury of the United States of $50,000, robbed the arsenals of their arms and amunitions of war, shipped them into the South, and scattered the army and what little navy we had to the four corners of the earth and then joined in open rebellion against the government and tried to destroy it?

Have those modern saints forgotten the balmy days of the Canal Commission in this State, when everything was controlled by the democratic party and the real estate of the farmer and mechanic taxed for state purposes, and the political atmosphere was rank with the alleged graft in state administration and that of the public works?

Have they forgotten the remarkable exposure of Tamany Hall, New York, under the regime of Boss Tweed, a democratic organization that controlled the city and state, and was also shown to be an organization that fattened and grew rich upon graft, plunder and organized theft?

Have our modern democratic saints ever been known to shout in the case of Cobb and Floyd, and that of Tamany Hall, "Thou shalt not steal?" Oh, no! We presume that at that time they were ignorant of the existence of the Eighth Commandment. On the contrary, they have always justified and defended the actions of Cobb and Floyd and Tamany Hall, and have never apologized for such notorious actions perpetrated by democratic leaders and democratic organizations.

Surely, when the democratic evangelists bombard every town in the state in the midst of dog days, they should not overlook the latter injunction, "Judge not, that ye may not be judged," and the commandment, "Bear not false witness against thy neighbor."

The republican party and those in authority are neither defending nor apologizing for the Huston and Sandersons, or any one else who apparently conspired to defraud the state. A Republican Legislature appointed a commissioner to investigate the frauds and make ample appropriation to enable the committee to ferret out the wrong and guilty parties. A Republican Governor is pledged to leave no guilty man escape, and he keeps his pledges. No prominent or influential republican who is efficient and active in the organization or who aids in shaping its politics, has thus far been tainted with graft. The Hustons and Sandersons were not active republicans but a few years ago were proclaiming their self-political righteousness and doing what they could to aid the "Thou shalt not steal" democrats into power.

Our candidate for state treasurer, Hon. John O. Sheatz, is a most capable, honest and upright man. He has been tried in public life and has been in the limelight, and has stood the test with honor and integrity. No republican should allow himself to be duped or deceived into voting the democratic slogan "Thou shalt not steal," and thus on the eve of presidential election do that which would be a reflection upon President Roosevelt's administration and would be heralded as the repudiation of the candidacy of Senator Knox as Pennsylvania's choice for the presidency. "Let him that is without sin first cast the stone."

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA—DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH.
Harrisburg, Pa., July 25, 1907.
ADDITIONAL RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE REPORT OF COMMUNICABLE DISEASES.

In order to carry out the provisions of the Act of Assembly of April twenty-seven one thousand nine hundred and five, entitled, "An Act creating a department of Health and defining its powers and duties," the Department of Health of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has adopted the following additional Rules and Regulations governing the control of Communicable Diseases.

RESOLVED: That Section I of the Rules and Regulations as published in Circular No. 1 which reads as follows:

"All physicians practicing within the limits of the State shall make an immediate report of every case occurring in their practice of the diseases hereinafter specified, if occurring in a city or borough, to the Secretary of the Board of Health of such city or borough, and if occurring within the limits of a township, to the County Medical Inspector of the county in which said township may be located, and also to the Department of Health at Harrisburg," be amended to read as follows:

RESOLVED: That physicians or others in charge of hospitals situate in the respective townships outside of cities and boroughs shall report cases of the diseases hereinafter specified received from cities and boroughs to the respective local health authorities of the cities and boroughs from which the cases are taken, daily, provided that where such city or borough has no Board of Health, Bureau of Health or Sanitary Committee, the report of such cases shall be made directly to the Department of Health, and shall report all such cases received from the townships outside of cities and boroughs to the State Department of Health at Harrisburg at the end of each week.

RESOLVED: That when none of the diseases hereinafter enumerated occurs in a city or borough during any calendar month, a report of this fact shall be made by the Secretary of the Board or Bureau of Health or Sanitary Committee at the end of such month to the Department of Health at Harrisburg on the report cards supplied for this purpose.
