Every-farmer should take advantage of our bargain clubbing offer.

L. R. Bussler spent part of last week in Hughesville.

Miss Olive Keeler visited friends in Nordmont Sunday.

Jake and John Friese are spending a few days in Dushore.

Services at the Episcopal church will be held every Sabbath at 3:30

Edward Schrader of Hillsgrove, was a business man in Laporte on Saturday.

Mrs. Mabel Ritter has returned to her home here after spending some time in Eaglesmere.

The Farm Journal 2 years, the News Item 2 years and one copy of "Horse Secrets" for only $1.25.

L. R. Bussler was summoned to Hughesville Wednesday an account of the serious illness of his father.

The editor of the News Item was called to New Albany Thursday on account of the death of his grandfather, H. R. VanLoon.

Are you a farmer? Do you own or deal in horses? Then you cannot afford to be without "Horse Secrets." 'Tis the best book in its line ever printed.

Circumstances necessitated our going to press earlier than usual this week and as a consequence several items of news were received too late for publication.

In sunny Springtime soft shiny snow swiftly succumbs to savage Sol's seething stabs so sloppy, slippery ,slushy streets sometimes saturate several souls' sandal soles. Yeth it doth.

As one person expressed it as she passed us the greenback for the News Item: "It's a very poor Republican or Democrat either, who cannot take the home paper.' Them's our sentiments exactly.

According to the ground-hog's schedule, Spring is not due for nearly two weeks yet. However, we are perfectly willing to pardon his hogship if he did catch us with no summer suspenders on hand. But should the old saying: "If March comes in like a lamb it will go out like a lion" prove true, we will yet have an opportunity to pop our corns by the fireside.

The next "Mite" social will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Ingham on Friday evening, March 4, for the benefit of the Village Improvement Society. Refreshments will be served and a collection taken. Some new games will be given. As it is one of the objects of the society to establish more social life in Laporte, it is hoped there will be a large attendance All are cordially invited.

We have arranged with the publishers of the Farm Journal to give for a limited time, one copy of their new book, "Horse Secrets," 2 years subscription to Farm Journal and 1 year's subscription to the News Item, all three for $1.25. This is an exceptional offer and we want every farmer and horseman to take advantage of it. Samples of the book and papers can be seen at this office. Renewals accepted on the same terms.

Schools Will Debate.

The friends and patrons of the Laporte borough schools are cordially invited to attend a debate between pupils of the Laporte and Sonestown High Schools, on Friday evening, March 11, at 8:00 o'clock.

The question for debate is: Rebetween pupils of the Laporte and solved, That Country Life is Pre-ferable to City Life. Besides the of God, it ought to be the easiest thing in the world for him to banish every debate a pleasing program of music evil thing from that realm, of thought or word or deed. For, of that king-dom which He set Himself to prepare it was long ago announced, "And the inhabitants shall not say I am sick."

International Bible Lesson for Mar 6, '10.-(Matt. 8:2-17).

The work of Christ at the begin ning of His ministry is summarized in Matt. 4:23 under the three heads of Matt. 4:23 under the three heads of teaching, preaching and healing. One branch of the work we have now seen in the lessons on the Sermon on the Mount, viz., teaching and preaching, and Matthew now goes on to set forth the other great branch of His work in two chanters of mirzeles a group of two chapters of miracles, a group of marvelous works—the signs of the Signs of the Kingdom.

The gradation is natural, Christ came into a world that needed some came into a world that needed some thing more than counsel, rules of life good advice and direction. He found a world "where the whole head was sick and the whole heart faint." Men need not only the teacher's voice, but need not only the teacher's voice, but the Healer's touch, and it was be-cause of this that He who spoke as never man spoke, proved Himself the King of the Physical world by His miracles of healing. The healing is as essential as the teaching. For Christ is not a mere ambassador from the court of heaven. He was the King of Heaven, and as such he must have divine credentials and prove that "in Him was life, and the life was the light of men." So the mirawas the light of men." So the mira cles were the signs of the Kingdon of Heaven,—not prodigles, spectacu lar wonders to startle and dazzle the beholders. They were never per formed for vulgar show, but whenever the opportunity and occasion demanded were put forth naturally, easily, without strain or sensation, in a kingby fashion by the King Himself, testi-fying that he was by divine right King in the physical world. He never seeks out occasions to formally show his power. He steadfastly refuses to power. He steadfastly refuses to work miracles to awe a gaping crowd. He never poses, saying, "Watch me do a startling, mysterious thing." He is always the natural King from Heaven with a heart of love and a hand of power. That heart never was emptied of its love, that hand never failed in its touch of power.

Chronic Diseases.

In this lesson we have the account of the healing of two men, and a womof the healing of two men, and a woman. Of the men one was a leper, the other a paralytic. The leper was healed with a touch ; the palsied man was healed at a distance. One man begged for healing, the other man's master appeared in his behalf. One patient was defiled, the other was helpless. Both were healed instantly, both were healed on account of perboth were healed on account of perfect faith. Leprosy and palsy were symbolic diseases; they represented sin wholly possessing its victim, the one, the case of those entirely defiled by sin, the other, the condition of those who are paralyzed in that part of their being which constitutes inward life, unable apparently to do anything for themselves in the way of salvation. They represent the extreme of the unconverted world, whether Jew or Gen-

Acute Diseases.

Coming into Peter's house at the close of the day Christ found His disciple's mother-in-law prostrate with a fever, and immediately relieved the In account with the situation, by healing her on the spot. This third case of healing in one day as within the circle of the disciples was within the circle of the disciples.
And it suggests the spiritual diseases to which those are liable who are the intimate friends of the King. Healed of chronic diseases of the past we yet are liable to contagion, exposed to attacks of acute diseases, which though temporary are dangerous, and which need the touch of the Great Physician. Epidemics sometimes sweep through churches and disciples are attacked by all kinds of fevers, when the faces get flushed, and the blood hot, the voice strident, and the eye glaring, and the tongue rattling on in delirious speech. Peter himself took a sudden fever several times in his career from which he was only recovered by the Master's prescription.

Representative Cases. These three miracles in this lesson are selected to show that the King is lord of the body. They are represent-ative cases, they are given in detail to lead us up to the statement which follows in the 16th verse: "When the even was come, they brought unto Him many that were possessed with Him many that were possessed with devils, and he cast out the spirits with His word; and healed all that were sick: That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, Himself took our infirmities and bare our sicknesses."

And thus Christ demonstrated that He is King of the physical world. No possible harm can come to these bodies of ours that is beyond his ability. In Christ's day there were no hospitals in Palestine, the only hospi tal there was a travelling hospital, the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. And no one ever came to Him to be pronounced incurable, and no one wa
