GRANGE INCORPORATION.

Extract From a Special Act Passed by the New York Legislature In 1874. There is considerable inquiry among members of the Order as to the effect of incorporating a grange and how to proceed in the matter. The following extract from the law governing this incorporation of granges will be of assistance only to such granges as are located within New York state, since it is a special act of the New York state legislature.

Any number of persons, not less than thirteen or more than forty, eligible to membership under the provisions of to membership under the provisions of the constitution, bylaws, rules and usages of the said Order of Patrons of Husbandry, as indorsed and promul-gated by said New York state grange, may organize a subordinate grange in accordance with said constitution, by-laws and usages, and on receiving a charter issued by said New York state grange or countersigned by its secre-tary any subordinate grange so organized may file articles of incorporation with the town clerk of the town where it is located, duly signed and acknowledged by its members or a majority of them, stating the name and number of the grange, the names of its officers and executive committee and signify-ing a desire to obtain the benefits of this act. And on filing such articles of incorporation every such subordinate grange shall become a legal corporation, subordinate to the said New York state grange, and shall possess all the powers and be subject to all the du ties of corporations under the general laws of this state and under the constitution, bylaws and rules of said New York state grange, and may take, hold, sell and convey property, real and personal, and shall have and use a seal and may alter and renew the same at pleasure. But the total net income from the real estate held by any such grange shall not exceed $500
