Sunday School Convention.

An interesting Sunday School Convention at Hillsgrove Aug 5th. After a song and devotional exer, cises by G. P. Morse, Vernon Hullchairman discussed. S. S. Organization giving many good thoughts on the subject. Miss Martha Robison State worker, then discussed Primary work showing how necessary it is to have a suitable room for the work away from the main school in order to succeed.

Ray Jackson then addressed the convention on Normal work presented some good ideas. Miss Robinson taught a primary class selected for the occasion. She was very successfull in holding the attention of the class. Evening session opened by song service by Rev. Yerden. The first address was what to teach, given by George P. Morse. It is a quesof seed sowing If the right kind of seed is sown the harvest will be satisfactory. If we were to make Mohammedons we would teach the Koran; if we want Christians we must teach the gospel of Christ. A very interesting temperance address was given by Burton Wakley. Rev. Yerden then addressed the convention on "The better part which could not be taken from her. Miss Robison discussed the Adult Bible class showing the wonderful progress made in the work, and many good things accomplished by way of conventions, etc.

The offering for the District work amounted to 2.75. The following officers were elected:--

Pres., Vernon Hull; Vice Pres., Henry Darby; Secy., Robert Brong; Home Dept., Mrs. Chas. Haas; Teacher training, Vernon Hull; Primary Supt., Mrs. R. Brong; Supt. of organized work, Raymond Jackson Flora Cook, Pres. Supt.

The second annual meeting of the Myers family was held at Strawbridge at the home of James Myer. All enjoyed themselves in the shade of the apple frees where a table was spread with good things to eat.

Just as they were seated at the table Mr. and Mrs. David Myers drove up jolly as ever saying: better late than not at all. There were ten of the twelve children present. After refreshments were served they were called to order and a short address was made by Rev. Ruth.

It was decided that the officers serve another year and that the place for meeting be the same and on the first Saturday of August. They then sang God be with you till we meet again and returned home.

The Shamokin news pays the following tribute to the wives of workingmen: "There is one class of laborers who never strike. They get up at five in the morning and never get back to bed until ten or eleven at night. They work without ceasing the whole of that time and receive no other emolument than food and the plainest kind of clothing; they understand something of every branch of economy and labor from finance to cooking; though harassed by a hundred responsibilities, though driven and worried, though reproached and looked down upon they never revolt, and they cannot organtze for their protection. Not even sickness releases them from their posts. No sacrifice is deemed to great for them to make and no in-
