The latest advise to skaters is to stay on the ice if they would keep from drowning. John Burch, a 16 year old Muncy boy had a narrow escape from death by drowning while skating at that place. He, and several of his boy friends were playing tag on the ice and when young Burch ran out on the bank of the pond he stepped on through, letting him down into the Robert McGee, well which contained a good amount of water. A rope was secured from a nearby house and was finally slipped over his shoulders. He was taken to his home and will

At Eagles Mere and Laporte the ice cutters are harvesting the finest crop of ice seen there within the memory of man-and that's some ice, for Eagles Mere and Laporte don't do things by halves when it comes to an ice crop, with the thermometer down to ten and fifteen degrees below zero a week at a time. Just now the men are cutting 15 inch ice that is as clear and solid as green glass. Next Summer when people down on the plains of the state are panting in the heat, the summer boarders at Eagles Mere and Laporte hotels will be just traveling in the iceist kind of things. -Exchange.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Sullivan County, Pennsylvania, and to me directed and delivered, there will be exposed at public sale at the Court House in the Borough of Laporte, Sullivan County, Pennsylvania, on Saturday, February 4, 1911, at 10 o clock a. m., the following described property, to wit:

All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate in the Township of Davidon, County of Sullivan and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the public ighway leading from Elk Lick School House to the Keeler settlement, nine (9) ods westward from the western line of land of W. M. Stephens; thence Southward on a line parallel with said line two nundred and ninety-four (294) rods more or less to a corner in the Northern line of land formerly of E. I. Brundage; thence Westward along said lands sixty (60) rods more or less to the Eastern line of lands of J. J. Sick; thence Northward along said lands two hundred and ninety tour (294) rods to said highway; thence Eastward along said highway sixty (60) rods more or less to the place of beginning. Subject, however, to a certain timber contract entered into between the said Sibyl Hallstead and W. B. Snider and A. L. Kilmer, dated August 14, 1908, and recorded in Sullivan County Deed Book No. 34, at page 394, etc. The said known as "Nuremberg eggs;" Snider and Kilmer retaining all the rights given to them under said contract accordng to the terms thereof. About 30 acres improved and under a good state of cultivation; balance timbered and having erected thereon a two story frame dwelling house, a frame barn and out-buildings. Well watered and having a good orchard of fruit trees thereon and situate along the public road leading from Nordmont to Central, Pa., and being a desirable property.

Seized, taken into execution and to be sold as the property of Mrs. Sibyl Hallstead at the suit of J. J

Twelve Anarchists Put to Death. Twelve anarchists, who were convicted of conspiracy against the Ja nese throne and the lives of the imperial family, were executed in the His D prison at Tokio, Japan. Those put to darling? death included the alleged ringleader, Denjiro Kotoku, and his wife.

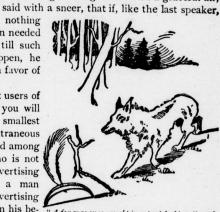

Once in a while some business man, by advertising in programmes, souvenirs and various other schemes, determines that "advertising doesn't pay," and forthwith begins to preach this doctrine.

Several thousand years ago, a gentleman named Æsop told a little story that has a distinct application right here: "A fox was once caught in a trap by his tail, and, in order to get away, was forced to leave it behind. Knowing that without a tail he would be a laughing-stock for all his fellows, he resolved to try to induce them to part with theirs. So at the next assembly of foxes, he made a speech on the unprofitableness of tails in general, and the inconvenience of a fox's tail in particular, adding that he had never felt so easy as he had since he had given up his own. When he sat down, a sly old fellow rose, and waving his long brush with a graceful air, he had lost his tail, nothing further would have been needed to convince him; and till such an accident should happen, he should certainly vote in favor of

Pick out the largest users of newspaper space, and you will find that they are the smallest users of space in extraneous media. You will not find among them a single one who is not firmly convinced that advertising does pay. The more a man spends for newspaper advertising the more positive he is in his belief in the results that it brings.

Nuremberg. Nuremberg was once almost the richest and most famous town in Europe. The well known saying of Pope Pius II. that a Nuremberg citizen was bet-ter off than a Scottish king was justifled by the accounts that have been preserved of the town and its burghers. In the fifteenth century there came from Nuremberg the first watches, cannon, the first gun lock, the first wire drawing machine, the clarinet, certain descriptions of pottery and the art of painting on glass. For 800 years its walls defended the valley of the Pegnitz against all enemies. Four hundred towers once topped the walls, but only about a third of them now

The Canary's Claws.

If you have a canary or other cage bird look to its claws from time to time, for in a state of captivity the bird's nails grow so long that they need cutting. If this be neglected the bird is in danger of getting its nails caught in the cage and hanging there till it dies. Use a sharp pair of nail scissors and take care not to cut more than just the tips of the nails. If you hold the bird in a good light you wil see a little red "thread" in each nail. This you must avoid, or you will draw blood and hurt your little pet.

Flies to Ship and Back to Shore. Eugent B. Ely accomplished a great feat of aviation when he flew twelve miles from shore to the deck of the cruiser Pennsylvania, anchored in San Francisco bay, made a perfect landing on the warship, and after turning about his machine launched it in the air again and flew back to the starting point. The double flight occupied only hour and a half. The greater part of that time was consumed on the coiser in preparing for the return

Ely, who is a native son a soft the Curtiss school of aviators, took the air from Selfridge field, where the Thirtieth infantry was encamped for the occasion. He got off without a hitch and sped the distance of twelve miles across the bay in sixteen min-

Ely's machine broke through the mist and swept up the bay like an enormous gull, never wavering or faltering for an instant.

The air was smoky and the aviator flew low, so that it was difficult to pick him up until he was a few miles away. A blast from the Pennsylvania's siren, which was taken up by a chorus of other whistles, gave the first warn ing of the aeroplane's approach. At brief intervals the sirens shrieked. Then as the aeroplane soared down toward the deck of the cruiser they all let go in a mighty toot.

Ely flew through the cruiser squar-ron very close to the water. He ap-proached the Pennsylvania from her bows, swept past her for a few hun-dred yards and then circled back, mounting slowly and settling lightly on the big platform that covered the ship's after deck and projected far out

Ely landed so lightly that his bi-plane was hardly shaken. His ma-chine, a Curtiss, was especially pre-
