Three sled loads of young people, one from Eagles Mere, one from Lopez and one from Estella drove to Laporte Friday to attend the social at the school house. The party from Estella were entertained at the home of Mrs. T. J. Keeler, before returning to their homes. The social was a success in every way, the children coming in for a large share of credit for their enthusiasm in their part of the work. Those in charge of the tables at which fancy articles were sold, were as persistent in making sales as any one with years of experience behind the counter.
Refreshments, dainty and also substantial, were served by the ladies of the V. I. S. About $30 was realized for which teachers and pupils heartily thank the people.

To the Village Improvement Society,
Laporte, Pa.

Ladies:—We wish to express our most sincere thanks to you for the help you gave on Friday evening at the social. We feel you had an interest as an improvement Society, beside a personal one and we thank you all personally for the co-operation in our task.
We find it has been a success and we owe it to both your help and that of our patrons.
We are,
very gratefully yours,
E. Jessie Wrede,
Carl O. Bird.

Billy Jones wrote on the blackboard: Billy Jones can hug the girls better than any boy in the school." The teacher seeing it called him up. "William did you write that?" she said. Billy stayed after school. The children waited for him to come out when they began to guff him. "Got a lickin didn't you?" "No" said Bill "Get jawed?" "No" "What did she do?" they asked. "Shant tell" said Bill, "but it pays to advertise."—Monroeton Enterprise.

A Vacation.
A certain scientist in the service of Uncle Sam at Washington is said to be a hard taskmaster to both his official and his domestic servants.
Being detailed once to accompany a scientific expedition on an extended cruise, the scientist is said to have unbent a trifle in communicating the news to his personal attendant.
"Henry," said he, "how would you like to go with me around the world?"
"Do we go from east to west, sir?" asked the man.
"Yes."
"And we lose a day going that way, do we not, sir?"
"We do."
"Then, sir, I should like very much to go. It would give me a day off."—Harper's Weekly.

One Gift She Missed.
Six-year-old Harry wanted to buy his sister a little birthday present. His heart throbbled with joy at the thought, though he had in his pocket only 10 cents. Nevertheless a week ahead of time he went around the shops and came back with a very satisfied look. His mother asked him what he had bought.
"I got her a cream puff," he said.
"Well, you know, Harry," said his mother, "that won't keep fresh for a week."
"That's what I thought after I bought it, mother," replied Harry calmly, "and so I ate it."—Ladies' Home Journal.

How Fast He Could Go.
A breeder and trainer of race horses who is known almost as well in England as he is here recently sold a horse to an Englishman. The Englishman before paying for the horse quibbled a bit about the price and then said:
"You know, I'd like to see the horse first just to see how fast he can go."
"Never mind about that," said the trainer. "He can't go any faster than I can tell it."—New York Sun.

Family Secret.
"That's papa's picture," explained the little girl to the caller who was looking at a framed photograph on the piano. "You wouldn't know it unless I told you 'cause it's got a smile on the face."—Chicago Tribune.

Dodging the Water.
Constable—Come along. You've got to have a bath. Tramp—A bath? What, why water? Constable—Yes, of course. Tramp—Couldn't you manage it wiv one of them vacuum cleaners?—London Tit-Bits.

It is the common wonder of all men how among so many million of faces there should be none alike.—Brownie.

DR. S. D. BLAND
"I had been a sufferer for a number of years with Lumbago and Rheumatism in my arms and legs, and tried all the remedies that I could gather from medical works, and also consulted with a number of the best physicians, but found nothing that gave the relief obtained from 'S-DROPS'. I shall prescribe it in my practice for rheumatism and kindred diseases."

DR. C. L. GATES
Hancock, Minn., writes:
"A little girl here had such a crick back caused by Rheumatism and Kidney trouble that she could not stand on her feet. The moment they put her down on the floor she would scream with pain. I treated her with 'S-DROPS' and today she runs around as well and happy as can be. I prescribe 'S-DROPS' for my patients and use it in my practice."
