Andrew J. Hackley who has been ill since last November, is gradually improving in health.

The Village Improvement Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Keeler, on Wednesday evening, May 5.

The Secretary's report of the Directors Meeting reached this office too late for it to appear in full.

Joseph Carpenter of English Center, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Mason of this place.

Editor Taylor of the Dushore Review, was a pleasant caller at office Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Higley have returned from Roselle Park, N. J. where they spent the winter.

Saylor Lawrence of Kane, spent Tuesday in town, and while here called on many of his friends who were glad to shake hands and have a chat with this genial young man.

Mr. Andrew Edgar of Sonestown was a business man at the County-seat Wednesday, discharging his duties as administrator of the estate of Jeremiah Edgar, his brother.

Mrs. Lucy Updegraff, mother of Mrs. W. H. Randall, died at her home in Williamsport, five o'clock Tuesday morning. She was in her 78th year and had been an invalid for 30 years. Tuberculosis was the cause of her death. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon.

Just after the close of the service at the Episcopal church on Sunday evening, as the rector, Rev. T. W. Null, was in the act of extinguishing the lights, the large chandelier which holds many oil lamps broke from its fastenings and crashed to the floor. Rev. Null was standing directly beneath the chandelier when in fell, and the burning lamps fell around him but fortunately none of them exploded. A fire started which by the presence of mind of the rector was quickly smothered, but not before some damage was done to the interior of the building.

On Tuesday afternoon about forty tons of mud and rocks slid from the hillside onto the W. and N. B. railroad at Karge's point. It was not discovered by the track men and when the evening south bound train came along it was only by the presence of mind of the engineer that a serious wreck was averted. The landslide was just at a curve where it could not be seen by the engineer until the engine was nearly upon it, and too late to stop before striking the rock, but by reversing the engine to the full limit the force of the contact was broken and the engine was only derailed. The railroad runs along a steep precipice at this point, and it was fortunate that the engineer did not lose his head when he saw the danger.

The third annual Sunday School convention for the Sunday Schools of Davidson township, Sullivan county, will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church, at Sonestown, Friday, May 7th. There will be three sessions, morning, afternoon and evening. Every Sunday School in the District should be represented by superintendents and delegates and others who are interested in Sunday School work. The following committees have been appointed: Music, Lela Buck, Pearl Houseknecht, W. W. Hazen; Entertainment, Mrs. Andrew Edgar, Walter Hazen, Harry Buck.

On account of the broken lamps and inability to light the edifice, Evening-prayer and sermon will be held at St. John's Church on Sunday afternoon at 3:30. Sunday School promptly at 2:45. Thurlow W. Null, rector.
