At a meeting held at Wilkesbarre last week, Milton E. Reeder, formerly of this place, was elected treasurer of the Pennsylvania State Dairymen's association. The report comes from Laquin that a teamster named Charles Brennan, met with a serious accident while bringing a trail of logs down the mountain. The logs getting the start of him, he was caught between two, causing a compound fracture of both legs, the right leg being so badly mangled that amputation will probably be necessary. He was sent to the Sayre Hospital on the afternoon train.

Later.—Mr. Brennan died Saturday from shock and loss of blood.

The establishing of a separate school for colored children with an instructor of their own race, at Williamsport, is causing intense feeling toward the white population of that city. However, some of the more sensible of the colored citizens foresee the benefits that will be derived by their children in a school set apart for their own race, and commend the school board on their action.

News from Alaska is cheerful. In the Tannaua River valley wages for unskilled labor run from $5.00 to $7.00 per day and board. Men at odd jobs easily get a dollar an hour. Skilled labor is paid proportionately higher. A man who is willing to work and endure the hardships of the country find no trouble in rolling up $10 a week and his board. But, before you go, investigate these hardships.

Falling a distance of fifty feet and escaping with slight injuries was the experience of Christian Hummel, while engaged in painting one of the stacks at the car foundry, at Berwick. Hummel was drawing himself to the top of a stack and a hook pulled out, precipitating him to the ground. An ugly gash in the head, where he struck the brick foundation of the stack, was apparently the only injury received.

Unusual justice was meted out to three boys in the Elmira police court last Friday for disturbing the Sunday services at one of the city churches by throwing snowballs into the church. By arrangement of the attorneys for both sides, the boys, aged 13, 14 and 16 were soundly flogged by their parents before the attorneys and interested church people. Then the complaints in the case were withdrawn.

The golden rule plan for dispensing justice has been adopted by Judge Austin, of the police court of Toledo. Over the bench he has placed the motto, "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you." He has also placed appropriate and inspiring mottoes on the wall of the court room, his idea being that these will have a quieting influence on the prisoners, attorneys and jurors.

The advantage of hot water taken inwardly is well known, but not every one knows that it has been found valuable in fighting the grip. A famous doctor, noted for the speedy cure of his grip patients, says that he attributes his success to the fact that he always puts his patients to bed at the first sign of the disease and makes them drink quantities of hot water. This should be taken at intervals of every two hours, and as hot as can be drunk without burning the tongue and throat.
