The Church of Christ, of Diamond street, Newberry, has a novel plan to raise funds in building its new church edifice, which is now well under way. It is being constructed of cement blocks and the cement blocks are being offered for sale at a half dollar each, the purchaser thus becoming a share holder in the church. It is hoped to have the Newberry church ready for occupancy in the course of about two months.

The Pennsylvania State Liquor Dealers' association has decided to allow each county organization to make its own fight against local option at home. No state fight will be made, but by means of county locals, which are to be strengthened the war will be concentrated upon legislative candidates.

State Pomologist J. H. Funk of Boyertown, who always sprays his trees when nobody else does, is ready to pick 3000 bushels of apples and 200 bushels of pears. The former he will put in cold storage, for $8 or $9 a barrel next spring, though he could get $4 now.

Now that the hunting season has opened it will be well for the sportsman to remember the trespass law and not tramp over the fields or through the woods where notices are posted. The farmer must also remember that trespass notices must be conspicuously posted so the hunter will have no excuse for not seeing them.

Alaska will soon have a new industry, the mining of garnets, and it is the expectation of the management of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, which will be held at Seattle in 1909, that will be not only a full and inclusive exhibit of Alaska garnets but also to have representation of the mine from which the garnets are taken. The capitalists interested in the new mining company are women. No man has any part in the management. It is the intention of the company to work soon on a large scale.

YOUNG MEN ENLIST

Enthusiastic Recruits Among Hosts of Republicanism.

NATIONAL FIGHT COMING

Contest at the Pennsylvania Election This Fall Regarded as Skirmish of the Great Presidential Battle of Next Year.

[Special Correspondence.] Harrisburg, Sept. 24.

A significant feature of the gathering of Republican clubmen in this city this week is the presence of so many young Republicans, many of them to be first voters at the coming election. The activity of young men in the ranks of the State League of Republican clubs in this campaign has been the subject of general comment, and the party leaders who have been fighting the battles of Republicanism for years are elated over the accession of so many enthusiastic recruits.

The popularity of the nominee for state treasurer, the fact that he is himself a staunch member of the State League of Clubs, and that his candidacy typifies the desires of the men who seek to advance the cause of Republicanism's highest ideals, may, in a measure, account for the gratifying interest taken in the present state campaign by the young men, both of the cities and the counties of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Sheatz's career in public life is calculated to inspire the youth of this commonwealth.

The story of his labors as a lad in the great Baldwin Locomotive works in Philadelphia and his subsequent success as a business man, his nomination for the state legislature in an independent district in the Quaker city his splendid record as a lawmaker at Harrisburg, which led to his nomination by the Republican state convention by a unanimous vote for the office of state treasurer, has been studied by the young Republicans of Pennsylvania, who have enlisted in the campaign to bring about his election by an unprecedented majority for an off year in November next.

Presidential Battle Coming.

The fact that next year will be presidential year may also account for the interest taken in the Republican party organization this fall by the younger element.

Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state committee, reports that the chairmen of the several county committees find that great interest is being taken in national politics this year, and that every one is looking forward to the coming Republican convention.

Pennsylvania will have 68 votes in that national gathering, the largest delegation, save one, that will sit in the convention, and the voice of Pennsylvania, as in the past, it is predicted, will again be potential in the national councils of the party.

In order that Pennsylvania shall maintain her proud place as the keystone of the Republican national arch, it is recognized by the young men who have rallied to the party colors in the present campaign that the vote at the coming election must show a pronounced Republican majority.

It is true that the opposition is demoralized, and is without an issue. The danger to the Republican forces lies in over confidence and the apathy that frequently follows the absence of an aggressive opposition.

The Capitol Grafting Issue.

Nominee for treasurer, Mr. Sheatz, has reason to be proud of the ovation given him here this week by the clubmen gathered from every section of the state. While in this city, Mr. Sheatz had several conferences with Governor Stuart. They talked over the state capitol graft cases. It is recognized that the Democrats lost their only issue when Attorney General Todd proceeded against the men who were named in the report of the legislative probers as responsible for the looting of the state treasury through irregularities attending the construction of the capitol.

With the knowledge that the pledges of the Republican party are being fulfilled, and that after the thorough probing of the capitol job, the Republican state administration is proceeding to prosecute all who had a hand in the affair, the Democrats are absolutely deprived of an opportunity to play the capitol scandal to advance their political interests.
