WHEREAS, HON. CHAS. E. TERRY, President of the Court, Hon. J. R. Richlin and R. C. E. Shinka, Assoc. Therefore, notice is hereby given to the Coroners, Justices of the Peace and Constables within the county, that they be then and there in their proper person at 2 o'clock p. m. of said day, with their lists, records, inquisitions, examinations and other memoranda to those things to which they are bound by their respective offices, and to those who are bound by their respective offices, to appear and there to prosecute against them as they shall be just.

County Seat
Local and Personal Events
Tersely Told.

Mrs. Joseph McIntire of Laporte township was quite ill last week.

W. P. Shoemaker was a Williamsport visitor Wednesday.

Dr. W. H. Randall has placed a new roof on his house on Main street.

F. W. Meylert is preparing to lay a cement walk in front of his residence on Muncy street.

Miss Effie Gansel of Williamsport, spent Easter with her parents at this place.

Mrs. A. T. Armstrong of Hughesville and Mrs. Ben Taylor of Strawbridge, on Wednesday were the guests of Mrs. H. H. Spencer.

The Cheney house recently vacated by John Minnier and family, is having the interior re-papered and painted.

The First Quarterly Conference of the M. E. church will be held at that church next Monday evening.

Dr. T. S. Wilcox, D. D. of Williamsport, will preach the sermon.

Miss Marietta Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Chase, formerly of Laporte, graduated as a professional nurse from the Medico Chi Hospital at Philadelphia, on March 24.

Charles E. Decker of Lopez, died April 19 at the age of 37 years.

Mr. Decker was a son-in-law of Ellis Casselbury. He leaves a wife and three children. The remains were buried at Lopez Tuesday.

The portable sawmill of Harry McCarroll at shady Nook, near Lopez, was destroyed by fire at noon on Tuesday of last week. The fire started in some manner while the men were at dinner. Loss about $1400. The mill was not insured.

Mrs. Sarah Calkins of Forksville is in the Sanitarium at Battle Creek, Michigan.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a notice by the Directors of Mt. Ash Cemetery of a "bee" for work on Friday and Saturday of this week. The directors are laboring earnestly to place our cemetery in respectable and attractive condition. It is a most worthy enterprise and all who have friends buried there should be not only willing but anxious to assist in this work. Let there be a large attendance on Friday and Saturday as this will probably be the last opportunity afforded for work. Men and teams are needed.

The Canton World says: "Mrs. Ellen Newman, who went to Tampa, Fla., from this place to spend the winter met with quite a serious accident. She started to call upon some friends who were tenting at the beach and made a mistake and got in the wrong tent where some bull dogs were on guard. They jumped upon her and threw her down and had bitten her feet very badly before help arrived."

As the time selected by the Directors of Mountain Ash Cemetery Association for clearing off the addition to the cemetery property proved inconvenient to a large number of our townspeople, who were unable to assist in the work, the directors have appointed Friday and Saturday of this week, April 24 and 25 for a general working "bee" at the cemetery. A number of teams have been engaged for both days and all those who feel an interest in the care and appearance of the cemetery are earnestly urged to contribute at least one day's work. Don't forget the dates Friday and Saturday of this week. By order of Directors.

It is said that a summer hotel to accommodate 500 guests will be built in connection with Dr. Torrey's Bible conference at Montrose. Another feature will be a training school for children and missionaries.

A West Virginia lawyer has just received a legacy of one hundred thousand dollars as a reward for his honesty. But this does not mean that all lawyers are not honest from principle and not because they hope to be pecuniarily rewarded for their virtue.

Farrel, Treasurer of the County of Sullivan, hereby give notice to all persons concerned that unless the County, Road, Poor and school Taxes due on the following tracts of Unseated Lands situated in said county are paid before the day of sale, the whole or such part of each tract as will pay the taxes and such costs chargeable thereon will be sold at the Court House in Laporte, said County of Sullivan, on the 8th day of June, 1908, being the second Monday in June. The sale to be continued by adjournment from day to day if deemed necessary for arrears of taxes due, and assessed and cost accrued on each tract respectively.
