FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE
Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

County Seat
Local and Personal Events Tersely Told.

Supt. J. E. R. Kilgore visited our borough schools Wednesday.
Mrs. John Plotts of Forksville, on Saturday suffered a stroke of paralysis.
Miss Fannie Meylert, whose serious illness was mentioned last week, is improving at this time.
Ex-Sheriff Cott and son Clarence spent several days in town this week.
Columbia county has 33 prisoners in the Eastern penitentiary and with the exception of about a dozen, all are for foreigners.

Mr. Lyman Porter Shoemaker and Miss Helen M. Fields, of Canton, were married Wednesday, February 12, at the home of the bride's parents at that place.
Frank B. Glidewell, of Forks-ville, died on Thursday of last week after three day's illness during which time he was unconscious.
He was aged 62 years, and is survived by a widow.

Hon F. P. Vincent of Philadelphia was shaking hands with old time friends at the county seat Monday.
"Fred" as he is more familiarly known in this neck o'woods is always a welcome visitor at the county capitol, where in former years he figured conspicuously as County chairman in Republican conventions.

Mr. James Pleasant stopped in town Monday on his way to McCartneys mill where he supplies energy to the steam boiler. James is a good steam maker as he evidently does not require a boiler and saw dust to get up a pleasant head of steam when out for a good time.

At the home of Lew Zaner in Cherry township, the local grangers held an old time country social on the evening of February 12. There were 56 of the Grange members present and a most enjoyable time was spent. The event was not held for a source of revenue, but for social pleasure only and the object of the gathering was more than realized and pronounced a grand success.

Good law abiding citizens like to see others confining themselves within the limits that make us all good citizens. The following gentlemen while at court Monday made themselves qualified paid up subscribers to meet the postal regulation requirements:

Charles E. Perry, Perry Fanning, Val Rohey, W. C. Graiffley, Otis F.
Yonkin, Max Frankel, H. K. Dewar, and Joseph Traugh.

Sheriff Brown and Lee Feather-by, on Thursday conveyed Malchisa Swingle to the asylum for the insane at Danville. Swingle had been a prisoner in the county jail since the holidays and at the recent session of court was adjudged insane.

The Rev. Thos. S. Wilcox, D.
D. of Williamsport, preached an inspiring sermon to a large congregation Tuesday evening, at the M. E. church, many being present from Eagles Mere and Nordmont.
After the sermon the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered to a large number of communicants. Three persons were baptized, and Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Eddy, Mrs. John Fitz, Harry Rose and Howard Hess were received into membership of the church.

Sunday School, 11:00 A. M. Preaching at 7:00. P. M. Subject, "False excuses." Epworth League 7:45 P.
M. This is the order of services at The Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday.

The Village Improvement Society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. L.
Smyth on Tuesday evening February 25, at this meeting arrangements are to be made for the Social on February 28. All members are requested to be present.

Kentucky, following the example of her progressive sister states of the north, has organized a grange with the charter list composed largely of the faculty and students of its ag-cultural college at Lexington. The experiment station corps of experts is also represented in the charter list of seventy-five.

A Bargain.
Ho—Miss Hunt, I love you, but now I dare not dream of calling you mine.
Yesterday I was worth $10,000, but today, by a turn of fortune's wheel, I have but a few paltry hundreds to call my own. I would not ask you to accept me in my reduced state. Farewell forever!
She (tearfully)—Good gracious! Reduced from $10,000 to $100! What a bargain! Of course I'll take you. You might have known I couldn't resist—Magazine.

A Hint to Grange Speakers.
Robert J. Burdette, now pastor of a Baptist church in Los Angeles, Cal., and always a humorist, is opposed to the length of the form of service for the presentation of children and says that, as a rule, he thinks that the service should not be longer than the baby.
Likewise grange speeches should not be longer than the speaker can make them interesting.

The Question Box.
What is the specific advantage to a grange in becoming an incorporated organization?
The advantage of grange incorporation is that it gives the grange a business standing, allowing it to buy, sell, contract—in fact, do business as an individual. The acts of its purchasing agent are binding on the grange treasury and not on the members. If a purchasing agent of a grange makes a bargain, it may be repudiated by an incorporated grange and he held responsible, but if given authority by an incorporated grange the grange is responsible as far as its treasury goes and no further—that is, there is no individual liability.
