If you want to keep in touch with the world of sports read the sporting page of the Philadelphia Press every morning. It gives you all the news, baseball, tennis, track, golf, rowing, polo, swimming, yachting motoring. Not just the mere facts, but the story of the game, told accurately and with such detail that you know just what happened and why it happened. And you'r not confined to news of the big contests. The Phila-Ex-Judge Dunham and former delphia Press sporting page tells you about smaller events as well. Written up by men who know their business. It's real news, wide awake alive clean. The sort of stuff you like to read. Then there Hugh Doyle's cartoons. Clever, humorous, even prophetic. You can't beat them, And with it all you get the greatest photographs that hustle, work and knowhow to take. Photographs taken right on the field, showing things doing and the exciting moments. Read Mr. Wiseguy's talks in the Philadelphia Press.
