One of the most delightful affairs of the younger people this season was the party given by Miss Mable Ford, at Mokoma Place, Thursday evening, August 27th.
The tennis court and croquet ground adjoining were brilliantly lighted and, being as they are, surrounded by trees, presented a beautiful scene. It was here that the forty guests were entertained with various games and served with dainty refreshments. At a seasonable hour the boys and girls thanked their charming young hostess for a most enjoyable evening, and reluctantly departed for their homes.

President Taft will be invited by the National Geographic society to present medals to the British Antarctic explorer, Lieutenant Shackleton and the American discoverer of the North Pole, Dr. Cook, at an annual dinner in December at the New Willard hotel. Willis S. Moore, Pres. of the society, said:

"I have already been authorized to ask the President to present the medals to Dr. Cook and Lieutenant Shackleton at our annual dinner.
Lieutenant Shackleton has been invited to attend and Dr. Cook will be invited at the next meeting of our board of managers. If a majority of the members of the board have returned to the city by Tuesday I will call a meeting to take official action on Dr. Cook's Discovery. I feel it safe to say the board will set itself on record as firmly believing Dr.
Cook and his discovery."

Canton was thrown into all kinds of excitement Thursday morning by a telephone message from East Canton, stating that a mad dog passed through that place and after biting five dogs continued in the direction of Canton. The dog was seen in town but as far as is known only one dog was bitten, and that belonged to Clark Jenkins. The canine after passing through Canton took the South road toward Grover, and eluded the officers. The dog belonging to Clark Jenkins was promptly killed. A valuable dog belonging to Lynn Ballard was bitten as were also dogs belonging to Joseph Brooks and Charles Spalding. The mad dog was finally shot by Charles Werline.

Rev. J. B. Blanchet D. D., an eminent divine of Philadelphia and a long time friend of the family, preached a very interesting Memorial Sermon, and conducted a very elaborate service throughout. The Holy Communion was administered to a large number of Communicants.
Dr. Blanchet was glad to accompany the family to the beautiful lit-the Tablet in the most beautiful manner. Mrs. Esther M. Gregory of Washington D. C. and Miss Orma Hill of Philadelphia, who unveiled the tablet, were the only relatives present, both being grand-daughters of John Sims Green.

Fire and Tornado Insurance.
The Kansas Patrons' Fire and Tornado association has decreased the cost of insurance to grange farmers of that state by fully one-half. It is now carrying $8,280,000 in risks on something over 4,000 policies. The cost on each $1,000 for 1908 was $2.17. The president and treasurer each draw the magnificent salary of $50 each.

The business agent of the Ohio state grange reports combined purchases by the members in that state last year of $16,000 worth of binder twine.

PENROSE TO LEAD THE BUTTER FIGHT
Pennsylvania Senator Champion of Dairy Interests.

TO FOLLOW TARIFF VICTORY Republican Leader of the Keystone State to Lead the Forces of the Agricultural Interests at the Next Session of the National Congress.
[Special Correspondence.]
Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 7.

Reports from every section of the state confirm the predictions that the farmers of Pennsylvania would be found standing loyally by the Republican party in the present state campaign.
In the framing of the tariff bill, which was recently passed at Washington, the interests of the farmers and dairymen of the Keystone State were carefully looked after by the Republican representatives in congress, and by also conserving the welfare of the wage earners and capitalists identified with great industrial concerns, the same Republican representatives promoted the general good.

The farmers thrive when their fellow countrymen are employed at remunerative wages, for the great army of workers in the factories and mines and in commercial life are the purchasers of the products of the farms.
From every quarter comes the news of revival of business and the relighting of the fires of the coke ovens and the furnaces of great manufacturing plants as the direct result of the passage of a Republican tariff bill.

To Lead Fight For Farmers.
Senator Penrose, who filled a most important role as a leading member of the United States senate's finance committee in drafting the tariff act, had the hearty co-operation of his colleague, the junior United States Senator George T. Oliver, and every one of the Republican members of the house from Pennsylvania.

Now that the tariff issue has been settled prominent factors among the grangers and the dairymen of this state have inaugurated a movement for national protection for the butter makers against the sale of oleomargarine and other similar products in imitation of butter.

As he did in the tariff agitation, Senator Penrose has come to the front as the champion of the dairy interests of his native state and the country at large as well.
He has recognized the numerous defects in federal statutes which govern the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine, butterine, renovated or process butter and adulterated butter and he has agreed to co-operate with the prominent leaders of the Grange, Pure Butter Protective Association, the National Dairy Union and kindred agricultural organizations that wish to see these evils corrected at the session of the Sixty-first congress, which convenes in December next.

To Draft a New Bill.
Senator Penrose has requested a committee of the State Grange of Pennsylvania, the Pennsylvania state department of agriculture and the Pure Butter Protective association of Pennsylvania, with A. H. Woodward, of Clearfield, and Assistant United States Attorney Walter C. Douglas, Jr., as attorneys, to prepare a bill which Senator Penrose will introduce as soon as congress shall reconvene.
Senator Penrose says the defective character of the national laws works great injury to dairymen, farmers, merchants and consumers. The proposed measure is to be drafted with the greatest care, and while it will not prevent the legal manufacture and sale of oleomargarine and other butter substitutes, it will certainly prevent the sale of these products for butter.

Farmers, dairymen and all fair-minded people do not object to the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine for what it is, but they do very properly oppose the marketing of this commodity as the genuine product of the cow.
Statistics from the Pennsylvania department of agriculture show that about 90 per cent of oleomargarine sold at retail is represented by the vendors to be pure butter.
Deception of this kind is a great detriment to the dairyman, and it also enables unscrupulous dealers to defraud consumers who are induced to pay a price for oleomargarine considerably in excess of its real market value.

It is held that the word "knowingly" should be omitted from the oleomargarine laws because in many cases it has been found impossible to secure convictions on account of inability to prove that the offender knowingly violated the law. It is also held that the definition of oleomargarine should be so changed that butter, with or without coloring matter, could not be used in its manufacture, and that stamps should be visible and a record kept of the serial numbers so that every package may be traced to the dealer or manufacturer.
