Nominee For Treasurer Has Made a Hit With the People.

CHAMPION OF THE SCHOOLS

Generally Commended For Successful Advocacy of An Additional Four Million Dollars For the Cause of Education.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Ct. 29. John O. Sheatz, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, is about winding up a tour of the state in which he has scored at every place he has

He has shown himself to be a voteer. While he has none of the of the trained orator with which getter. to electrify an audience, he possesses to a remarkable degree an ability to impress everyone who hears him with his absolute sincerity of purpose and courage to carry out every pledge he has made.

Is made, the all the charges indulged dring the previous campaign diag favoritism shown finan-institutions that have gone, the bond of the state treasurer, during ree form of heavy deposits of state gratification a declaration from Sheatz upon this subject.

id Mr. Sheatz:

"As a place of information to the people of Pennsylvania, I wish to say that if I am elected treasto say that if I am elected treas-uper of this great state, when the time comes for me to file my bond for $500,000, I shall pay for it out of my own pocket, and not permit an obliging president of a trust company to arrange my security for me, thereby placing myself under obligation to that trust company to have $60,000 or $70,000 of the state's money constantly on deposit in that particular institution. I shall keep myself just as free from the dictations of the money owers as I am of the political powers

Mr. Sheatz's attitude in this matter has called forth expressions of hearty approval from every quarter. His candidacy is accepted as a guarantee that the office of state treasurer will be conducted upon the highest possiplane. With Edwin S. Stuart in governor's chair and John O. ble pinne. as state treasurer, the people of Pennsylvania will have reason to be proud of the Republican party's administration of its affairs.

Champion of Public Schools. Probably no other act in the official career of Mr. Sheatz contributed more to his popularity than his advocacy of increased appropriations to the pub-lic schools. As chairman of the ap-propriation committee of the house of representatives, Mr. Sheatz made a valient and successful fight in favor of raising the already large sums ap-propriated to education, and in his visits to the various counties in his nt tour Mr. Sheatz has been com ited upon the result of his labors Harrisburg in this direction.

The Republican party of Pennsylva-nia has a grand record in its fostering and protecting influence in the cause so that in such cases it is not necessary to apply any of the money received from local taxation. "I want to see the day." said Mr. Sheatz a few nights ago, "when the state will provide every penny of the money needed for educational pur-poses. The aim of the Republican party has been in that direction, and i-know that the continued success of Republicanism in Pennsylvania means the accomplishment of that end. the accomplishment of that end. "I shall certainly continue to do all in my power to have ample money ap-propriated to place the public schools of our state upon a solid and practical basis in every county of the state."

"GET OUT THE VOTE"

The Veteran"Uncle Tom"Cooper Calls Upon "the Old Guard."

WARNING TO WORKERS

Governor Stuart Pays Another High Tribute to the Republican Nominco Per State Treasurer, John O. Sheatz.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Oct. 13. "Uncle Tom" Cooper, the sage of "Uncle Tem" Cooper, the same et Media, and for many years the Re-publican field marshal of the Key-stone state, has issued a call to arms for the "Old Guard" of Penpsylvania Republicanism to come out and vote for John O. Sheats, the nominee for state trensurer at the approaching election. election.

For nearly 10 years "Uncle Tom" was at the head of the Republican state committee. He has gone through many a political campaign, and whether in victory or defeat, he always bobs up smilling and ready to go at his old-time foe, the Democracy, with all the vehemence and ardor of his nature.

"John O. Sheats is going to be electform of heavy deposits of state and security against unexpected rawals of such moneys, the of Pennsylvania must receive retification a declaration from heatz upon this subject. A Popular Piedge. I Mr. Sheatz: 'S a piece of information to people of Pennsylvania, I wish a the secure of the secure legislature and know his character and his work. I also know that he is a typical Pennsylvanian and that he will allow nothing to interfere with a faithful and conscientious perform-ance of his official duties. No ene could get him to vote for a bill in the legislature that he did not believe was in the interest of the people. I know the influences that were brought to bear upon him to do otherwise, and I was there when he boldly, time and again, voted 'NO' when the roll was called upon such measures. We want a typical Pennsylvanian and that he called upon such measures. We want men of that stripe in the office of state tressurer.

Warning to Party Men. "There is just a word I have to say to the men in the party organization in the various counties of the state. Do not be fooled. The Democrats are wide-awake and are going to get out their vote. The independent movements have gone to emash, but the old-time Democratic enemy is still doing business at the old stand and will be at he polls on election day. No one, of course, looks for Mr. Sheatz's defeat, but it it just such conditions as exist today that have cost the Republican party dearly in the cost. The Republican vote must the mest. The Republican vote must be got to the polls. "Taking it for granted that 'every-thing is all right' has been the undo-ing of many a party leader. What we want at the coming election is the greatest possible percentage of the vote put into the ballot boxes, and then we will be able to celebrate a victory of which every Republican can be proud, and which will put the party in this state in full strength upon the firing line for the presiden-tial battle of next year. duct the office of state treasurer with credit fo himself and honor to the Republican party, and I do not hesistate to say with entire matisfaction to the people of Pennaylvania, there is no reason why any citizen should hesitate to cast his vote for Mr. Sheatz." Candidate Sheatz has had a series

Candidate Sheatz has had a series of ovations since le started out upon the stump. In Bradford, Kane and Indiana, where he went prior to his visit to Pittsburg on Saturday last, he was met by great crowds and was assured of loyal support. Mr. Sheatz is not a professional erator. He is a plain, matter-of-fact talker, but he never fails to impress his audience with his sincerity of purpose and with his determination to meet every phigation of the trust which is surely to be imposed in him by the people.

can party, an amount many times larger than that appropriated for like purposes by any state in the Union public school purposes.

The appropriation for the years 1887-88 was $2,000,000; for 1889-90 it was $4,000,000, and for each two years from that time until this year, with one exception, the appropriation was $11,000,-000, the exception being in 1902-01, when the amount was $10,000.000.

When the legislature met this year Sheatz was among the potential factors in a movement to provide even more liberally for the schools, and with the hearty co-operation of the influential leaders of the Republican party this agliation was a fruitful one. The sum of $4,000,000 was added to the state school fund, raising the grand toto the unprecedented appropriation of $15,000,000 for the next two years this amount does not include the $6, 500,000 specially set aside for school purposes from the local taxes collected in the day of Philadelphia, nor the large amounts raised locally in other counties.

The money included in the state appropriation to the schools is allotted to the different counties in proportion to the number of children of school age, each county receiving its pro rata share. In nearly all of the countles the amount received from the state has proved amply sufficient to meet all of the requirements of the public schools.

The governor was intensely gratified when Mr. Sheats received the nomination, and he was quick to give a cordial indorsement of the action of the ce avention.

Governor Stuart's Advice. The governor is just now busy with his attorney general in preparing the state capitol cases for trial. He does not neglect, however, upon any proper occasion, to urge the election of Mr. Sheatz.

While his official duties would not permit him to attend the great Repub-lican rally in Pittsburg on Saturday evening last, Governor Stuart sent a ringing letter, which was read at the meeting, advocating the election of the Republican nominee for state treasurer.

In this letter, Governor Stuart, among other things, said:

"I regret that an important time ago, which I am unable to postpone, will prevent me from accepting your kind invitation. I assure you that nothing would give me greater pleasure than to come to Pittaburg and speak to the people of Allegheny county in favor of the election of John O. Sheatz, Republican candidate state treasurer. I have known him for upwards of 20 years. He has served the state faithfully as a member of the legislature, is absolutely incorruptible. and will con
