Mrs. W. W. Shank of Williamsport, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Randall.

Miss Mary Eddy of Bradford county, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Eddy.

Miss Helen Chase of Eagles Mere, spent part of last week with her aunt, Miss Fannie Meylert.

Mrs. Michael Flynn is receiving treatment in the White Haven Sanitarium.

Miss May Donohue of Williamsport, spent last week with Miss Elizabeth Farrell at this place.

A party of young men from Picture Rocks, are spending a week in camp at Lake Mokoma.

Mrs. Joseph Carpenter of English Center, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Robert Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. James Strohl and little daughter are the guests of Mrs. Strohl's mother, Mrs. E. E. Wrede.

Beware of the truth crushed to earth; it is liable to rise up later and take a fall out of you.

Don't be knocker, be a worker. If you can't work for the betterment of your town, don't knock those who are doing what they can for its success.

As a tree planter the Pennsylvania railroad company may well claim the championship. Within the last three years it has planted 2,430,000 trees. This year it has arranged to set out 1,000,000 more.

The V. I. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. F. H. Ingham on Tuesday evening, August 17.

About fifty persons from Sonestown and Eagles Mere came to Lake Mokoma on the Sunday train and spent the day on the picnic grounds.

Judge Terry, who presides over the courts of Sullivan and Wyoming counties, caught more fish than the law allows recently, and was apprised of the fact by two state constables. He paid his fine like a man.

Last Saturday witnessed the largest excursion that ever came to Lake Mokoma. The excursion came from Muncy, and filled nineteen coaches run in two sections over the W. and N. B. railroad.

A load of hay which was drawn into a barn at Towanda last week suddenly took fire and the supposition is that the blaze was caused by friction of the wheel against the rigging. The barn was saved by running the wagon out doors and the fire department put out the blaze.

The carnival at Eagles Mere Thursday night of this week promises to be largely attended. Nearly $1,000 will be expended in illuminations. The University Quartet, which made a hit at the lake last year, has been engaged again this year and it will be accompanied by James Hawley, reader.

The boat carnival on Lake Mokoma, which promises to be the best ever witnessed on the lake, will take place on Saturday evening, August 21. Anyone wishing to join in the parade on the water can hire a boat from the Mokoma Company. Much enthusiasm is already shown and if the weather is favorable the carnival will be a big success.

The ladies of the L. O. T. M. of Dushore, spent Thursday picnicking at Mokoma.
