As long as we have corruptible flesh we must expect thorns in the flesh. We shall have plenty of rest and comfort at the end if we have but little by the way.

If any point over-labors your mind, divert and relieve it by some other subject of a more sensible or manual nature, rather than what may affect the understanding, for this were to write one thing upon another, which blots out our former expressions, or renders them illegible.

Upon the whole matter, employ your thoughts as your business requires, and let that have place according to merit and urgency, giving everything a review and due digestion; and you will prevent many errors vexations, as well as save much time to yourself in the course of your life.

Because a small amount of goods stolen by six Muncy youths were hidden under the floor of the plant of the Herald Printing and Publishing Co., at Muncy, Charles J. Haaga, manager of the plant, was taken into custody Monday afternoon for receiving stolen goods, while on his way to Philadelphia. He waived a hearing and later furnished bail.
The stolen goods were taken from the store of E. B. Smith, opposite the Herald office, Sunday afternoon April 5. Constable Smith of Muncy got on the trail of the boys and assisted by Mr. Haaga, succeeded in finding the goods hidden under the floor. In value the goods amounted to several dollars.

One of Williamsport's liberal minded citizens has made a donation of $50 toward the Easter Egg Hunt.
This will be divided into prizes of five-five-dollar gold pieces and twenty-five silver dollars, making it very profitable as well as very interesting for the children who participate.

Up to the present date, besides the above sixty-eight business firms have offered a total of ninety five prizes, while eight of the citizens have attempted to furnish a total of nine hundred and fifty eggs. It is hoped that the total may reach 200 prize eggs with 2,000 ordinary candy eggs.

SHAVING IS A DELIGHT with a SUPERIOR SAFETY razor.
The newest and the best, shaves close and pleasantly, with no scraping. A user in writing of this razor, says: "I have never shaved myself in comfort with either of my old style razors, so thought I would try the Superior. I can honestly say that I never enjoyed a more comfortable shave in my life, no dragging or pulling and through with in a minute."

If you have a Superior there is no more "next please," no more waiting and a wonderful saving of your old half dollars, set complete includes silver nickel plated frame, holder and stopping handle and twelve selected blades in an attractive silk-lined case. The manufacturer values this outfit at $5.00. "The Philadelphia Press" offers the Daily edition of their paper an entire year with a Superior Safety Razor, both mailed to your address, for three dollars and seventy-five cents. This is less than the value of the razor alone. You will not regret taking advantage of this offer.
