Reports regarding the receptions given cendidates on the Republican tate ticket. A. E. Sisson, for auditor eneral, and J. A. Stober, for state ing tour are of the most gratifying character.

They indicate that the rank and file of the Republican voters of Pennsyl-vania are alive to the issues of the campaign and the importance of poling a large vote at the coming elec

At every point at which these candi dates stopped they were cordially re-ceived, and hundreds of the most ac tive and prominent citizens of the re greet them and to assure them that I am not one of those who subscribe to the doctrine that to the victor belong the spoils. That doctrine was first enunciated by a Democrait, was practiced by the Democraic party through every ad-ministration incum Jackson to Buccan-ne, and never until the Republican most an dever until the Republican not an advocate of this doctrine. I do believe that he who works in the vine-yard should eat of the finality adher-ents of the new one. But while I am not an advocate of this doctrine. I do believe that he who works in the vine-yard should eat of the finality defined for any office, no matter how high, simply because he has served earnest-half of the party in whose principles half of the party had that an earnest, active interest in public affairs should be encouraged in all young men as they approach the volting age. This week Candidates Sisson and Stober resumed their campaigning.

A true copy of the Joint Resolution. ROBERT MCAFEE Secretary of the Commonweal THE GRANGE Conducted by J. W. DARROW, Chatham, N. Y., Press Correspondent New York State Grange DEDICATION OF HOMES The New Ceremony Introduced Into New Hampshire. The Home of the President of the New Hampshire State Board of Agricul-ture and Treasurer of the State Grange Selected For First Honors.

[Special Correspondence.]

One of the late events in grange cir cles in New Hampshire was the first use of the new ceremony for dedicat ing the rural home, the ritual which was written and presented to the national grange, or the Order of Patrons of Husbandry, by Mortimer Whitehead of New Jersey, past lecturer of the national grange, and which was formally adopted by that body at its session last November. The work was performed by a "team" from the eastern New Hampshire Pomona grange, being committed to memory George R. Drake, secretary of the state grange, acted as director. The komona grange first met in reg ular session with one of the largest attendances in its twenty-five years history, as 350 sat down to the sumptuous (inner. The home dedicated. which is named Hill Top Farm, that of Joseph D. Roberts, president o the state board of agriculture and treasurer of the state grange. It is a

This week Candidates Sisson and Stober resumed their campaigning.

They visited Warren and Tionesta esterday. to go to Bradford, McKean county, and Coudersport. Forest county, and to-morrow to Emporium, Cameron county, in the morning, and Lock Hoven in in Clearfield in the morning, and Balle fonte, Centre county, in the afternoon. Friday morning they are to be in Lewisburg, Union county, and Friday after-noon they are billed for Sunbury, Northumberland county. Saturday's meetings will be held in Middleburg, Sny der county, in the morning, and Lewistown, Mifflin county, in the afternoon.

Speaker Cox, of the state ho representatives, and Major McDowell, chief clerk of the national house of representatives, have been accompanying the candidates, and they have both | wi written to Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state commiltee, that they are elated over the cordiality and the manifest sincerity of the receptions that have been tendered the party's standard-bearers. They say there is no sign of party dis-Mection anywhere and that the Reublicans are harmonious and aggreshave been.

farm of 400 acres devoted to dairving and fruit growing and has been in the Roberts family for several generations. The ceremony was smoothly and impressively rendered, and it was uni versally commended. Nearly all the officers of the state grange and the head Patrons of the state were present. State Master Herbert O. Hadley gave an able address on "Our Homes." The universally high praise with which this beautiful home dedicatio: ceremony has been received by the Order everywhere promises its right to live, and a hundred years from now and as long as the grange stands and rural homes are to be built up, beau-tified and protected in our land of homes it will be a monument to the lifelong devotion and work of Mortimer Whitehead in assisting in building the grange and to his efforts for the higher and brighter life of the farm.
