If you want a comic section which is really humorous—one you can enjoy and which will make you laugh, buy the Philadelphia Press every Sunday for you and the children will find it very interesting.
The children will amuse themselves for hours reading about Hair-breadth Harry, the famous boy hero, and his adventures—Lucky Mike—John, Poor John—the great bargain fiend, Mrs. Rummage; Mrs. Time Killer, who kills time, and Mr.
Grouch never fails to amuse. Clumsy Claude is always trying to assist his father, but generally lands in trouble, and Mr. Softleigh is worked by every one.

The comic Features all are drawn by the best comic artists in America, exclusively for the PHILADEL-PHIA PRESS. They will entertain the old as well as the young. Have the PHILADELPHIA PRESS delivered to your home every Sunday morning.

County Seat Local and Personal Events Tersely Told.

Mrs. W. P. Shoemaker is visiting her mother, near Dushore.

Mrs. J. A. Roberts and Miss Maria Emig were Dushore visitors Tuesday.

Hon. T. J. Ingham is visiting his son, E. P. Ingham in New York City.

Mr. W. O. Long, of Sonestown, was transacting business at the county seat Thursday.

The new front that is being built onto the Commercial hotel is already changing the entire appearance of that structure.

Mrs. G. S. Eddy went to New Albany, on Saturday to see her father who is in very poor health.

Rev. Thos. F. Ripple is spending a few days in town before returning to his charge at Hunlock creek, Luzerne county, where he will remain the coming year by appointment of the recent conference at Harrisburg.

William Heim of Greedwood, Pa., was circulating among his many Laporte friends on Tuesday.
William always was in harmony with Laporte and expresses a strong desire to return to the mountain town.

Mr. Peter Murray of Murray-town, purchased the buildings at Jakerville, and is having them torn down and the lumber removed. Soon nothing but the stone foundations will remain of the once bustling lumbering and woodturning village.

The people of Towanda are rejoicing over the prospects of a trolley line in their city in the near future.

The generous bounty of $1.00 for every porcupine killed on his timber land in the vicinity of Ricketts is offered by Colonel Ricketts. These animals are as destructive to timber as they are ugly to the sight.

F. W. Meylert Esq., is moving his law office from the second story of A. H. Buschhausen's store building to the office room formerly occupied as a law office by Atty.
A. J. Bradley, on the corner of Main and Muncy streets.

By appointment of the M. E. conference, Rev. H. L. Jarrett will remain as pastor of the Laporte, Eagles Mere and Nordmont M. E. churches for another year. Rev.
S. B. Bidlack, of the Muncy Valley and Sonestown churches for the past four years, has been transferred to Penfield, Pa. Rev. Bid-lack accomplished much good during his ministry in this county, and there are many who regret his departure for new fields of labor.

A very pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Osler at Bernice, on Wednesday, March 24, when their popular daughter, Miss Marion, and Mr. James Lochry of Corning, N. Y., were united in marriage.
The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. H. Burk, of the Mildred Lutheran church. After an extended wedding tour, part of which will be spent in Texas, they they will go to housekeeping at Corning. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Osler, and favorably known to people of Laporte where she resided when her father was sheriff of this county. The groom is employed as an engineer on the N. Y. C. and H.

Work was commenced this week on the proposed railroad extending from Nordmont to Ricketts. Over one hundred foreign laborers arrived in Nordmont recently to engage in the work of grading. The road will be used exclusively for shipping wood to the acid factory at Nordmont and will be put into service as soon as a few miles of track is placed.

Charles E. Mills, Bradford county's Junior representative in the state legislature, would abolish capital punishment in the Keystone state.
On Monday of last week, he introduced a bill in the House which has for its next the abolishment of capital punishment and the substituting of life imprisonment.

Mr. Mills bill for the abolishment of capital punishment brings to mind the fact that the author has, himself been instrumental in sending two men to the gallows. While district attorney of Bradford county, Mr. Mills prosecuted Bigler and Charles Johnson, and it is admitted that his work in connection with the case, and his masterful pleas to the jury in the trials had much, very much, to do with the convicting of the brothers.

Mr. Mills was among those who watched Bigler Johnson die on the gallows in Towanda jail yard; and two years later to the day, he was one of the few who saw Charles Johnson drop through the same trap, and meet the same fate meted out for his brother Bigler.

Representative Mills, it will be remembered, fought the application of commutation of the death sentences and insisted that the mandates of the law be carried out, and that the Johnsons die on the gallows. They died with ropes around their necks, and now the man who as county prosecutor worked tirelessly for the conviction and execution, would have no more of it, but life imprisonment instead.

Another bill introduced by Mr.
Mills is the making concurrence of nine jurymen enough to render a verdict in a civil case.
