County Seat
Local and Personal Events
Tersely Told.

The Ladies V. I. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. Mead Tuesday evening November 26th.

Towanda is soon to have another silk mill.

Mrs. T. F. Ripple is suffering from an attack of grip.

Mrs. W. H. Randall visited Williamsport relatives last week.

F. M. Crossley was confined to his home by illness the forepart of the week.

C. L. Shipman of near Hughesville, this fall shipped 8000 bushels of apples to the city markets.

Milton Botsford of Nordmont was transacting business in town Wednesday.

A young man of Potter county has captured four bears this season, one of them being taken alive from a trap. He offers to sell the live one if he can find a buyer. This is a chance for some one to secure a nice household pet.

J. P. Swoope, the famous Huntingdon county trapper, during October killed 85 foxes, 9 wild cats, 8 minks, 158 weasels and 122 pole cats, making a total of 382 animals. The bounty on these animals amounted to nearly $150.

Mrs. Joe Carpenter of English Center, is visiting Laporte friends. Mr. Carpenter spent the fore part of the week with old friends.

A number of our town people took advantage of the excursion to Hughesville, Wednesday evening to see the Royal Gypsy company. This was the first entertainment of this season's Star Course, and was pronounced a splendid entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bradley attended the funeral of the latter's aunt, Mrs. Dieffenbach, at Dushore last Thursday.

Mr. Alfred Hunsinger and Mrs. Barbara Seltzer, both of Colley township, were united in marriage November 14, 1907, at the United Evangelical parsonage, Dushore, by Rev. J. F. Hower.

A. Lincoln Kirk of Port Jervis, New York will give his famous monologue entertainment in the Court House at Laporte on Monday evening, December 9th., 1907.

This excellent entertainment is under the auspices of the Laporte Borough, Schools and is for the purpose of equipping the new school house. All are cordially invited to attend. Adults 25 cents. Children 15 cents.

The liquor house of the Nordmont acid plant was destroyed by fire early last week. The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have originated from a live electric wire. There was about $3,000 worth of alcohol burned partly covered by insurance.

Rev. P. H. Hoover, for the past eight years pastor of the Reformed church at Dushore, has tendered his resignation to take place in December. Both Rev. and Mrs. Hoover have been doing good work in the County Sunday School Association. Mr. Hoover has accepted a call to Blain, Perry county.

"The City of Promise," the new name given Towanda, is being recognized by the newspapers throughout Central and Northern Pennsylvania. Now when they refer to Towanda, they write it—Towanda, "The City of Promise."

Arthur Hickey of Laquin, and Miss Lillie M. Kunzman of Eldredsville, were married November 7, at Towanda, by the Rev. O. A. Houghton, pastor of the Methodist church of the latter place.

Joseph Fulmer a highly respected citizen of Muncy, died November 14, of dropsy. He was 67 years of age. He leaves a wife and four children—Thomas of Pennsdale, Otto of Dushore, Mrs. Enoch Eaveson of Sunbury, and Joseph of Elgin, Ill.

A seven-year-old boy of Bloomsburg while trying to help an older boy to harness a horse had an exciting experience. The horse, a vicious one, grabbed the little fellow by his clothing and tossed him violently up, then down, then trampled him under with its hoofs. Deep gashes were cut in the little fellow's head and some of his blood vessels ruptured.

Christian Snyder of Forksylvle transacted business at LaPorte Saturday. Mr. Snyder will soon leave this county for California.

Last week the town council of Bloomsburg decided on a curfew law for that town, and an ordinance will be framed. Representatives of the W. C. T. U. and the pastors' union strongly presented the need of such a law in that town.

From up in New York state come dispatches telling how the farmers are paying off their mortgages with their apple crop. It is estimated that nearly three hundred thousand barrels of apples were raised in Genesee county alone, and the crop was worth $1,000,000. This is about $28 for every man woman and child in the county. The report may be somewhat exaggerated, but the middle Atlantic states seem to be especially favored this year with apples, while the rest of the country has little or nothing in the fruit line.

Apples are a standard crop and there is always use for them, whether the price is high or low. Of course the price is affected by the supply of other fruit, but the farmer makes no mistake in planting apple trees.

Once planted, he certainly makes no mistake in giving them the very best care, so that the fruit may be as near perfection as possible. While the general run of fruit sold in bulk this year at from $1 to $1.50 per one hundred pounds, No 1 Baldwins, carefully barreled, were worth from $3.50 to $4 per barrel. That statement is eloquent of the value of care in fruit growing and packing.

F. Gardner, a Pennsylvania railroad engine dispatcher, was married to Miss Lillie Gardner on March 22 last. They separated in June, and in September Gardner applied for a divorce, which was granted on November 2nd.

November 12 he took out a license to marry Miss Laura Garman and November 13 they were wedded. Twice married in less than six months is going some.

Judge Bell, of Blair county, recently declared that wedding serenades are a species of riots, and that householders have a right to use force to drive serenades off their premises. This is the first judicial expression as to the annoyance which newly married persons have to contend with at the hands of their fool friends, and it is hoped that Judge Bell's declaration will be followed by the physical punishment of these idiots who imagine that they have a right to serenade wedded couples.
