FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE
Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

County Seat Local and Personal Events tersely Told.

Mrs. J. Roberts did shopping in Dushore Saturday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Gumbie a daughter, on Sunday Oct. 4th.

Mr. A. E. Tripp of Wilkes Barre is spending a few days in town, and attended the fair on Thursday.

Considerable political activity was in evidence at the Forksville Fair this week.

Rev. S. H. Engler filled the pulpit at the M. E. Church Sunday evening and his sermon was much appreciated by the congregation.

Mrs. W. B. Ritter was called to Whitewater Pa., the early part of this week to attend the funeral of an uncle.

The display of fruit and vegetables at the Forksville Fair was exceptionally fine and of which the agricultural people of the county may well feel proud.

Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Ripple of Luzerne County are visiting Mrs.
Ripple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.
S. Eddy. Mr. Ripple will preach in the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Rev. H. L. Jarrett, pastor of the M. E. Church was suddenly taken ill on Sunday at Eagles Mere. He has gone to his home at Selinsgrove for a few weeks to regain his health.

Sheriff Brown conveyed the two prisoners sentenced to the penitentiary, to their future home, last week. He was accompanied by Lyman Norton of Hillsgrove, and Edgar sick of Cherry Mills.

A large Teachers Training Class has been organized in the Sonestown M. E. church and has successfully passed the first examination under the leadership of Rev. S. B.
Bidlack. Sonestown is trying to help Sullivan county reach the front line at Shamokin this Fall.

Mr. C. R. Penneck of Kennett Square, President of the Lake Makoma Company, was a business man at the County Seat this week.
Mr. Penneck states that several lots have recently been purchased and a number more sales about to be made, on which cottages will be erected early next season.

Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Engler of Medix Run spent the early part of the week in town. They had been at Hillsgrove to attend the funeral of Mrs. Engler's mother, Mrs. Bryan, who died very suddenly.
Mrs. Bryan was a daughter of the venerable Joseph Little of Picture Rocks, who at the present time is very ill.

Sonestown is keeping abreast of the times in more ways than one, for she now has a Rural Delivery route which will deliver mail to the inhabitants along the foot of North Mountain from Sonestown to Nord-mont, and many people living near the latter place will receive their mail from this source, Mr. Hugh Parker is the carrier.

Mrs. L. L. Ford and daughter Mable closed their cottage on Monday and left on the evening train for Philadelphia, after staying at Laporte five weeks longer than in previous summers, for the benefit of Miss Mables health which is much improved.

W. J. McCartney returned from Maine for a few days last week to look after his lumbering interests at this place. He returned to Maine Thursday accompanied by his wife where they will remain for several weeks.

The reopening of the Sonestown Church has been postponed to Oct.
25th, two weeks from this Sunday. The men in charge of improvements have been unable to finish same before that time.

Rev. S. B. Bidlack will preach at the following places this Sabbath: Mt. Vernon Sunday afternoon, Sonestown Sunday evening, Muncy Valley Sunday morning.
He will also preach at Kedron Saturday evening.

Miss Ione Mason returned to Philadelphia Saturday where she is attending Miss Boice's school.

In the High School boys' Athletic contest at the Fair, the boys of the Estella High School carried off the honors.

On Thursday evening, Oct. 1, at the Universalist parsonage, at Towanda, Winfield S. Brenchly and Miss Lillian Rosback were united in marriage.

Mr. Ernest Burrows of Picture Rocks, and Miss Caroline Osler of Bryan Mills were married at the home of the bride's parents, Thursday, October 1. The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of white embroidered messaline, and was attended by two bridesmaids.
She is a daughter of Hon. David Osler, and is well known in the western part of this county where she has often visited relatives.
The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burrows, and is connected with his father in business.

The township high schools of the state will be given 90 per cent. of the maximum allowed in each of the three classes out of the state appropriation of $137,500 for that purpose.
This is the decision reached by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Schaeffer.

The rate payment on the borough schools, which are separated for the first time this year, has not been fixed.
The total is the same as for township high schools.

HEMLOCK GROVE

Services at the church next Sunday as follows: Sunday School at 10 o'clock, prayer and class meeting at 11 o'clock A. M., Epworth League at 7:30 o'clock P. M. All are invited to attend these services.

S. H. Stanton, candy manufacturer, of Williamsport made a short call at the home of his brother-in-law W. H. Bay.

Misses Mazie and Myrl Phillips are the champion chestnut pickers of this place. On Friday afternoon they decided to go for chestnuts only a short distance from their home.
After an hours picking they returned with nearly three quarts of fine chestnuts. They say there are still more on the trees.

Donald Myers and Harry Secules of Strawbridge spent Saturday with friends at this place.

Owing to an extra crop of corn, Peter Swank was compelled to make an addition to his corn house. Mr.
Swank recently constructed a large bank barn and made other improvements which have added greatly to the appearance of his farm.

Born October 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs.
William Reece a daughter.

The abundant apple crop in this section will give occupation to many of the farmers for some time. The making of cider and apple butter has been in progress for nearly two weeks.

The following young people composed a party of chestnut-pickers: Messrs Walter Hazen, Howard Bay and Misses Pearl and Blanch House-knecht. The party left on Saturday morning for North Mountain. They reached the summit at an early hour when the search for chestnuts at once began and continued until noon.
Before leaving the mountain, the highest point was visited by the party. They were fortunate in landing about twenty-five quarts of chestnuts.

The farmers have been busy for some time bringing cattle from their respective pastures. M. J. Phillips, who had five head on the mountains near Muncy Valley, was unfortunate in finding one in a deep well. The animal undoubtedly was in search for water when it came to its disastrous end.

Jerry temple and Monroe Sheer-wood, were successful in bringing in a fine coon one night last week.

How Fast He Could Go.

A breeder and trainer of race horses who is known almost as well in England as he is here recently sold a horse to an Englishman. The Englishman before paying for the horse quibbled a bit about the price and then said:

"You know, I'd like to see the horse first just to see how fast he can go."
"Never mind about that," said the trainer. "He can't go any faster than I can tell it."—New York Sun.
