Honors are easy again. Every time Mr. Taft buys a new horse Mr. Bryan mounts a new hobby.—Omaha Bee.

But He Runs on Forever.
[From the New York Sun.]
What will Mr. Bryan say after next election day? Mr. Bryan will insist that he is an optimist. Beaten three times? What of that? He's the one great Democrat willing for his fellow men to be beaten once again.

Read the Commoner and learn! Mr. Bryan, Mr. Kern, sail together on this trip. In the old, oft stranded ship. (They have quarters in the stern.)
In this antiquated craft, while they gaze at Mr. Taft miles ahead—the race near done and by Taft and Sherman won—Mr. Bryan, ever wise, doubtless will philosophize and to Mr. Kern rectify that remark, already trite. All prepared and often sprung: "Beaten? Yes, but I'm still young! I can wait another four years, then try the race once more. I have got this thing down pat. I'm the one great Democrat!"
—Julian Durand.

The second season of the "Mokoma Outing" conducted by Prof. L. L. Ford, James A. Muller and B. B. Wilgus closed Tuesday morning when Messrs. Muller and Wilgus with their charges left for their city homes. Those who spent the season at the Outing were a bright and interesting lot of boys, and the reluctance with which they left the scenes of their summer's pleasures and profits proved that the second season was even more thoroughly enjoyed than the initial season.

The Outing is already a recognized factor for good in the community, as all those connected with it are ready and willing to contribute to the social, intellectual and spiritual life of the town, and no other influence but that of good is left after their departure. The boys are brought close in touch with nature, and with their able instructors are taught to see only the beautiful good and true in life. May the success of this worthy project continue each succeeding year.

There is a news paper printed in Susquehanna county whose editor has the right idea about the curfew business says the Altoona Tribune.

He advises every family into which his paper finds its way as a friendly visitor to institute a curfew of its own. When that comes to pass there will be no boys and girls on the public streets at an unseASONABLE hour. Each head of the family will see to that. The father will be home at a proper hour himself and will make it his business to enforce the local curfew ordinance with rigid impartiality.

If each home in the land were to adopt this method and adhere to it much would result and many a lad who is likely to end in the penitentiary under existing conditions would grow up into a useful citizen. It will not do for parents to try to shift their personal responsibility to the shoulders of the state.

A goodly number of the newspapers of the state have fallen into the error of supposing that the constitutional amendments now being advertised throughout the state will be submitted to the popular vote next November. They must be acted upon by the legislature of 1909. If that body approve they will be submitted to the vote of the people in November 1909. They are published in accordance with the requirements of the organic law and for public information. If the people believe they should be adopted, or that any of them should be rejected they have the opportunity of expressing their views to their representatives before the next meeting of the legislature. The average legislator would be glad to vote the way his constituents desire.
