The best investment farmers can more than money.

The great strawberry season of 1909, which is expected to make some rich men out of poor farmers in Delaware, opened on Monday of last week. Never in the history of Delaware fruit-growing have such luxurious berries hung from the vines. From $715,000 to $1,000,000 is the estimate placed on the crop of Delaware's three counties alone it is admitted, however, that the million dollar figure will only be realized in case good soil prices prevail through-out the season. $750,000 estimate allows an average of 3-1-2 cents a quart for the ripened fruit.

Our sincere sympathy goes out to the people of West Pittston, who for some months have lived between alternate hope and fear, occasioned by the settling of the earth into the mines. After the first signs of trouble appeared some months ago, the movement subsided, and it was hoped that the trouble was over.
Lately it has renewed itself to an alarming degree, and fine and costly residences and churches have been badly damaged and in some cases practically ruined, streets and sidewalks have been upheaved, water and gas mains broken and nearly every form of damage and disaster except death and injury to people has been experienced.

Earth quakes are said to be one of the most terrorizing experiences known. The condition of affairs at West Pittston is akin to that. The inhabitants not only live in constant fear of their houses falling down about their ears, but their is also danger of being smothered by gas, or that fire may break out, should escaping gas reach a flame. Of course under such conditions the value of real estate goes down to zero and the woes of West Pittston are many and sore. We extend to them our deepest sympathy.—Wyalusing Rockett.

The motor car of the farmers is financing good roads in another way.
The dealers are the most active good roads advocates in the state. One of the principal motor dealers, for instance, makes it a business to deliver a good roads lecture with every car.
The dealers have been farmers, and they know the subject from the standpoint of both sides. Farmers get the idea at the very beginning, and they never go behind the new doctrine.—

YELLOW JACKET SAYINGS.

Wanted—a leader for Miss Democracy. She's splashing about and still a-hunting, but nothing in sight yet.

Call them what you please, but the Democratic platforms all stand for free trade and free soup. You can't rub that out.

There are two sides to Democracy.
There is the pie side for the politicians and the soup side for the suckers.
Where are you "at?"

The Democratic and Republican parties are both levelers, but they work differently. Republicanism levels things up and Democracy levels them down.

Here's an appropriate plank for the next Democratic national platform: Resolved, that we are stuck up in the blue mud of political pollution, and we don't give a darn who knows it.

Lots of those who are eternally worrying somebody with platitudes about the "eternal principles" of the Democratic party couldn't furnish offhanded a list of these "eternal principles" to save their necks.

If what the Clevelandites and the Bryanites are saying about each other is true there is no Democratic party these days, but the old thing has gone to seed and the seed have rotted. And it almost looks like it.

What is hurting many Democrats more than anything else is that they can't point to a Democratic administration that ever gave the country such prosperity as the Republicans are doing. No wonder they are worried.
