W. P. Shoemaker was re-elected as County Chairman, F. H. Ingham as Secretary and Joseph C. Pennington Treasurer.

For delegate to the State Convention, M. W. Botsford of Nordmont was chosen with George Brown from Lopez as alternate.

The committee after thoroughly considering the political situation at this time, the different candidates and localities represented, decided to recommend to the Republicans of Sullivan County, the following persons as candidates.

For member of Assembly, Lewis Zaner of Cherry Township; For County Treasurer, William A. Gumble of Hills Grove Township; For County Commissioners, F. W. Peal, of Eagles Mere and Frank McCarty of Elkland Township.

The Wellsboro Gazette says: The local reporter of the North American in commenting on a note in a recent issue of the Gazette, concerning the excessive express rates on a tube of oysters, says: "If it costs $1.20 to get ten gallons of oysters by American express from Williamsport to Wellsboro, and 65 cents to get the same amount of oysters from a point in Maryland to Williamsport, three times the distance, how much longer is Tom Platt to remain in the United States senate and when will he get a parcels post? There is a problem for you. In addition to our railroad commission, it looks if an express commission would not be out of order.
